THE LITURGY of the WORD

Children's Liturgy of the Word—Teach Me Your Ways O Lord, Stevens/Henderson (9:00)

All: Teach me your ways, O Lord, make them known to me.
Teach me your ways, O Lord, make them known to me.

First Reading—Isaiah 5:1-7

Let me now sing of my friend, my friend's song concerning his vineyard. My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside; he spaded it, cleared it of stones, and planted the choicest vines; within it he built a watchtower, and hewed out a wine press. Then he looked for the crop of grapes, but what it yielded was wild grapes. Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard:

What more was there to do for my vineyard that I had not done? Why, when I looked for the crop of grapes, did it bring forth wild grapes? Now, I will let you know what I mean to do with my vineyard: take away its hedge, give it to grazing, break through its wall, let it be trampled! Yes, I will make it a ruin: it shall not be pruned or hoed, but overgrown with thorns and briers; I will command the clouds not to send rain upon it. The vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his cherished plant; he looked for judgment, but see, bloodshed! for justice, but hark, the outcry!

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 80:9, 12-16, 19-20

The vine- yard of the Lord is the house of Is - ra - el.

You brought a vine out of Egypt;
you drove out the nations and
planted it.
It stretched out its branches to the sea;
to the River it stretched out its shoots. R.

Then why have you broken down its walls?
It is plucked by all who pass by the way.
It is ravaged by the boar of the forest,
devoured by the beasts of the field. R.

God of hosts, turn again, we implore;
look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted,
the son of man you have claimed
for yourself. R.

And we shall never forsake you again;
give us life that we may call upon
your name.
O LORD God of hosts, bring us back;
let your face shine forth, and we shall be saved. R.

Second Reading—Philippians 4:6-9

Brothers and sisters: Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you.

Verse: I have chosen you from the world, says the Lord,
to go and bear fruit that will remain.

Gospel – Matthew 21:33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "Hear another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey. When vintage time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce. But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat, another they killed, and a third they stoned. Again, he sent other servants, more numerous than the first ones, but they treated them in the same way.

Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?" They answered him, "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times." Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes? Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

Nicene Creed

Please stand

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(All bow for the following words)

and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius
Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

FOUNDATIONS OF FAITH SERIES: THERE'S SOMETHING ABOUT MARY

Mondays, October 9-23, 7:00 PM, Family Center

We invite you to join us for this compelling 5-part series on the Virgin Mary. Over the centuries, Christians have fulfilled the prophecy of Mary in a story of devotion and reverence unparalleled in human history. Mary's consent to become the Mother of the Word and bearer of the body of Christ had made her the first among the Apostles. Fr. Larry will discuss Marian dogma in this week's session. These sessions are akin to attending a fascinating university lecture, but with the advantage of cookies, lemonade, and holy friends! Be sure to join us!

FAITH FRIENDS NEEDED

The Catechesis program is looking for 3-4 adult or high school teen volunteers who would be interested in serving as a Faith Friend to any of our young Catholics who need a little extra help focusing during Sunday catechesis. A Faith Friend will sit with their buddy during Catechesis class and guide them as needed. This non-teaching role is a weekly commitment throughout the academic year, 10:25-11:30 AM on Sunday mornings (excluding holidays). Please contact Christine-chow@st-theresa.org if you are willing to serve in this special role.

EXPLANATORY MASS WITH FR. BARRY

Tuesday, October 10, 4:30 PM, Church

What is the meaning behind everything in the Mass? Why do we stand at some parts of Mass and kneel at others? Some cradle Catholics don't even know! We invite you to a special Explanatory Mass on Tuesday, Oct. 10, at 4:30 PM in the church. Fr. Barry will preside. This event is highly encouraged for families who have a child preparing for the Sacrament of First Eucharist or Confirmation this year. Each household in attendance will receive a visual missal to keep! We have never offered an event like this and would love to see you there! Please RSVP here:

BRIDGING HEARTS FROM THE JUNGLE TO THE BORDER

Thursday, October 12, 12:30 PM, Family Center

Women of the parish will not want to miss an important presentation by Peggy Gerke, Bridging Hearts ministry founder and former parishioner. We will meet in the Family Center on Thursday, October 12, at 12:30 PM. All women of the parish are welcome. Please feel free to come early for socializing after the 11:30 AM Mass. You may bring your lunch if you wish; drinks will be provided—no RSVP needed.

PUZZLE

Help the grapes find their way home.

MISSION

Recycle paper, plastic and glass at home, instead of throwing it away. Recycling is a great way to take care of God's world.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Attending the Eucharistic Stewardship Conference in Orlando this week was an abundant blessing! Surrounded by clergy, sisters, and lay Catholic leaders, my cup runneth over with joy as I celebrate church mission with my peers. The overall message I took from the experience was where charity lives, grace abounds. As we look to the Eucharist as the source and summit, the central focus from which all else flows, we begin to see how important it is to identify the essential elements of an encounter with Christ. These break down into four short points:

1. The realization that Jesus is God.
2. The realization that I am a sinner.
3. The realization that I am infinitely loved.
4. The invitation to follow Him in a new life.

If the Eucharist is the heart of our church, when the community strengthens the heart, our church is strong, and we can grow. Always know that your witness opens the heart and gracefully showers St. Theresa Catholic Church and School. For that, we are very grateful.
