THANK YOU FOR JOINING US THIS WEEKEND

Dear Parish Family,

I am very happy to be back with you after my vacation. I truly had a good and refreshing time. I want to sincerely thank all of you for your prayers, support, and kindness during my time away. Your love and care mean a lot to me as your pastor.

This Sunday's Gospel presents the Beatitudes. In this passage, Jesus teaches us what it really means to be blessed. According to the world, a blessed life is often connected with power, money, success, and comfort. But Jesus gives us a very different message. He tells us that the blessed ones are the poor in spirit, the merciful, the meek, the peacemakers, and those who trust in God even in suffering.

God's understanding of blessedness is revealed through Jesus. True happiness does not come from what we have, but from how we live and how deeply we trust in God.

Let us take some time to examine our own lives. Let us ask ourselves: Are we living according to the Beatitudes? Are we seeking God's blessings in the way Jesus teaches us? May we open our hearts and allow God to shape us into truly blessed people.

May God bless you and your families.

With gratitude and prayers,
 Fr. Roy

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

God, I am not perfect. I make mistakes. Sometimes, I believe I am more powerful than I really am. Sometimes, I take things into my own hands and I do not trust in you. Yet you love me anyway. Open my eyes to see you more directly, my ears to hear you more clearly, and my heart to love you. Help me to trust in you and to be your humble servant. Amen.

CHALLENGE OF THE WEEK

Write each of the Beatitudes down on a note card. Every morning, for the next eight days, pick one to reflect on and try to live out that beatitude during the day. As a bonus, keep a journal of your reflections and prayer with each beatitude through the week.

VOCATIONS MARRIAGE

The Vocations Committee is asking for ALL couples who have been blessed with sacramental marriage and all engaged couples to bring in a framed picture of you and your spouse (wedding picture or engagement photo) so we can honor you both in your dedication to your vocation of marriage. On the back of each framed picture please write how many years you have been together.

Querida familia parroquial,

Estoy muy contento de estar de regreso con ustedes después de mis vacaciones. Pasé un tiempo muy bonito y descansé bien. Quiero agradecerles de todo corazón por sus oraciones, apoyo y cariño durante esos días. Todo eso significa mucho para mí como su párroco.

El Evangelio de este domingo nos presenta las Bienaventuranzas. En este mensaje, Jesús nos enseña qué es una vida verdaderamente bendecida. Para el mundo, ser bendecido significa tener dinero, poder y éxito. Pero Jesús nos muestra otro camino. Él dice que son bendecidos los pobres de espíritu, los misericordiosos, los humildes, los que trabajan por la paz y los que confían en Dios aun en medio de las dificultades.

El concepto de bendición de Dios se revela a través de Jesús. La verdadera felicidad no viene de lo que tenemos, sino de cómo vivimos y de nuestra confianza en Dios.

Los invito a examinar nuestra vida. Preguntémosnos: ¿Estamos viviendo según las Bienaventuranzas? ¿Estamos buscando la bendición de Dios como Jesús nos enseña? Que abramos nuestro corazón para que Dios nos transforme en personas verdaderamente bendecidas.

Que Dios los bendiga a ustedes y a sus familias.

Con gratitud y oración,
 P. Roy
