WEEKLY READINGS

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 10, 2023

ENCOURAGING DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE BY FATHER JOHN MUIR

What are you supposed to do about the bad behavior of the people around you? You know who I'm talking about. That family member, friend, coworker, or acquaintance who is quite immoral. On this front there are two lively options in our culture: bash the person to others (probably online) or pretend everything's fine. The former damages the person. The latter ignores reality. What to do?

Jesus' strategy in the Gospel of Matthew is as wise as it is difficult: go directly to the person, and then gradually expand the circle of intervention. Simple, often effective, and hard. But what we often miss is the context of the Lord's strategy, "If your brother sins against you..." Notice the italicized words. Is the person in a Christian familial bond with you? And was the action in question against you? If so, proceed with the plan. Fine. But how often we fret over the sins of those who either aren't our spiritual siblings or have done nothing directly to us. This is not an invitation to ignore injustice in the world. Rather, we should build bonds of fraternal love, and carefully discern when and how others' sins are indeed our concern. Sometimes they are. Other times — frequently, perhaps — they simply are not.

TODAY'S READINGS

Second Reading: Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law. (Rom 13:10)

ABOUT THE MASS - WEEK TEN

Opening Rites - Penitential Rite

"When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the man, 'Take heart, son; your sins are forgiven.'"

Matthew 9:2

After recognizing we are in the presence of God, the first liturgical action we make is to acknowledge our sins. This is an important point; Christ came to save humanity from sin and death, and so we acknowledge that we are sinners in need of God's Mercy. This is not simply a moment to feel guilty, but to be honest, and recognize our need for a savior.

Following this, the celebrant will offer a minor absolution, which brings with it forgiveness of venial sins. And this too is significant; our repentance is always met by God's mercy - the only sin God can't forgive is the one we do not repent of.

Why do you think we confess to "Almighty God and to you brothers and sisters"?

What does it mean to repent of "what I have done and what I have failed to do"?

OUR WEEKLY OFFERING

Numbers for the September 3rd Collections will be reported next week due the Labor Day holiday.

Thank you for your ongoing generosity!

SECOND COLLECTION SEPTEMBER 9TH & 10TH SEMINARIAN EDUCATION FUND

The second collection on September 9th and 10th is for the Seminarian Fund. I am pleased to inform you that we are blessed to have five young men studying in preparation for the priesthood, all from right here in Northern Nevada.

We still need to continue to foster vocations in our diocese and continue to support the young men who are in the seminary. One way to show our support is to continue praying for them and their vocations. Another similarly impactful way to support is through giving. Each year the cost of educating each of these students is approximately $35,000. Your gift would help to offset the cost of their education and training.

All of the monies collected in this annual second collection goes directly to support our seminarians in the Diocese of Reno.

For resources from our diocese on vocations and discernment, please visit <https://renodiocese.org/home/ourworks/vocations/>. You can also visit the site by scanning the QR code at the right. On the site, you can read about our current seminarians and how to keep in touch with them throughout the year.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,

Yours in Christ,

+ Daniel Mueggenborg

Gospel of the Week

God created the whole universe, and God made you. When you mess up, God is there to save you. God doesn't want anyone to get hurt by sin. That's why he sent Jesus. He wants everyone to come to heaven, including you.

THANK YOU!

5 THINGS TO DO IN ADORATION

Whether you are new to adoration or a have been before, the idea of sitting at the Lord's feet can seem quite intimidating. What do you do as you sit in silence before the Lord? Are there specific prayers to recite? How can you make the most of this time with God?

LECTIO DIVINA

Being in the presence of God is the perfect place to read and meditate on the word of God.

INTERCEDE FOR OTHERS

It's easy to stick to our personal intentions during prayer. Adoration is the perfect time to offer up your prayers and time for your friends, family, and the holy souls in purgatory.

PRAY THE ROSARY

The Rosary is perfect for those looking for a more structured way to pray during adoration.

JOURNAL

Use a prayer journal to keep track of your prayer intentions, write letters to God, or to focus your thoughts during prayer.

SIT QUIETLY

Instead of talking to the Lord, try listening to what He wants to tell you.

Coming in September for our youth! OnFire Catholic Youth Day, and Divine Dozen Adoration!
