“I am a king. (...) Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice”

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Christ the King, a statue of Jesus Christ in Świebodzin, (western Poland), completed on 6 November 2010. The figure is 33 meters (108 ft) tall, the crown is 3 meters (9.8 ft) tall, and along with its mound, it reaches 52.5 meters (172 ft) overall. It took five years in total to construct and cost around $1.5 million to build, which was collected from donations of the 21,000 residents of the town. It is the second tallest statue of Jesus in the world, after Jesus Buntu Burake in Indonesia.

Today's Jesus Christ is presented to us as the King of the Universe. My attention has always been drawn by the emphasis the Bible attributes to the word “King” when applied to our Lord. “The Lord is king, robed with majesty” we sing in Psalm 93. “I am a king” (Jn 18:37), we have heard from Jesus' very lips. “Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord.” (Lk 19:38), people shouted when He was entering Jerusalem.

The word “King”, applied to God and to Jesus Christ, does not have the inferred meaning we give to it when speaking of the conventional monarchy. Yet, in the popular language, the word “king” does have a certain affinity with the Biblical language. For instance, when a mother is taking care of her baby and tells him: You are the king of our home. What is she implying? Just a very simple thing: that her little baby is her number one priority and means everything to her. And when teenagers claim that so and so is the king of Rock, they mean there is no other one like him; similarly, as when they refer to the basketball king. Enter a teenager's room and you will probably see on his walls who are really his “kings”. I believe these popular expressions very much resemble what we mean when we acclaim God as our King and help us to understand Jesus' assertion about his kingdom: “My kingship is not from here” (Jn 18:36).

For us Christians, our King is our Lord, that is, the center where the deepest feelings of our lives are going. When in the Lord's Prayer we say “Your kingdom come”, we mean we would like to see that more and more people could find the source of their happiness in God, while following the path He shows us, which is the path of the beatitudes. Let us, therefore, ask it with all our heart, for “wherever Jesus Christ is, there is our life and our kingdom” (St. Ambrose).

God bless you!

Happy Thanksgiving!

ST. JAMES THE APOSTLE SCHOOL

In honor of Veterans Day, on Thursday, November 10th, Veterans of school families were invited to spend the morning with us and enjoy breakfast. Grades PreK through 8th took part in different ways. PreK lead our prayers with their morning prayer, God Made the Earth followed by our Kindergarten and 1st grade who lead the Our Father, Hail Mary and Pledge of Allegiance. The National Anthem was sung so beautifully by 8th graders, Jacqueline Barnett, Madelyn Schumm, Jayna Valiamplackal and 6th grader, Lucy Poniatowski. Students had the pleasure of reading our Veteran's service background, delivering thank you cards and giving each Veteran a memory keepsake book. Shoprite of Carmel partnered with St. James, prepared and served a delicious breakfast. After breakfast, all students gathered for the finale. Our 3rd grade read a poem they created and then students and faculty joined in a rousing rendition of You're a Grand Old Flag. We ended this magnificent event in silence, as we all listened to the song, Proud to be an American. God Bless the USA! Home of the free because of the brave!

CELEBRATING OUR VETERANS

Thank You for Your Service

All of Us at St. James the Apostle School are Grateful, Thankful and Blessed for our Veterans, our School Families, our Priests and Parishioners who continue to support us. Lastly, we are forever grateful for all the guidance and support we received from Msgr. Marchitelli. We know in our hearts, he is continuing to support all of us each and every day.

Have a Blessed Thanksgiving
