FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

THE MEMORARE A FAVORITE PRAYER OF THE SAINTS

A favorite prayer of many of the saints is the Memorare. Here are the words of the prayer.

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help or sought your intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto you, Oh Virgin of Virgins, my mother. To you, I come, before you, I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions but, in your mercy, hear and answer me. Amen.

This beautiful prayer is traditionally associated with St. Bernard of Clairveaux. It is a wonderful petition to Mary. I know that Mother Teresa of Calcutta would say this prayer for nine consecutive days in times of special need. She called this a “novena of Memorares.” I know that Eileen George, too, would storm heaven with this prayer when she had an urgent request. I highly recommend that you learn this prayer and make regular use of it and pass it along to others.

God bless.

Father Nick

A Word from Father Nick: "I thank you for the love that you show for God and others through your offerings each Sunday!"

From a Parishioner of the Cathedral of St. Francis of Assisi in Metuchen, NJ: "We don't 'give' anything to God. He already owns everything. What we have is given to us through life, health and the ability to work. We are merely His stewards from whom tithes are due."

24-HOUR EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

Eucharistic Adoration is a Catholic devotion dating back to the early days of the Church. It involves exposing a consecrated host, the Blessed Sacrament, allowing people to sit and pray in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ.

At St. Lawrence Church, we have Adoration every week on Thursday from 5 pm until Friday at 10 am in the church and Friday from 10 am until 5 pm in the chapel. This means that we have an opportunity to spend some time with Jesus in personal prayer.

We are now in the special time of Lent. We encourage you to commit to coming to visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament regularly during this season. We have several openings in our adoration schedule. We especially need volunteers during our night hours from Thursday night until Friday morning, where the sacrifice to attend is greater; God appreciates and rewards our sacrifices.

If you need help with how to spend your hour, don't worry, we have plenty of resources to assist you with your prayer time. Please visit <https://stlchester.weadorehim.com> or email Aga at agamcfeely@gmail.com with any questions, help with signing up, or interest in knowing where you can best help.

*Go and find Him when your patience and strength run out and you feel alone and helpless.
Jesus is waiting for you in the chapel. Say to Him, "Jesus, you know exactly what is going on.
You are all I have and you know all things. Come to my help."*

*And then go and don't worry about how you are going to manage. That you have told God about it is enough.
He has a good memory.*

Segunda Lectura: Rm 5, 1-2. 5-8

Evangelio Jn 4, 5-42

Señor, tú eres el Salvador del mundo. Dame de tu agua viva para que no vuelva a tener sed.

Jn 4, 42. 15

JESÚS, LA RESPUESTA PARA NUESTRA SED TAMBIÉN HOY

Nos podemos ver fácilmente reflejados en la historia del pueblo y en la situación personal de la samaritana. También nosotros tenemos sed. Nuestra generación, tanto o más que las anteriores, tiene sed de verdad, de seguridad, de amor, de sentido de la vida. Sin formularlo explícitamente, tenemos sed de salvación. Todos sentimos sed, los jóvenes y los no tan jóvenes. Sentir sed, y saberlo, es una de las condiciones para recorrer con esperanza y sentido el camino hacia la Pascua. Y la respuesta nos la da Dios. Pablo, en la segunda lectura, nos habla del Dios Trino que sale a nuestro encuentro, del amor del Padre que se nos da por su Espíritu en lo más profundo, de un amor que se nos manifiesta sobre todo en que Cristo murió por nosotros, a pesar de que no nos lo merecíamos.

La respuesta es misteriosa, pero segura: estamos envueltos en el amor que Dios nos tiene. Y ese amor tiene un nombre concreto: Jesús. En medio de las múltiples respuestas que el mundo de hoy nos ofrece, ésta es la única creíble. Nuestra sed no quedará nunca satisfecha si acudimos a otras fuentes de agua. El «yo soy» de Jesús sigue siendo la respuesta más entrañable a nuestra sed, a nuestra fatiga, a nuestra desesperanza. En la Pascua Dios nos quiere salir al encuentro, una vez más. Como Jesús a la samaritana. Sea cual sea nuestro estado personal humano y cristiano. Si Dios diera su agua sólo a los que la merecen... Pablo dice que Cristo murió por nosotros a pesar de que éramos pecadores. A cada uno de nosotros Cristo nos dice de nuevo: «Yo soy» el Agua, el Salvador, la respuesta. La Pascua nos invita a renovar cada año el camino que empezó en nuestro bautismo, cuando por primera vez nos unimos a Cristo y entramos en su vida o él entró en la nuestra. Hoy con la imagen del agua. En próximos domingos con la de la luz o la vida.

The Samaritan woman shared her drinking water with Jesus, a stranger, and Jesus shared "living water" of the Holy Spirit with the woman. The woman and her neighbors believed in Jesus.

Believe... Share with others

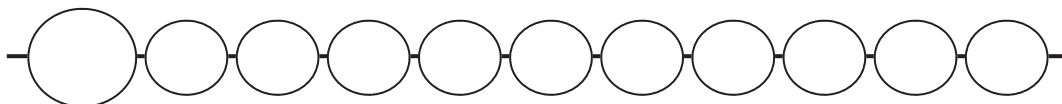

This week I can share my time, talents and treasure. What will I do?

Write down how you plan to share with others for each day of the week.

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY

The Third Sorrowful Mystery - The Crowning of Thorns

Think about this mystery before praying.
The Holy Spirit stayed with Jesus through
His final days.

*Through our baptismal water the Holy Spirit came to stay with you and guide you.
This third week of Lent, what can you do for others with help from the Holy Spirit?*

This week: Say an Our Father and color the large bead - say 10 Hail Mary's and color each small bead. End with Glory Be to the Father.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

“Jesus said to her, ‘Give me a drink’... Jesus answered and said to her, ‘If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you ‘Give me a drink’, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water... But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him.”

The wonderful conversation of Jesus shows the patience of Jesus in bringing the woman to conversion. He is patient with her, and her openness and curiosity moves her to a new relationship with God.

Our Lenten prayer and practice is our chance to respond to the patient love and concern that Jesus has for us all.

We listen to His Word and learn as she did that He is a Jew, a teacher, the Messiah.

Then she leaves to tell others. Our prayer conversation calls us in the same way. This week, as you look for something to drink, remember Jesus has a thirst for us today as well.
