

3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one speaking with you." - Jn 4:24-26

ST. THERESA

CATHOLIC CHURCH & SCHOOL

Our Mission is to make disciples for the Lord Jesus Christ and, together in ministry for Him, advance the Kingdom of God.

Thanks to your generosity, the installation of our new organ will begin Monday, March 13. At some point during the project, accessibility to the church will be impacted. We'll provide more details as they become available.

If you'd like to be part of a lively and dynamic family of Christians, welcome home!

THE LITURGY of the WORD

Children's Liturgy of the Word—Teach Me Your Ways O Lord, Stevens/Henderson (9:00)

First Reading - Genesis 12:1-4a

The LORD said to Abram: "Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father's house to a land that I will show you. "I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you; I will make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you and curse those who curse you. All the communities of the earth shall find blessing in you." Abram went as the LORD directed him.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 33:4-5, 18-20, 22

The word of the LORD is faithful,
and all his works to be trusted.
The LORD loves justice and right,
and his merciful love fills the earth. ℟.

Yes, the LORD's eyes are on those who fear him,
who hope in his merciful love,

to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine. ℟.

Our soul is waiting for the LORD.
He is our help and our shield.
May your merciful love be upon us,
as we hope in you, O LORD. ℟.

Second Reading - 2 Timothy 1:8b-10

Beloved: Bear your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God. He saved us and called us to a holy life, not according to our works but according to his own design and the grace bestowed on us in Christ Jesus before time began, but now made manifest through the appearance of our savior Christ Jesus, who destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

THE LITURGY of the WORD

First Reading – Exodus 17:3-7

In those days, in their thirst for water, the people grumbled against Moses, saying, “Why did you ever make us leave Egypt? Was it just to have us die here of thirst with our children and our livestock?” So Moses cried out to the LORD, “What shall I do with this people? a little more and they will stone me!” The LORD answered Moses, “Go over there in front of the people, along with some of the elders of Israel, holding in your hand, as you go, the staff with which you struck the river. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock in Horeb. Strike the rock, and the water will flow from it for the people to drink.” This Moses did, in the presence of the elders of Israel. The place was called Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled there and tested the LORD, saying, “Is the LORD in our midst or not?”

Responsorial Psalm – 95:1-2, 6-9

Come, let us ring out our joy to the LORD;
hail the rock who saves us.
Let us come into his presence, giving
thanks;
let us hail him with a song of praise. R.

O come; let us bow and bend low.
Let us kneel before the God who
made us,
for he is our God and we

the people who belong to his pasture,
the flock that is led by his hand. R.

O that today you would listen to his voice!

“Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as on that day at Massah in the desert
when your forebears put me to the test;
when they tried me, though they saw
my work.” R.

Second Reading – Romans 5:1-2, 5-8

Brothers and sisters: Since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God.

And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

Verse: Lord, you are truly the Savior of the world;
give me living water, that I may never thirst again.

Gospel -John 4:5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42

Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well. It was about noon.

A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" –For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.— Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?" Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water."

Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me everything I have done." When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world."

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
Was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

PARISH NEWS

NEW DIRECTOR OF PARISH LIFE

We welcome Jonathan Campbell to the parish staff team as Director of Parish Life. Born and raised on a farm in North Dakota, Jonathan's background includes agriculture, real estate, and ministry leadership. He served as Director of Social Outreach at St. John Neumann from 2015-2020, and most recently served as Executive Director of Share, a vibrant organization serving the special needs community in west Texas. He brings a unique blend of experience and energy to the role, and looks forward to helping build community, participation, and spiritual growth at St. Theresa Catholic Church and School.

ORGAN REPLACEMENT

Thanks to the generosity of many STCC parishioners, we are getting a new organ for our sanctuary! Please note the dismantling of our current organ and installing the new organ will begin Monday, March 13. Accessibility to the church will be impacted. We'll provide more details as they become available.

SAN ANTONIO MISSION TOUR

Thursday, April 20, 8:30 a.m.–4:00 p.m.

As Easy as Tying your Shoe

We all know how to tie our shoes so they don't come undone...

Using that same logic when it comes to online giving to the church, your weekly, monthly, or yearly tithing can become very convenient for you. It's ridiculously easy to do and it lasts for as long as you set it. Giving electronically provides sustainability through on-going support which allows the church to run, grow, and serve the needs of this community even better. Please use the QR code below to set up your online donation OR visit our website and click on CHURCH GIVING. Please let us know if you have any questions along the way and thank you for your dedication to the parish.
