THE LITURGY of the WORD

Children's Liturgy of the Word (Sun, 9:00) — Teach Me Your Ways O Lord, Stevens/Henderson

First Reading – 1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23

In those days, Saul went down to the desert of Ziph with three thousand picked men of Israel, to search for David in the desert of Ziph. So David and Abishai went among Saul's soldiers by night and found Saul lying asleep within the barricade, with his spear thrust into the ground at his head and Abner and his men sleeping around him.

Abishai whispered to David: "God has delivered your enemy into your grasp this day. Let me nail him to the ground with one thrust of the spear; I will not need a second thrust!" But David said to Abishai, "Do not harm him, for who can lay hands on the LORD's anointed and remain unpunished?" So David took the spear and the water jug from their place at Saul's head, and they got away without anyone's seeing or knowing or awakening. All remained asleep, because the LORD had put them into a deep slumber.

Going across to an opposite slope, David stood on a remote hilltop at a great distance from Abner, son of Ner, and the troops. He said: "Here is the king's spear. Let an attendant come over to get it. The LORD will reward each man for his justice and faithfulness. Today, though the LORD delivered you into my grasp, I would not harm the LORD's anointed."

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 103:1-4, 8, 10, 12-13

The Lord is kind and mer-ci-ful; the Lord is kind and mer-ci-ful.

Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and all within me, his holy name.
Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and never forget all his benefits. R.

It is the Lord who forgives all your sins,
who heals every one of your ills,
who redeems your life from the grave,
who crowns you with mercy and compassion. R.

The LORD is compassionate and
gracious,

slow to anger and rich in mercy.
He does not treat us according to our sins,
nor repay us according to our faults. R.

As far as the east is from the west,
so far from us does he remove our transgressions.

As a father has compassion on his
children,
the LORD's compassion is on those who fear him. R.

Second Reading – 1 Corinthians 15:45-49

Brothers and sisters: It is written, The first man, Adam, became a living being, the last Adam a life-giving spirit. But the spiritual was not first; rather the natural and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, earthly; the second man, from heaven. As was the earthly one, so also are the earthly, and as is the heavenly one, so also are the heavenly. Just as we have borne the image of the earthly one, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly one.

Gospel Alleluia – John 13:34

Verse: I give you a new commandment, says the Lord:
love one another as I have loved you.

Gospel – Luke 6:27-38

Jesus said to his disciples: “To you who hear I say, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well, and from the person who takes your cloak, do not withhold even your tunic. Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back. Do to others as you would have them do to you. For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same. If you lend money to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, and get back the same amount. But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend expecting nothing back; then your reward will be great and you will be children of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

“Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven. Give, and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.”

Homily

Nicene Creed

Please stand

I believe in one God, the Father
almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,

begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(All bow for the following words)

and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius
Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

who with the Father and the Son is adored and
glorified,

who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins

and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

SAVE THE DATE FOR “NIGHT OF HEALING” AT ST. THERESA

Saturday, March 12th, beginning with the 5:00 p.m. Mass

Alan Ames is a Catholic evangelist with the gift of healing who has shared his gift through a ministry of traveling the world to offer a night of healing at parishes. He will be at St. Theresa on Saturday, March 12, beginning with the Mass at 5 p.m. Afterward he will give a talk and pray over those seeking healing. A freewill offering will be collected.

CONNECTIONS WOMEN'S GROUP

Tuesdays, 7 p.m., beginning Feb. 22

Are you looking for a way to enrich your Lenten journey and connect with other women in the parish?

Join Connections for the 10-part video series Divine Mercy, The Second Greatest Story Ever Told by renowned speaker and author Fr. Michael Gaitley. This series tells the dramatic history of God's love and mercy as interwoven through the transformative message of St. Faustina, the miraculous appearance of Mary at Fatima, the witness of Maximilian Kolbe, and the world-changing papacy of Pope St. John Paul II. The series features the brilliant cinematic artistry of the Augustine Institute's film studio. Come see how God's work of mercy in the world unfolds as a story to be experienced. Contact Terry France at francetherese101@gmail.com with questions.

REFURBISHED PARISH NURSERY NOW OPEN

The parish Sunday Nursery in the Family Center is open for the first time in nearly two years, with new décor, furnishings, lighting, artwork, and a new director! Please welcome Pam Coronado. Complimentary child care is offered for children 6 mos.—4 years old, during the 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. Masses in the Family Center near the Southwest corner.

Lent is the season that prepares us to celebrate Easter. The mystery of Christ's rising from the dead is so deep that the Church invites us to six weeks of preparation before we fully celebrate it. We call that period Lent. For the faithful, Lent is a time of penitential practices and spiritual discipline. During this time, we acknowledge our sins and seek God's help to overcome them. Traditionally, we engage in acts of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Together these actions show our dependence on God, our renunciation of the fascinations of this world, and our desire to better the lives of others. For the elect, those preparing for Baptism, Lent is a time of intense spiritual preparation. They will celebrate Baptism at Easter because in this sacrament they enter the mystery of Christ's dying and rising. They die to their former way of life and open their hearts fully to discipleship in Jesus... Lent begins on Ash Wednesday and ends before the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday. Ash Wednesday is a day of fasting and abstinence. All the Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence.
