THE LITURGY of the WORD

First Reading – Exodus 22:20-26

Thus says the LORD: "You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans.

"If you lend money to one of your poor neighbors among my people, you shall not act like an extortioner toward him by demanding interest from him. If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset; for this cloak of his is the only covering he has for his body. What else has he to sleep in? If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate."

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 18:2-4, 47, 51

I love you, LORD, my strength;
O LORD, my rock, my fortress,
my savior. R.

My God, my rock where I take refuge;
my shield, my saving strength, my stronghold.

I cry out, "Praised be the LORD!"
and see, I am saved from my foes. R.

The LORD lives, and blest be my Rock!
May the God of my salvation be exalted.

The LORD gives great victories to his king,
and shows merciful love for his anointed. R.

Second Reading – 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10

Brothers and sisters: You know what sort of people we were among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in great affliction, with joy from the Holy Spirit, so that you became a model for all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who delivers us from the coming wrath.

Gospel Alleluia – John 14:23

Please stand

Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.

Gospel – Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

Homily

Nicene Creed

Please stand

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (All bow)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius
Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
Who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead

and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Our New Altar

The new altar of sacrifice is a spectacular addition to our worship space and was built over the course of many months by Catholic woodcraftsman and Austinite Warren Foster. Parishioners attended a solemn blessing of the new altar on October 24th. The blessing was part of a Pontifical Mass celebrated by Bishop Vasquez.

Fifty years ago Pope Paul VI bestowed on our new parish a rare relic of the apostle Saint Jude Thaddeus. It will be stored, along with relics from other saints, in a special cabinet inside the new altar.

The Significance of the Altar

In every church, the altar is "the center of the thanksgiving that is accomplished through the Eucharist" around which the Church's other rites are, in a certain manner, ordered. Because it is at the altar that the memorial of the Lord is celebrated and his Body and Blood given to the faithful, it came to pass that the Church's writers see in the altar a sign of Christ himself—hence the saying arose: "The altar is Christ."

Creating the New Altar

The altar was crafted over a year's time by Austin wood craftsman and artist Warren Foster. Foster explains what processes went into making the unique piece and shares how it was a labor of love and faith:

"The process of building the altar for St. Theresa Church was a challenge on many levels. Primarily, how to create an altar that would work inside the existing church and appear as though it had always been there. Secondly, meeting Father Larry's high standards!!

I first decided that the predominant wood was going to be a figured Myrtle. Myrtle wood only grows in the Holy Land and in northwestern regions of America. In the bible it has a special significance representing fertility and life.

To my eye, some of the most beautiful altars in the world resemble jewels, so I then developed a technique which produced a cut gem-like appearance on the face of the altar. This technique required making several sets of jigs and many hours of repetitive work on the table saw.

I also tried to create biblical relevance with scale. There are a total of 120 tiles applied to the faces of the altar. 40 on the front and 40 on the back. The sides are anchored by 20 tiles on the left and 20 on the right to signify the year in which it was built, 2020. The black staurogram cross was then cut from a lustrous African ebony board lying in my shop for 30 years waiting for the right project to come along. I think I found it!!" - Warren Foster

Warren Foster grew up in Houston, attended furniture school in North Carolina, and received a BFA in sculpture in 1983 from the Kansas City Art Institute. He worked in furniture design in Kansas City and then continued in Austin after moving his family here in 1992 when they joined St. Louis parish. 40 years and six shops later, he and his wife Mirt have grown sons and recently became grandparents!

LIVING THE GOSPEL

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday we hear the equation that love of God equals love of neighbor. Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI wrote this in his encyclical God is Love: “Anyone who needs me and whom I can help is my neighbor. The concept of ‘neighbor’ is now universalized, yet it remains concrete. Despite being extended to all mankind, it is not reduced to a generic, abstract and undemanding expression of love, but calls for my own practical commitment here and now ... Love of God and love of neighbor have become one: in the least of the brethren we find Jesus himself, and in Jesus we find God” (#15).

Hearts filled with gratitude

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly ... singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. ~Col 3:16

How can I repay the LORD for all the great good done for me?

Everything we are and everything we have comes from the generosity of God. Although this debt can never be fully repaid, we can give sacrificially today — from our first fruits — in gratitude for God's many gifts. As we look toward a bright and healthy future, with the days of distancing from the Eucharist and each other behind us, our hearts are filled with hope.

Gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal (CSA) support the work of more than 100 essential diocesan ministries and programs that deliver pastoral care and vital services, transforming the lives of thousands of people.

When we give from the heart, we provide hope to many.
