WEEKLY READINGS

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME JULY 30, 2023

ENCOURAGING DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE BY FATHER JOHN MUIR

Our culture seems more polarized and divided than ever. Into this wounded situation, our Catholic faith has a healing remedy to offer: the gift of wisdom. When the Lord offers to give King Solomon anything the monarch desires, he requests “an understanding heart” (1 Kings 3:9). In his polarized situation, the King doesn’t ask for power to defeat his enemies. He asks for a wise and understanding heart to judge right from wrong. This wisdom is elevated and fulfilled in Jesus who teaches us to bring forth “both the new and the old” (Matthew 13:52).

In our fractured society, we Christians should stop pining for political power to crush our perceived enemies. That often just makes things worse. Rather, it’s much more useful to beg for the grace of true wisdom which transcends both sides of the aisle. This places us in a fresh position from which we can help our culture see what is true and good all across the ideological spectrum. Sometimes we’ll look like liberals (e.g., in our love for the poor and marginalized) and other times like conservatives (e.g., in our sexual ethics and views on religious freedom). Because this wisdom is free from ideological narrowness, it will help to heal these painful fractures. Lord Jesus, this week, pour into us your healing wisdom.

TODAY’S READINGS

Psalms: Lord, I love your commands. (Ps 119)

Second Reading: For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. (Rom 8:29)

Bless our parish and our families with men and women who will generously respond to Your call of service as priests or deacons, sisters or brothers. ABOUT THE MASS - WEEK SEVEN

Opening Rites - The Sign of the Cross

"I fill up my flesh what is still lacking in regard to Christ's afflictions, for the sake of his body, which is the Church." Colossians 1:24

The first prayer of the Mass is the humble sign of the Cross. Oftentimes we can think of it as just an introduction, like a person saying "hello" when answering the phone. However, its significance is far greater than just a preface to prayer. In the sign of the Cross, we say in whose name we are acting - the holy name of the Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We are acknowledging that this is no longer something we are doing, but is an action of the divine. And while we say this, we trace the cross over our bodies, reminding ourselves that we must take up our cross and follow Jesus. This is also an incarnational prayer - we pray with our bodies. We aren't disembodied spirits, and as such we bring all of who we are, including our bodies, and offer it to God.

Have you ever thought about the significance of your baptism and it's connection to the sign of the Cross?

What is your favorite prayer?

SECOND COLLECTION AUGUST 5TH & 6TH

African American & Native American Missions

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The special second collection taken up this month assists the African American, Native American, and Alaskan Native Catholic communities through the Commission for Catholic Missions. Everyone is encouraged to support the Catholic missions in the United States and to consider a donation to the Commission's efforts to serve minority communities.

Your support affects the daily pastoral work of our bishops, consecrated religious women and men, and lay-leadership who labor throughout the United States as disciples of Jesus and witnesses to our common faith. Financial donations to the Commission for Catholic Missions provides funding for resources and personnel training to carry out the mission entrusted to the Church in places that would otherwise not experience excellent ministry.

A school in our own Diocese, Bishop Manogue Catholic High School, receives a grant from the Commission for Catholic Missions, which serves as tuition assistance for Native American and African American students who would otherwise be unable to afford Catholic education in our Diocese. Please consider a donation to assist Catholic racial minorities and their needs.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,

Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Daniel H. Mueggenborg
Bishop of Reno

SHARING THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL

Your toys can break. Your books can tear. Your clothes can shrink and stain. Things don't last forever. The kingdom of heaven does last forever. It is like a treasure. Heaven is worth more than anything you own. In both stories, the person who found the treasure sold everything else just to be a part of God's kingdom.

STEUBENVILLE MEMORIES

Teen's favorite Steubenville Memories:

- Being in Adoration with all my brothers as we sang and worshipped the Lord's name. (Apparently it was like two hours, but it felt like fifteen minutes).
- My favorite memory from Steubenville was the amazing Adoration and singing worship songs!
- Adoration with everybody, seeing everyone's growth in their faith is a heartwarming event.
- During Adoration, I was filled with so much joy and stood there with my hand on my friend's shoulder just saying, "thank you, Jesus!"
- Adoration was pretty awesome and so was the mosh pit.
- I really enjoyed Adoration. I don't really remember much of what happened, but I remember how I felt and how my friends were reacting.
- The Adoration was emotional and very spiritual. Adoration lets me connect and talk to Jesus in an amazing way. The Holy Spirit came to me and I
