Invocation

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do, (Strike breast 3x)

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Kyrie, Orlando di Lasso, arr. Girardot, from Missa secundi toni

THE LITURGY of the WORD

First Reading – Exodus 17:3-7

In those days, in their thirst for water, the people grumbled against Moses, saying, “Why did you ever make us leave Egypt? Was it just to have us die here of thirst with our children and our livestock?” So Moses cried out to the LORD, “What shall I do with this people? a little more and they will stone me!” The LORD answered Moses, “Go over there in front of the people, along with some of the elders of Israel, holding in your hand, as you go, the staff with which you struck the river. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock in Horeb. Strike the rock, and the water will flow from it for the people to drink.” This Moses did, in the presence of the elders of Israel. The place was called Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled there and tested the LORD, saying, “Is the LORD in our midst or not?”

Responsorial Psalm – 95:1-2, 6-9

If to - day you hear his voice, hard-en not your hearts.

Come, let us ring out our joy to the LORD; hail the rock who saves us. Let us come into his presence, giving thanks; let us hail him with a song of praise. R̄.	the people who belong to his pasture, the flock that is led by his hand. R̄. O that today you would listen to his voice! “Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as on that day at Massah in the desert when your forebears put me to the test; when they tried me, though they saw my work.” R̄.
O come; let us bow and bend low. Let us kneel before the God who made us, for he is our God and we

Second Reading – Romans 5:1-2, 5-8

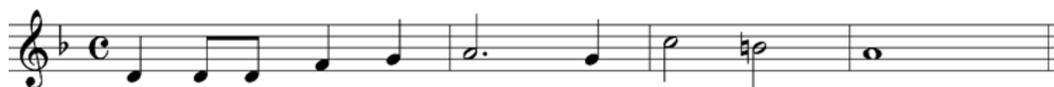

Brothers and sisters: Since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God.

And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

Verse before the Gospel – John 4:42, 15

Verse: Lord, you are truly the Savior of the world;
give me living water, that I may never thirst again.

Gospel –John 4:5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42

Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well. It was about noon.

A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" –For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans. – Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink, ' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?" Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water."

"Sir, I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain; but you people say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand; we worship what we understand, because salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth." The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one speaking with you."

Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me everything I have done." When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world."

Homily

Apostles' Creed

Please stand

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
Was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

PARISH NEWS

STATIONS OF THE CROSS AT 2 P.M. AND 7 P.M.

St. Theresa will continue to offer weekly Stations of the Cross on Friday evenings during Lent at 7 p.m. in the church. In addition, all are invited to come to the Senior Adults-sponsored Stations of the Cross at 2 p.m. in the Church on the remaining Fridays in Lent.

K of C FISH FRY FRIDAYS DURING LENT

Join us any Friday during Lent starting at 5:30 p.m. for a delicious meal of fried catfish, hush puppies, French fries, coleslaw and a drink. Generous plates of food are $10 for adults and $5 for children. Dine in or take out, it's a great meal deal. Proceeds fund Knights of Columbus charitable giving. Bake sales are often held by various ministries.

NEW PRAYER EFFORT FOLLOWING DAILY MASS

There is a growing group of parishioners devoted to Divine Mercy that go to the daily 11:30 a.m. mass and each day after Mass stay and pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy in the side chapel. All are welcome to join in this short prayer asking God to have mercy on us and the whole world. Thanks for your prayers!

PARISH LENTEN PROGRAM, CRS RICE BOWL

Rice Bowls can be found in the narthex and contain suggested prayers and recipes as well as serve as a means for almsgiving. During the 40 days of Lent, we will reflect on the challenge of global hunger and how it affects our human family. We are encouraging online giving at support.crs.org/donate. 75% of your gift relieves hunger abroad, while 25% goes to programs in Austin, including Catholic Charities, SVdP, Mobile Loaves & Fishes.

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that most checks today are deposited online and that online scanners will only read checks written in black or dark blue ink pens? Please remember to use a black or dark blue ink pen on your checks to St. Theresa. We are grateful for your gifts of support of the mission of St. Theresa Catholic Church.

OFFICE TELEPHONE UPGRADE ON THURSDAY

There will be an upgrade to the telephone system in the parish and school offices this Thursday, March 19. The school will be closed, but if you need to reach the parish office you can call the main number 512-451-5121. If you have difficulty getting through, you may call back at 630-631-6556 on Thursday only. Thank you.

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRY

Our Senior Adult Ministry has many opportunities for fellowship, spiritual growth and support, service, and fun. Senior Adult activities include studies, interest groups, trips and table games. For more information visit sttaustin.org/senior-adult-ministry or contact Sr. Ann Pennington at (512) 451-5121 x1017 or ann@sttaustin.org.

SENIOR ADULT ACTIVITIES

Game Day

Do you want to make new friends and get to know your fellow parishioners? Do you think you might enjoy playing games like Canasta and Dominoes? If so, come, take part in Game Day on Wednesdays from 1 – 3:00 p.m. in the Family Center. You will get a warm welcome.

Bridge Club

Do you want to have fun and never get bored? If so, join us to play bridge Wednesdays at 1 p.m. in the Family Center. We are a social group and are happy to help those with questions.

Grief Support Group

Are you seeking companionship and understanding from fellow parishioners who have also experienced the loss of a dear loved one? If so, please consider joining our parish grief support group which meets each Thursday from 4:00 – 5:00 p.m. in Elmer Hall, Rm. 201.

Spiritual Support Visits

Sr. Ann Pennington, Minister of Senior Adults and Social Outreach, is available to visit our senior adult parishioners wherever they reside. To request a visit, contact Sr. Ann at (512) 451-5121, ann@sttaustin.org.

Third Sunday of Lent

We experience at the depth of our being a deep hunger and thirst for the living God. We are invited to know that need, but not to despair as our ancestors did in the desert. God does feed and nourish us. God does quench our thirst, if we let ourselves be open to God's transforming love. Like the Samaritan woman we are called to be open to the waters of life given to us in Christ. Like her we are called to be agents of God's transformative love in our world. Who in your life needs you to be an agent of God's love for them? What in your world is in need of God's action and transformation?

CHILDREN AND YOUTH

ANNOUNCING NEW AGILITY CAMPS THIS JUNE

Athletes in grades 6-12 are invited to sharpen their performance at the first annual HypuroFit Agility Youth Camp. "Hypuro" comes from two Greek words that mean "I endure the fire." Led by two certified personal trainers and speed coaches (one is Director of Youth Ministry, Chase Crouse), the focus will be on building speed, power, and agility by teaching proper running technique and form. Christian athletes are called to work hard in order to grow physically and spiritually during this camp. Camp for those entering grades 6-8 is June 8th - 12th, from 8 - 10 a.m., Monday through Friday. Students entering grades 9-12 follow the same schedule during the week of June 15th - 19th. All proceeds fund STCC youth ministry. Register on the parish website. Contact chase-crouse@sttaustin.org with any questions.

OPT-OUT OF AISD SEX ED

Bishop Vasquez is encouraging parents of students in AISD to opt-out of the district's new sex education curriculum. There are materials in the narthex that show you how to do that and more information is available on both the parish website and the Diocese of Austin website.
