St Dominic (August 8th)

St Dominic is often pictured with a dog holding a flaming torch in its mouth. According to tradition his mother, Blessed Jane of Aza, had a dream before her son's conception in which she saw a hound racing through the world igniting everything with a flaming torch. Dominic did ignite the world with sacred truth through preaching and teaching born from a life of dedicated prayer, love for the Word of God, and a burning desire to gain souls for Christ.

As a young man, he gathered a group of followers around himself. These men gradually became a community, and in 1216 he founded a religious house in Toulouse, France. It is the beginning of the Order of Preachers - founded 806 years ago.

Throughout their history, the Dominicans, as they were popularly called, have taken pride in being thought of as 'dogs of the Lord'. That is what the name Dominicans sounds like in Latin - domini canes - literally dogs of the Lord.

Dominic wanted his friars to be preachers, but he realized that words are cheap unless they are rooted in life and prayer. He was deliberately and conscientiously poor. He had nothing of his own. He did not have his own cell; he did not have his own bed, he never slept in one; and he did not even have his own religious habit.

Dominic followed the otto 'contemplate and give the fruit of contemplation to others'. And he very consciously decided to speak only to God, or about God.

Like his Master he used to spend the nights in prayer, and often he fell asleep with his head on the altar step when he was too exhausted to continue.

He had great devotion to Our Lady. According to his biographers, he saw her in his visions. In Christian art, Dominic is usually shown as receiving the rosary from Our Lady. He is also often portrayed with a black and white dog, with a burning torch in its mouth.

He died in Bologna, Italy at the age of 50 on August 6, 1221 - 801 years ago. He was canonized in 1234 and is the patron saint of preachers. He is also referred to as the saint of the rosary.

The Dominican family includes priests and lay brothers, cloistered nuns, apostolic congregations of women, and Dominican Laity around the world - all attracted to the charism of preaching!

St Dominic's Order of Preachers has given the church outstanding men and women saints, like Thomas Aquinas, Catherine of Siena, Rose of Lima, and Martin de Porres - just to name a few.

As we commemorate the feast of this great saint, let us pray for something of his great zeal and his great love for the Word of God.

Santo Domingo (Agosto 8th)

Hoy celebramos, la fiesta de Santo Domingo. A menudo, se representa, con un perro. Una leyenda dice, que su madre soñó, con dar a luz a un perro, con una antorcha en su boca, que prendió fuego al mundo. El perro es tomado, como el propio Domingo, que con su banda de frailes, ayudó a difundir el evangelio, a los rincones de Europa y más allá.

Reunió, a un grupo de seguidores, a su alrededor. Estos compañeros predicadores, gradualmente se convirtieron, en una comunidad, y en mil doscientos diez y seis 1216, fundó una casa religiosa, en Toulouse, en el sur de Francia. Es el comienzo, de la Orden de Predicadores - fundada hace ochocientos un 806 año.

A lo largo de su historia, los Dominicos, como se les llamó popularmente, se enorgullecen de ser considerados, como "perros del Señor". Eso es lo que suena, el nombre de Dominicos en latín - domini canes – literalmente, perros del Señor.

Santo Domingo, quería que sus frailes, fueran predicadores, pero se dio cuenta, de que las palabras son baratas, a menos que estén arraigadas, en la vida y la oración.

Domingo era deliberadamente, y concienzudamente pobre. No tenía nada propio. No tenía su propia celda; Él no tenía su propia cama, él nunca dormía en una; Y ni siquiera tenía, su propio hábito religioso.

Domingo siguió el lema, "contemplar, y dar el fruto de tu contemplación, a los demás". Y él muy conscientemente, decidió hablar, sólo a Dios, o acerca de Dios.

Como su Maestro, solía pasar las noches en oración. Y a menudo se quedaba dormido, con la cabeza en el escalón del altar, cuando estaba demasiado exhausto, para continuar. Como El Salvador, que se iba a un lugar solitario, para orar.

Tenía gran devoción, por Nuestra Señora. Según sus biógrafos, la vio en sus visiones. En el arte cristiano, Domingo suele mostrarse, recibiendo el rosario, de Nuestra Señora. Él también es retratado, a menudo con un perro blanco y negro, con una antorcha ardiente en su boca.

Murió en Bolonia, Italia, a la edad de cincuenta 50 años, el seis 6 de agosto, de mil doscientos veinte uno 1221 – hace setecientos noventa y seis 801 años. Fue canonizado, en mil doscientos treinta y cuatro 1234, y es el santo patrón de los predicadores. También se le conoce, como el Santo del Rosario.

La familia dominica, incluye a los sacerdotes y hermanos, monjas de clausura, congregaciones apostólicas de mujeres, y laicos dominicos de todo el mundo - todos atraídos por el carisma de la predicación.

La Orden de Predicadores de Santo Domingo, ha dado a la iglesia, a destacados hombres y mujeres santos, como Tomás de Aquino, Catalina de Siena, Rosa de Lima y Martín de Porres - sólo para nombrar algunos.

Al conmemorar la fiesta de este gran santo, oremos por algo, de su gran celo, y su gran amor por la Palabra de Dios.
