Deacon Jose Moronta

In our church, now we're going green

In recent years a new expression has been created for those who make a decision for an eco-friendly lifestyle. It's a nice initiative to treat with respect the Creation of God, preserving our natural resources by "Reducing, Reusing and Recycling". It's an obligation to preserve our planet for future generations. Otherwise, it would be a sin against the fifth commandment, "Do not kill', by making their lives more miserable and difficult.

But the expression I decided to use to open today's column is more about some important liturgical event. As you must have realized, our clergy vestments are green… again, after a hiatus of several months. This is the color used in the season that we're starting, Ordinary Time. (And it's not called "ordinary" in opposition to "extraordinary". This season is called like this because the weeks from now until the end of the Liturgical Year follow a numerical order, in order words, they are identified by "ordinal numbers", like today's, the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

From today we resume the continuity of Ordinary Sundays. Today we celebrate the 13th Sunday of Ordinary Time. The last of the Sundays of Ordinary Time we had celebrated was the 8th, on February 27th. From then until now, 20 Sundays have passed because we have had Lent and Easter in all these weeks. It is obvious that the accounts do not balance, since between the eighth and the thirteenth there would only be 5 Sundays. There is an explanation for this "rarity": The Liturgical Year always ends with the Feast of Christ the King, which would correspond to the 34th Sunday of Ordinary Time. This year that feast will be on November 20. When doing a backwards countdown, it turns out that for this Sunday, June 26th, corresponds to the ordinal 13. This is the explanation to this apparent incongruity, which is not, because in the Church, everything has a reason to be, nothing is improvised.

We take up the Gospel of Luke in a point of great significance

With this re-start of Ordinary Time, we notice that in the gospel according to Luke Jesus Christ begins a journey to Jerusalem. The rest of his work is composed as forming part of that long pilgrimage of Christ to Jerusalem, where he would be crucified. Today we introduce ourselves in this long section, "walking towards Jerusalem" (chapters 9 to 19) that will be with us until mid-November. Throughout these Sundays of Summer and Fall, Jesus will instruct us in word and deed and will invite us to follow him with decision and freely. Precisely freedom is the theme of the second reading: "To live in freedom, Christ has set us free"

It's a free path: no one is forced to follow it, not even to welcome Jesus, as it happened in that village of Samaritans, where he was rejected. Others, on the other hand, have been open to his person and his message, like that man who said to Jesus: "I will follow you wherever you go". And we are one of these; nobody forces us to come here every Sunday. Christianity is a lifestyle of freedom, not of imposition. It's a demanding freedom and we must respond with honesty and enthusiasm.

The Lord comes to transform our lives. If we accept new life, we must be prepared to move with the Lord and leave the security of where we have been. There can be no looking back. Those of us who are raised in the Christian faith often take our relationship with Christ for granted. We fail to recognize the radical nature of our call. We need to look to those who have felt a conversion or call to Christ.

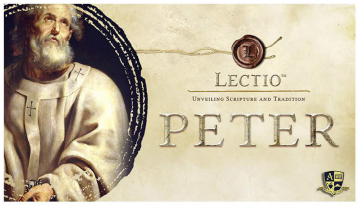
WATCH

THE BIBLE COLLECTION - PAUL THE APOSTLE

We are celebrating a feast day, consecrated for us by the blood of the apostles. Let us love their faith, their lives, their labours, their sufferings, their confession of faith, their preaching. This week we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, each of whom spread the Gospel to the nations in the earliest days of the Church. In honor of Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles, enjoy this film the Bible Collection!

LEARN

LECTIO: PETER: EPISODE 1: PUT OUT INTO THE DEEP



The character of St. Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. How could a stubborn and impulsive fisherman become the "rock" upon which Jesus would build his Church? Bringing together biblical accounts, historical evidence, Church teaching, and personal insights, Dr. Tim Gray gives a fresh perspective on Simon Peter in this Lectio series.

LISTEN

SET ALL AFIRE

It is no stretch to say that Peter and Paul set the world afire with the Gospel message. In honor of these apostles, enjoy this one-of-a-kind presentation that includes seven segments covering some of the most important topics in the Church today. Taken from many of our most powerful talks, these segments are sure to inspire you to set all afire for Christ and His Church.

Tax Free Contribution Information

If you are over 70 ½ and have an IRA or similar retirement account you may be required to take annual distributions prescribed by the IRS. These distributions are usually taxed at your ordinary income tax rate.

A new law was passed on 12/15/2015 which may allow you to contribute any part of your IRA including these required distributions to St. Mark TAX FREE!

Example: If you contribute $5000 from your IRA to St. Mark and are in a 20% tax bracket, the church receives the $5000 and you may save $1000 in taxes.

A WIN-WIN for both the church and the parishioner!

If your tax advisor agrees and you want to contribute from your 2021/2022 required annual distributions or even from your current IRA, instruct your IRA custodian to make the check out to: St. Mark the Evangelist Catholic Church.
They can either send it to you or directly to the church.
This is a great way to fulfill your pledge and/or contribute your annual offering in a lump sum.
