SUNDAY, DECEMBER 3, 2017

MISSION STATEMENT

St. Lawrence the Martyr Church is a community of Catholic Christians who gather together to celebrate the Eucharist, their love of Jesus Christ and their love of one another as children of Christ. We are a diverse community focused on creating an enthusiasm for our faith and enriching the lives for all who come to worship in our parish. Inviting and welcoming liturgies, multiple youth and young adult activities and adult enrichment programs all help make the Word of Christ a living reality at St. Lawrence.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

AN IMPORTANT QUESTION – CAN WE CELEBRATE ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS AT THE SAME TIME?

Starting with the 5 pm Mass on Saturday, December 2, we begin, with Christians from around the world, the holy and joyful season of Advent. Each year, this season is between three and four weeks long. Advent is a time of preparing for the celebration of the anniversary of the birth of our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. On Christmas Day, we will meet the Lord in Holy Communion at Mass. This is the heart of the day. The anniversary of the birth-day of the Savior is called Christmas or Christ-Mass Day, highlighting the importance of our encounter with the Lord during the Mass on December 25.

The preparation for this Day is a preparation of our minds and hearts. Foremost in our Advent preparation is the cleansing of our hearts with a good celebration of the Sacrament of Confession or Reconciliation during the season of Advent. Through Confession, we receive the beautiful gifts of forgiveness and peace. In this Sacrament, too, we refocus our lives on love of God and of neighbor. This is a wonderful Sacrament of conversion. Conversion here means to reset the course of our lives. In this Sacrament, we are resetting our sights on living for God and for others. This is truly living, as life is about self-giving.

Advent is also a time to do penance for our own sins and for the sins of the world. We can treat our Advent penance as an offering of little gifts to God. Just as we try to prepare special gifts for our loved ones to be given on Christmas Day, we can also prepare little gifts for the three persons of the Most Blessed Trinity. These gifts prepared and offered with love will deepen our bonds with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

The color for the season of Advent is violet. This color connects Advent with the colors of the holy Season of Lent (reddish purple) and of the upcoming feast of the Birth of the Lord (the royal blue of the King of Heaven and Earth).

I am of the opinion that we cannot celebrate Advent and Christmas at the same time. Advent deserves our attention and efforts. Christmas deserves a good celebration of Advent. I believe that we should resist the pressures to celebrate Christmas now, during the season of Advent. I believe that Christmas will be so much better if try to leave Christmas until December 24, Christmas Eve. Advent is the time to prepare as well as we can to meet the Lord at Christmas. Preparing well, with love, will make our Christmas mean so much more! Happy Advent!

AN ADVENT CALENDAR FOR YOU

The USCCB (the National Conference of Catholic Bishops) has prepared an on line calendar for Catholics. Please log in to “Advent 2017, USCCB” to find a great Advent calendar that will assist you and your family to have a fruitful Advent.

Tithing Income November 26, 2017	$10,856.00
Tithing Income November 27, 2016	$10,526.50

FROM THE PASTOR: "I know that the experience of tithing with God can help people to grow in faith. I am happy that a good number of our people are taking advantage of this plan from God that is explained in the Bible."

A TESTIMONY FROM A MEMBER OF ST. ELIZABETH CHURCH, WASHINGTON HTS., NY: "Regarding tithing, nothing better has happened at St. Elizabeth's in years. Thank you for following what the Spirit is saying. We must continue to teach the spirituality of tithing so that the joy of giving may be experienced."

GOD HAS A DIFFERENT PLAN

We begin the season of Advent with a heartfelt call for our own repentance. We remember God's faithful love for us, and call upon God to help us to turn back. For "behold, you are angry, and we are sinful" (Isaiah 64:4). In the first reading and in the psalm, we recall God's promises and lament our unfaithfulness and our guilt. We call upon God's might and power in order to save us. With Isaiah, we ask God to "rend the heavens and come down, / with the mountains quaking before you" (Isaiah 63:19).

Yes, God is faithful to us, because we are the work of God's hands. God is the potter, we are the clay. And yet, our concept of how God will come to save us is rooted in our own expectations of a warrior God who crushes mountains and thunders into our lives with great noise and glory. But God has a different plan: the Incarnation.

LIKE A CHILD

One who aspires to the grace of God must be pure, with a heart as innocent as a child's.

~St. Nicholas

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — We are the clay and you, O LORD, are the potter: we are the work of your hands (Isaiah 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7).

Psalm — Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved (Psalm 80).

Second Reading — God is faithful; by God you were called to fellowship with the Son (1 Corinthians 1:3-9).

Gospel — Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come. (Mark 13:33-37).

GOD'S LOVE

The great thing to remember is that though our feelings come and go, God's love for us does not.

~ C.S. Lewis
