CATHOLIC TRADITION AND PRACTICE

There are many bodily gestures that Catholics make, and one of them that was widely practiced for centuries was the custom of bowing one's head at the mention of the name of Jesus. Even though it has not been greatly emphasized in recent years, it is still honored by many.

The origin of this custom is primarily inspired by the following words of St. Paul in his letter to the Philippians.

Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (Philippians 2:9-11)

Practically speaking, kneeling every time the name of Jesus is mentioned is rather difficult, and so Pope Gregory X found a solution. He wrote about it in 1274, expressing his desire that some physical gesture be done to honor Jesus' name.

Recently, during the Council held at Lyons, we deemed it a useful commendation to exhort the faithful to enter the house of God with humility and devotion, and to conduct themselves while there in a becoming manner, so as to merit the divine favor and at the same time give edification.

*We have also judged it proper to persuade the faithful to demonstrate more reverence for that Name above all names, the only Name in which we claim salvation — the Name of Jesus Christ, who has redeemed us from the bondage of sin. Consequently, in obedience to that apostolic precept, 'In the Name of Jesus let every knee, be bent,' we wish that at the pronouncing of that Name, chiefly at the Holy Sacrifice, every one would bow his head in token that interiorly he bends the knee of his heart.

Pope Gregory wanted everyone to not only honor Jesus' name, but to interiorly submit themselves to God with a simple act of love. The Dominicans took the pope's request seriously and became the foremost promoters of the Holy Name of Jesus, preaching about the Holy Name, forming Holy Name Societies, as well as placing altars in their churches dedicated to Jesus' Holy Name. The custom is a simple one and is meant to reflect an interior desire to honor Jesus, the only name by which we are saved.

The Cursillos de Christiandad is an international lay movement founded in 1944 in Spain by a group of laymen aimed at teaching men and women how to become more effective Christian leaders in parishes, work situations, and other environments.

The weekend retreats help participants to form a closer relationship with Christ and a deeper experience of Christian community. It was officially recognized by Pope St. Paul VI, who designated the Cursillos as a renewal movement of the church.

There will be a blessing of animals, Saturday, October 5th at 2pm rain or shine. Meet in front of St. James Church with your leashed or crated pet. Photos of your pets are most welcome!

The following Pet Blessing can be used:

Blessed are you, Lord God, maker of all living creatures.

*You called forth fish in the sea, birds in the air,
and animals on the land.*

You inspired St. Francis to call all of them his brothers and sisters.

We ask you to bless this pet.

*By the power of your love, enable it to live ac-

Who Is the Greatest?

Jesus told His disciples, “The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men. They will kill Him, and after three days He will rise.” But they did not understand what He meant and were afraid to ask Him about it.
