St. James the Apostle and Our Lady of the Lake/Mount Carmel is a Roman Catholic Parish with the Eucharist as the center of its life. Our mission, as disciples of Jesus Christ, is to build up the Kingdom of God by leading, nourishing and serving the community in Word and Sacrament.

From the Desk of Fr. Szymon — June 18, 2017

Today, on this great Solemnity of the Body and Blood of the Lord, you and I are invited once more to faith. To believe that Jesus was telling the truth, to believe that Jesus not only had words that give life but, that He Himself continues to give Himself to us in this Sacrament. The Body and Blood of the Lord are sacred realities given to us so that we can live in Gods love.

The Bread is to sustain our lives because we must live. The wine, as a symbol of blood and giving up our lives, is to give joy to our hearts. The Bread broken to be shared and the Wine given in one cup is a sign of our unity.

The symbols that come to mind on this Solemnity are rich and varied. This feast, in some ways, repeats Holy Thursday to remind us again of Jesus giving Himself for us and to remind us that God as Father cares for His people. We only understand these mysteries in the Spirit, the gift of the Father, the Spirit of Jesus, the Holy Spirit who invites us and empowers us to grow in holiness.

Let us delight in the Lord! Let us feast with God! Let us adore this presence of Jesus and renew our commitment to Him. Truly, Jesus shows us the Father, gives us the Spirit and asks us to follow Him in trust.

READING FOR TODAY, THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST
(CORPUS CHRISTI)

First Reading: Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a - Moses reminds the Israelites that when they were starving in the desert, the Lord fed them with "manna".

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 10:16-17 - Paul points out to the Corinthians that through the sharing of the cup and the breaking of the bread, they are all one in Christ Jesus.

Gospel: John 6:51-58 - After Jesus feeds the five thousand people with barley loaves and fishes, he tells them that the bread he gives is his flesh and says, "I myself am the living bread... If anyone eats this bread, he shall live forever."

READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:10-13 - Because the prophet Jeremiah foretold disaster for Jerusalem, he was denounced. But Jeremiah trusted in the Lord and overcame his persecutors.

Second Reading: Romans 5:12-15 - Paul explains to the Romans that Adam's sin brought death to all, but Christ's gift of himself brought grace and life.

Gospel: Matthew 10:26-33 - In authoritative and encouraging words, Jesus urges the apostles to fear nothing -- only him who can destroy the soul.

St. Sebastian's Terrace and Columbarium

209 Purchased - 243 Niches Still Available
105 Cremains Interred

We have celebrated Mass at the Altar of our Terrace and Columbarium many times. The price of a niche is $2,500, which gives you the right to inter the cremains of two people. If you have been thinking of purchasing a niche, call Donna McCarthy at 845-225-2079 Ext. 105, on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday to schedule an appointment.

For those of you not familiar with a Columbarium, it is a Latin word, which describes a collection of niches to house urns containing, cremated human remains. They are usually inscribed with the person's name and dates of birth and death, and are constructed to serve as permanent resting places for our loved ones in a 'churchyard' or landscaped terrace. We pray that the Lord who has blessed this project, become a final resting place for many of our loved ones.
