OUR MISSION

Warm greetings to all from the St. Maximilian Kolbe faith community! Whether you are new to our parish or have been a long-time member, you are welcome. The Eucharist – the real presence of Jesus Christ on the altar – is at the heart of our Catholic identity and all that we do here at St. Maximilian Kolbe.

We are a big parish with an even bigger heart, and there are many ways for you to find your place of belonging here. Our clergy and staff are here to assist you and to make you feel welcome. Do not hesitate to call, email or stop by to talk with us. We are here to serve. May God bless you always,
~Father Jeff McCormick

TAKING THE CALL

Scott Hahn on the XIII Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this week's First Reading, Elijah's disciple is allowed to kiss his parents goodbye before setting out to follow the prophet's call. But we are called to follow a "greater than Elijah", this week's Liturgy wants us to know.

In Baptism, we have put on the cloak of Christ, been called to the house of a new Father, and been given a new family in the kingdom of God. We have been called to leave behind our past lives and never look back—to follow wherever He leads.

Elijah was taken up in a whirlwind and his disciple was given a double portion of his spirit (see 2 Kings 2:9-15).

Jesus too, the Gospel reminds us, was "taken up" (see Acts 1:2, 11, 22), and He gave us His Spirit to live by, to guide us in our journey in His kingdom.

As this week's Epistle tells us, the call of Jesus shatters the yoke of every servitude, sets us free from the rituals of the old Law, and shows us the Law's fulfillment in the following of Jesus, in serving one another through love.

His call sets our hands to a new plow, a new task — to be His messengers, sent ahead to prepare all peoples to meet Him and enter into His Kingdom.

Elijah called down fire to consume those who wouldn't accept God (see 2 Kings 1:1-16). But we have a different Spirit with us.

To live by His Spirit is to face opposition and rejection, as the Apostles do in this week's Gospel. It is to feel like an exile, with no lasting city (see Hebrews 13:14), no place in this world to lay our head or call home.

But we hear the voice of the One we follow in this week's Psalm (see Acts 2:25-32; 13:35-37). He calls us to make His faith our own — to abide in confidence that He will not abandon us, that He will show us "the path to life," leading us to the fullness of joy in His presence forever.

CATECHISM of the Catholic Church

To truly follow Christ requires total commitment and a detachment from things of this world. While all Christians are called to imitate Christ completely, some are invited to embrace his life through the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity, and obedience.

§544 The kingdom belongs to the poor and lowly, which means those who have accepted it with humble hearts. Jesus is sent to "preach good news to the poor"; he declares them blessed, for "theirs is the kingdom of heaven." To them — the "little ones" the Father is pleased to reveal what remains hidden from the wise and the learned. Jesus shares the life of the poor, from the cradle to the cross; he experiences hunger, thirst and privation. Jesus identifies himself with the poor of every kind and makes active love toward them the condition for entering his kingdom.

RESPONDIENDO A LA LLAMADA

Scott Hahn reflexiona sobre el XIII Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario

En la primera lectura de esta semana, al discípulo de Elías se le permite dar el beso de despedida a sus papás antes de disponerse a seguir la llamada del profeta.

Pero estamos llamados a seguir a alguien más grande que Elías. Eso es lo que la liturgia de esta semana nos quiere decir.

En el Bautismo, nos hemos revestido con el manto de Cristo, fuimos llamados a la casa de un nuevo Padre; en el reino de Dios se nos dio una nueva familia. Hemos sido llamados a dejar nuestras vidas pasadas y nunca mirar atrás; a seguirle a donde quiera que nos guíe.

Elías fue arrebatado en un torbellino y su discípulo recibió una doble porción de su espíritu (cfr. 2 Re 2,9-15). También Jesús, como nos recuerda el Evangelio, fue "arrebatado" (cfr. Hch 1,2.11.22), y nos dio su Espíritu para que tuviéramos vida y para guiarnos en nuestro camino a su reino.

Y en esta semana la epístola nos dice que la llamada de Jesús sacude el yugo de toda servidumbre, nos libera de los rituales la Antigua Ley, nos muestra que la Ley se cumple en el seguimiento de Jesús y en servirnos unos a otros por amor.

Su llamada dispone nuestras manos para un nuevo arado, una nueva tarea: ser mensajeros enviados a preparar a todos los pueblos para conocer a Cristo y entrar en su Reino.

Elías bajó fuego del cielo para consumir a quienes no quisieron aceptar a Dios (cfr. 2 Re 1,1-16). Pero a nosotros nos acompaña un Espíritu diferente.

Vivir por el Espíritu de Cristo implica enfrentar oposición y rechazo, como lo experimentaron los apóstoles en el Evangelio de esta semana. Es como vivir en el exilio sin tener ciudad fija, sin un lugar en este mundo al cual llamarle hogar o donde reclinar la cabeza.

Sin embargo, en el salmo de hoy escuchamos la voz de Aquel a quien seguimos (cfr. Hch 2,25-32; 13,35-37). Nos llama a apropiarnos de su fe, a soportar las dificultades con la confianza en que Él no nos abandonará, en que nos mostrará el "camino del amor" y nos guiará a la alegría plena de su presencia para siempre.

CATECISMO de la Iglesia Católica

§544 El Reino pertenece a los pobres y a los pequeños, es decir, a los que lo acogen con un corazón humilde. Jesús fue enviado para "anunciar la Buena Nueva a los pobres" (Lc 4, 18; cf. Lc 7, 22). Los declara bienaventurados porque de "ellos es el Reino de los cielos" (Mt 5, 3); a los "pequeños" es a quienes el Padre se ha dignado revelar las cosas que ha ocultado a los sabios y prudentes (cf. Mt 11, 25). Jesús, desde el pesebre hasta la cruz comparte la vida de los pobres; conoce el hambre (cf. Mc 2, 23-26; Mt 21,18), la sed (cf. Jn 4,6-7; 19,28) y la privación (cf. Lc 9, 58). Aún más: se identifica con los pobres de todas clases y hace del amor activo hacia ellos la condición para entrar en su Reino (cf. Mt 25, 31-46).

A FAMILY SUMMERTIME PRAYER

May we make our homes places of relaxation, joy, love, peace, and safety.

May we be generous and considerate, not thinking only about ourselves, but helping others enjoy the blessings of the summertime.

Lord God, Creator of all things, guide our steps and strengthen our hearts during these months of summer and vacation days.

Grant us refreshment of mind and body.

May we constantly strive to make a meaningful difference in the lives of our loved ones and in the world around us as we enjoy the warm days of summertime.

In Jesus' name we pray.
Amen.

COMMEMORATIVE PLATES AND PAVERS

The Commemorative Pavers are for the support and continuous development of our parish facilities and also to provide a perfect opportunity for our parishioners to celebrate loved ones, whether living or departed. Far from just honoring those who have passed away, stone pavers are an ideal way to celebrate the living and serve as a permanent recognition of a loved one. Call (954) 432-0206 for more information or to set up a payment plan.

2022 ABCD

The Summer solstice represents the transition from action to nourishment. With your continued support, we increase our ability to sustain our commitment to our community. It truly takes an entire village in Christ to create that impact. Make a gift today!
