SCRIPTURE REFLECTION / REFLEXION DE LAS ESCRITURAS

Today we celebrate the Ascension of Jesus Christ in soul and body into heaven. Jesus does not abandon his disciples. On the contrary, He ascends so that they may receive his Holy Spirit on Pentecost to teach and remind them all that Jesus did and taught them. Jesus ascends into heaven with all his glory on a cloud, just as he will come down again at the end of times. The Parousia will pick up where the Ascension left off, since in the same way Jesus ascended into heaven, he will come down again with all his glory. In between the Ascension and the end of times, there is a short time where we as a Church must fulfill the mission that Jesus has entrusted to us. This commission we hear in the gospel today, namely, that repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

This commission to preach repentance for the forgiveness of our sins is what the apostles would do. Slowly the Church took shape as a community of brothers and sisters who experienced conversion and whose sins have been forgiven. The hope is that when the Lord comes again he will find us in communion with one another as a Church with the awareness that we are poor sinners whose sins have been forgiven. In all these Sundays of Easter, we have been hearing in the Acts of the Apostles that the disciples preached repentance of sins and numerous people were added to the ecclesial community. They were baptized and celebrated the breaking of the bread in communities. They shared their goods and corrected one another out of love. In this way, the Holy Spirit led the Church of God for more than two thousand years through different cultures and ways of living the mission of the Church.

Let us renew our zeal to keep the Holy Spirit within us so that we may fulfill our mission as Christians, just as those Christians from the early Church did. One of the ways in which the Holy Spirit visibly forgives our sins is at the prayer of absolution in the sacrament of reconciliation. At the absolution prayer, the priest says, "God sent the Holy Spirit for the forgiveness of our sins." May we never lose sight that our many sins were forgiven thanks to the Holy Spirit, so that today we may celebrate the sacraments in communion as a Church.

Hoy celebramos la ascensión de Jesucristo en alma y cuerpo al cielo. Jesus no abandona a sus discípulos cuando asciende al cielo. Al contrario, el asciende al cielo para que los discípulos puedan recibir el Espíritu Santo, el paráclito, el día de Pentecostés para enseñarles y recordarles todo lo que Jesus hizo y les enseñó. Jesus asciende al cielo con toda su gloria sobre una nu-be, así como vendrá de nuevo al final de los tiempos. La parusía comenzara con la venida de Jesucristo en las nubes con toda su gloria, así como ascendió. En este tiempo intermediario entre la ascensión y la parusía, hay un corto tiempo en el cual la iglesia debe cumplir la misión que Cristo le encomendó. Esta misión escuchamos en el evangelio de hoy que es de predicar la conversión de los pecados y anunciar el perdón de nuestros pecados a todas las naciones comenzando por Jerusalén.

Esta misión de predicar la conversión y el perdón de los pecados es lo que los apóstoles harían y lentamente la iglesia tomara forma de una comunidad de hermanos y hermanas que experimentaran la conversión y el perdón de los pecados. La esperanza es que cuando venga de nuevo el Señor en toda su gloria nos encuentre en comunión unos con otros como iglesia. Somos pobres pecadores pero Dios nos ha perdonado nuestros muchos pecados y nos regala hermanos y hermanas con quienes podemos celebrar los sacramentos y vivir como iglesia. En todos estos domingos de pascua estuvimos escuchando en los Hechos de los Apóstoles como los discípulos predicaban la conversión de los pecados y mucha gente se arrepentía y se hacía bautizar para llegar a formar parte de la comunidad eclesial. Eran bautizados y celebraban la fracción del pan en comunidades. Compartían sus bienes y se corregían unos a otros en la corrección fraterna por amor. De esta manera, el Espíritu Santo guía a la iglesia de Dios por más de dos mil años a través de diferentes culturas y formas de vivir la misión de la iglesia.

Renovemos nuestro celo por mantener dentro nuestro al Espíritu Santo para que podamos cumplir nuestra misión como cristianos, así como lo hicieron los primeros cristianos de la iglesia primitiva. Una de las maneras visibles en donde el Espíritu Santo se manifiesta en nuestra conversión y perdón de los pecados es en la oración de absolución que el presbítero ora sobre nosotros en el sacramento de la reconciliación. El presbítero dice que Dios ha enviado el Espíritu Santo para el perdón de nuestros pecados. Nunca perdamos de vista los dos aspectos de nuestra humanidad que somos pecadores, pero Dios nos perdona nuestros pecados para que podamos celebrar unidos como iglesia los sacramentos.

FROM FR. OSCAR

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Last week, we began the summer season after Memorial Day. It reminds me of one of the reflections of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI in his book, Seek That Which is Above (p. 148). Benedict XVI says that all men have a deep yearning to step out of the concerns of daily work to be in contact with nature and beauty. Benedict relates this desire of man to the desire of God to rest on the seventh day after all the work of creation. Humans were created in the image of God, and so also desire to rest in God. We Christians rest from work every Sunday at the worship of God. We not only rest physically, but also spiritually with the Sunday Mass. Similarly, during the whole year, God gives us the summer season in which we must step out of the concerns of work for a longer period and rest in him, doing some activities that we enjoy to do. Vacation time and leisure in the right measure is not laziness or escape from responsibilities. On the contrary, the one who rests well and in the right moments is able to work better and serve more efficiently. So, I hope all parishioners will take some time off during this summer season to enjoy nature and beauty with their families so that we may get ready to start a new year full of energy and enthusiasm.

In Christ, Father Oscar

STEWARDSHIP /

CORRESPONSABILIDAD

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO HAVE YOUR DONATIONS COUNTED?

When you use envelopes or give via the On Line Giving or Direct Debit programs, this helps you in your stewardship accountability. It also allows our Finance Council to make more accurate projections. Having your donations identified, of course, is voluntary. If you choose to give anonymously, we are not able to certify your charitable contributions for your tax purposes. Additionally, having your donations recorded serves as an informal gauge of one aspect of your involvement as a member of the parish.

REMEMBER ST. ROSE WHEN YOU GO GROCERY SHOPPING!

Our Food Certificate fundraiser program is any easy way to support the parish, AT NO EXTRA COST TO YOU. You buy food certificates at St. Rose for Giant, Whole Foods or Shoppers Food Warehouse, then redeem them at face value as you shop. The stores give St. Rose a rebate, and you do not pay anything extra to use them! Food Certificates are sold after Masses and from the Parish Office during business hours.
