THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE END OF DAYS

As we prepare for next Sunday's feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, we hear descriptions of dire and catastrophic events. Sometimes it seems as though we ourselves are living in the end times, when life as we currently know it will cease for everyone. In answer to what must have been a fearful question, Jesus does not sugarcoat his foretelling of future days. Nor does the Old Testament prophet Malachi flinch from his pronouncements upon an evil world. Saint Paul, still writing to the Thessalonians, warns them prophetically against succumbing to "The End Is Near" syndrome—indolence in the face of the final days. However, both Jesus and Malachi speak of the recompense for living a just life—healing and vindication. Our Psalm 98, typically associated with Christmas-

WELCOME FATHER RODEL TABANOA

Forty-five years ago, my parents welcomed me to the family on the 29th of January in 1977. After completing my high school in 1994, I joined the Missionaries of the Poor in the Philippines, my home country. A year later, I continued my religious formation in Kingston, Jamaica. This process culminated in my final profession of vows in 2001. After eleven years of missionary work and discernment process, I was ordained on the 12th of October 2012 at the Basilica of Our Lady of Peñafrancia, Philippines. My first official mission assignment was in Cap-Haitien and Port-au-Prince in Haiti. Those were to be my six fruitful and formative years of blessings in the midst of joys and challenges.

Returning to Jamaica in 2018 to take up an appointment in the Mother House, it was a time when I once again entered into the discernment process and applied to the Diocese of Reno for pastoral and sacramental ministry in a diocesan setting. Bishop Calvo accepted my application and was welcomed to the Diocese by Bishop Daniel last year 2021, and provisionally assigned at St. Joseph's in Elko.

As I look forward to my joining with St. Rose of Lima parish in December of this year, I thank you in advance for the warmth of your hospitality. Let us pray for each other. God bless!

Remain Faithful to Jesus Always

Jesus told the people it would not always be easy to follow him. He warned them not to be fooled by anyone claiming to be him.

"Do not follow them," he said. "Remain faithful to me always."

Then he warned them about hard times in their lives: wars, earthquakes, hunger, disease, and other terrible things. But he said. "Don't worry about these things. Remember to keep believing in me and I will save you."
