The Prayer Before Mass

Come Holy Spirit, quiet my heart and my head, as I gather with my family, friends and neighbors to celebrate Mass. Quiet the thoughts and distractions that will keep me from worship. Open my mouth in prayer and song. Open my ears to hear God's Word. Open my eyes to the mystery of the Eucharist. Open my heart to receive Jesus with love. May I go forth strengthened to take the Mass into my life this week. Amen.

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH

WHAT IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH ABOUT?

"We are the people of life, because God, in His unconditional love, has given us the Gospel of Life, and we are called to act accordingly."

- Saint Pope John Paul II

Respect Life Month shines a focus on the Catholic teaching of respecting life from conception to natural death. As a part of this, we remember in a special way people touched by the issues of abortion, infertility, adoption, end of life care, terminal illnesses, mental and physical disabilities, religious freedom as well as those who are poor and homeless.

WHAT CAN I DO?

PRAY - Spend some special time in prayer dedicated to those affected by these issues especially doctors, patients, families, care givers and those whose jobs may be affected by their ability to exercise their religious freedom.

ATTEND AN EVENT:

October 1 – at 7:30 pm – “Holy Hour for Life” with Acts 29, St. Catherine’s Youth Group

October 1 – from 2 pm-3:30 pm – LifeChain event at 21st Street N. and Maize Road (look for the red St. Catherine of Siena Respect Life shirts and we will have signs you can use!)

October 4 – at 2:00 pm – School living rosary and wear red for Respect Life

October 7 – at 9:00 am – St. Catherine hosting First Saturday rosary at Southwind Women’s Center

Now through Nov. 5 – Sign up to pray for an hour at Southwind Women’s Center

Reflection

"Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you." Ouch. This had to sting. Jesus spoke these shocking words to "the chief priests and elders of the people," not just anyone. The ones who were professional law-keepers. The ones who were religious leaders and teachers. The ones who were, in truth, self-righteous, pompous, and presumptuous. Jesus must have known how offensive it would be to his audience to share this unpleasant fact. But he said it anyway because he knew they needed to hear it. But the point wasn't to offend. The point was to amend. Jesus was urging them to change their lives for the better, to come to God with a humble, contrite heart, seeking forgiveness and mercy. These unrepentant upper-crust leaders were plagued by an inability to see their own sins. They were far too focused on identifying where others were going wrong. And, as was his style, Jesus' preaching was adapted according to his audience. These guys needed to get knocked out of their complacency. So Jesus did what he had to do. It's important to realize, by the way, that the reason tax collectors and prostitutes were leading the line to heaven wasn't because of their sins. It was because of their sorrow. The people Jesus had in mind when he mentioned this --like Zacchaeus and Mary Magdalene perhaps-- had repented from their sinful behavior and begun anew. This is why he praises them. And this is what the Lord longs to see everyone doing, including us. Either we need to acknowledge and repent of our sins, or we are placing ourselves in the same category as the chief priests and elders. And that's definitely not the place to be.
