DID YOU KNOW... Extraordinary Ministers

Did you know that the St. Catherine of Siena Extraordinary Ministers also bring Holy Communion to the residents at Via Christi? Twice a week Mass is said in the Lumen Christi chapel and our ministers visit the residents in their rooms to distribute the Precious Body.

If you are interested in joining this ministry, please email Ron and Mary Ann Youngers at ronyoungers@yahoo.com.

The Prayer Before Mass

Come Holy Spirit, quiet my heart and my head, as I gather with my family, friends and neighbors to celebrate Mass.

Quiet the thoughts and distractions that will keep me from worship.

Open my mouth in prayer and song.

Open my ears to hear God's Word.

Open my eyes to the mystery of the Eucharist.

Open my heart to receive Jesus with love.

May I go forth strengthened to take the Mass into my life this week. Amen.

"Who Are You Following?"

Over the next few weeks, we will see the development of the covenants God established with His people, in an effort to build an ongoing relationship with them. In the time of Noah, God sent a great flood to "clean up" the Earth. Afterward, he made a covenant -- a promise -- to never do so again. He left Noah and the remaining survivors as the new caretakers (stewards) of His creation. This great flood can be viewed as a massive "baptism" for the Earth -- a removal of sin/impurities. As such, our own baptism ties us into Noah's covenant, and requires that we act as stewards of our bodies and our souls, keeping them free from sin/impurities.

*A new ministry for adults 55 years and older is starting soon!

Reflection

Why do we always go to the desert? We see this example in Scripture time and time again. The Israelites wandered in the desert. King David and prophets were driven into the wilderness. And now Jesus is in the same place. Lent after Lent, we too are invited into a barren, desolate place. Why do we always go to the desert? Throughout Scripture, the desert is a place of testing. It's also a place of hiding and withdrawal. In the Old Testament,

David fled into the wilderness to hide from Saul, Elijah from Jezebel, and Jonah from God! In other words, the desert is a place of "retreat." In Christian circles, we use the word to describe a spiritual weekend away. But its meaning comes from warfare, as we well know. To retreat means to draw back, to separate oneself from the fighting. Of course, a military retreat brings its own kind of "battle" - the internal assessment of why the fighting went so poorly. As we enter into this Lenten season, we are invited to retreat into the desert with Jesus. Attending a day or weekend of reflection is a wonderful spiritual practice. This "desert spirituality," however, can fill all forty days. We can fulfill our Lenten resolutions with a purpose -- writing daily notes to family and friends can inspire new gratitude, every time we pass up that specific food item can be cause for intercession for deeper sufferings and privations of others.

The Gospel tells us that "the Spirit drove him out into the desert." In other words, God wants us to be here. What feels uncomfortable is actually part of our spiritual journey. To be stretched, to be challenged, to confront our own areas of weakness -- these things are essential in our walk with God.

This Lent, will you go to the desert?
