INVOCATION

Response by all: And with your Spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God,
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned
through my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done, and in what I have failed to do;
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sister,
to pray for me to the Lord our God

ABSOLUTION

PRIEST: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

ALL: Amen.

LORD HAVE MERCY KYRIE FROM MISSA BEATA VIRGINE, G.P. PALESTRINA, ARR. STEVENS

COLLECT The "collect" (pronounced KOL-ekt) is a prayer that concludes the opening rites of the Mass. The collect invites people to pray in silence for a moment, and then offers a prayer to God that is drawn from the readings or feast of the day, or the purpose for which the Mass is being offered.

Congregation Response: Amen

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Children's Liturgy of the Word—Teach Me Your Ways O Lord, Stevens/Henderson (9:00)

FIRST READING Genesis 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18

God put Abraham to the test. He called to him, "Abraham!" "Here I am!" he replied. Then God said: "Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you."

When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son. But the LORD's messenger called to him from heaven, "Abraham, Abraham!" "Here I am!" he answered. "Do not lay your hand on the boy," said the messenger. "Do not do the least thing to him. I know now how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son." As Abraham looked about, he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son.

Again the LORD's messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said: "I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing—all this because you obeyed my command."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 116:10, 15-19

I believed, even when I said,
"I am greatly afflicted."
Precious in the eyes of the LORD
is the death of his faithful ones. R.

O LORD, I am your servant;
I am your servant, the son of your handmaid; you have loosed my bonds. To you will I offer sacrifice of thanksgiving, and I will call upon the name of the LORD. R.

My vows to the LORD I will pay
in the presence of all his people,
In the courts of the house of the LORD,
in your midst, O Jerusalem. R.

SECOND READING Romans 8:31b-34

Brothers and sisters: If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him? Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who acquits us, who will condemn? Christ Jesus it is who died—or, rather, was raised—who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

LENTEN GOSPEL ACCLAMATION cf. Matthew 17:5

Text: ICEL, © 1969
Music: David M. Young, © 1981, GIA Publications, Inc.

VERSE: From the shining cloud the Father's voice is heard: This is my beloved Son, listen to him.

GOSPEL Mark 9:2-10

The Lord be with you.

CONGREGATION: And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

CONGREGATION: Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them.

As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

At the end of the Gospel, the Deacon, or the Priest, acclaims:

The Gospel of the Lord.

CONGREGATION: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
Was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

EXAMINATION OF STEWARDSHIP AND MAKING A COMMITMENT TO OUR LORD

During this second week of Lent, we journey to a deeper examination of holy stewardship. Over the last few weeks, we introduced Stewardship of Family, Daily Prayer, and Almsgiving. This week, we look at two important aspects of our physical being:

Stewardship of Health:

Your body is a Temple of the Holy Spirit. Resolve to do a health audit—scheduling checkups when applicable.

Adopt healthier eating habits.

Add exercise and other physical activity to your daily routine.

Stewardship of Possessions:

Resolve to possess a little more “lightly” this year, considering ways to reduce the amount of stuff you own. Distinguish between those items that are necessary and those that are considered luxurious or unnecessary, and donate unused items to the poor.

Questions? Contact the Stewardship Office at abizzanelli@st-theresa.org

STCC TIGER NEWS

All STCS Middle School students traveled to Saint William Catholic Church to experience the Interactive Eucharistic Miracles Exhibit shared through storytellers, experiential visual displays, audience participation plays, and activity sheets. They learned about more than 35 miracles showing Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist - reminding us that Jesus is with us always.

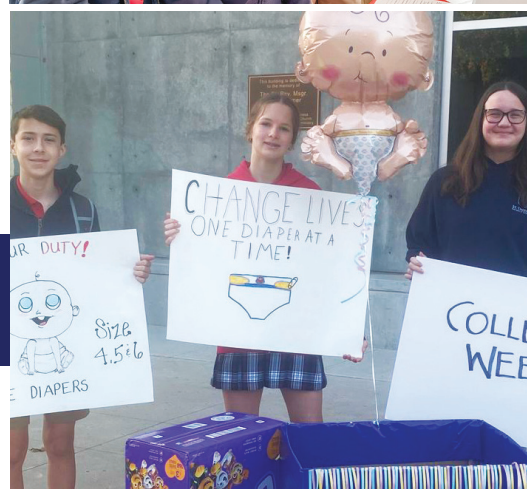

THIS WEEKEND IS OUR LAST PUSH, LET'S COLLECT 25K DIAPERS FOR CATHOLIC CHARITIES!

The St. Theresa PTO Service Life initiative is sponsoring a diaper drive benefiting Catholic Charities of Central Texas. To commemorate Catholic Charities' 25th year of serving anyone in need, we are leading a 25K diaper challenge. Please help us meet this goal and fulfill the Lenten tenet of almsgiving by donating this weekend. Collection boxes are located in the school and church office. Size four, five, and six diapers are particularly needed.

Last but not least, we would like to offer congratulations to the 6A 7/8 girl's basketball team for winning the CAPPS tournament. Great teamwork ladies!

We invite you to reach out to Susie Thompson in Admissions at sthompson@st-theresa.org or visit www.st-theresa.org to learn more about St. Theresa Catholic School, a 2023 National Blue Ribbon awardee, serving students Pre-K3 through 8th grade.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

STORY OF HOPE: Charles

Meeting Charles, a single father raising his four sons, ranging in ages six through sixteen, was a unique experience for the two SVdP volunteers who visited him. In fact, our volunteers typically find that the majority of the single parent families we serve, are headed by the mother. Charles' world fell apart when his wife abruptly abandoned the family. Accepting his new role, Charles endeavors to handle all the domestic duties while nurturing and raising four boys alone. Without his wife's contribution to expenses, he fell behind on his bills. Since the boys love their nearby schools, Charles wanted to minimize further disruption to their lives by keeping the duplex, where they have lived for three years – but he needed help. SVdP was able to pay the overdue portion on both his rent and electric bill. This has allowed Charles to stabilize his budget and give his children the security of remaining in their home and attending their schools. Charles is a religious person and expressed gratitude for the response of the SVdP volunteers and the parishioners of St. Theresa's Church.
