The Prayer Before Mass

Come Holy Spirit, quiet my heart and my head, as I gather with my family, friends and neighbors to celebrate Mass. Quiet the thoughts and distractions that will keep me from worship. Open my mouth in prayer and song. Open my ears to hear God's Word. Open my eyes to the mystery of the Eucharist. Open my heart to receive Jesus with love. May I go forth strengthened to take the Mass into my life this week. Amen.

“Stewarding our Gifts: Go in peace glorifying the Lord by your life”

The coming of a savior who is a light to the nations continues to be the theme of the readings. Isaiah exhorts the Israelites to be glad and exult because they will bask in the glory of the Redeemer. When Jesus' ministry of preaching and healing began, His actions fulfilled the Old Testament prophecy. When St. Paul delivered the Gospel to the Gentiles he had to remind them that Christ was the focal point, not himself. Our human nature leads us to more easily embrace human things than heavenly things. The Holy Spirit gives us grace to see God's glory and redirect our focus toward Heaven. Our search for God's kingdom leads us to Jesus, the Light of the world. May we discover the depth of God's mercy; and share our discovery.

Benefiting Youth Programs through the SIENA FUND

Saint Catherine of Siena would like to cordially invite you to our inaugural Ball to benefit the Siena Fund.

This elegant dinner and dance will start a legacy for the youth of our parish, present and future. We have created this fund to help finance/support the many youth programs that are operating at St. Catherine of Siena Parish and the many we want to begin.

We know you will want to be part of this historic beginning. You will look forward to this evening year after year to always fall in the month of March on the Saturday nearest the birthday of the parish patron saint.

We would be honored if you would save the date for our 1st Annual Siena Ball. The night will be reminiscent of old Siena, Italy.

Reflection

"He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him." Peter, Andrew, James, and John's lives would never be the same. They were going about their usual business --fishing on the Sea of Galilee-- when Jesus approached them and said, "Come after me." And that's just what they did. "At once they left their nets and followed him." Such a quick response to such a radical request! What compelled these men to leave their livelihood to follow the Lord? His promise to them was that he would make them "fishers of men." Perhaps they thought that promise sounded fabulous. But it seems more likely that it was Christ Himself who drew the men. There must have been something utterly attractive about Him, and completely trustworthy. Otherwise, it seems unbelievable that these men would have been so quick to respond to His call. This compelling man is the same Christ who calls us. We hear His voice in a different way, of course, through the Church and through the Bible, through His Spirit in our hearts, but it is nonetheless the same Jesus of Nazareth who asks us to follow Him. Have we allowed ourselves to be drawn by His voice? Are we open to a real encounter with the Lord who changes lives? If our relationship with Jesus does not transform us, if it does not change us into different, better people moment by moment and day by day, then chances are that we are not truly encountering Him. He is too powerful to be inconsequential. It might take some courage and commitment to come into authentic contact with the Lord, but when we do, our lives will never be the same.
