WEEKLY READINGS

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
OCTOBER 15, 2023

ENCOURAGING DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE BY FATHER JOHN MUIR

I confess that I have a soft spot for the scary things Jesus says because they are usually ignored. But there's gold in them thar hills, if we have courage to look. This week Jesus gives us a terrifying warning in his parable about the king who gives a marriage feast for his son and promptly goes berserk when people don't respond. The point: those who do not properly respond to God's generous invitation will face totally devastating consequences. The invitees who don't show up get their city burned to the ground. The poor homeless man is tortured for not wearing the correct clothes. Scary indeed.

Is Jesus trying to intimidate or bully us into following him? No, because that is certainly not how he treats anyone in the Gospels. A better view is this: to Jesus, your life matters. The universe is not an empty wasteland where anything goes. It is a theater of love offered and either accepted or rejected. How easy it can be to glide through life thinking my life doesn't make a difference. But it does. It really does.

This should not only be sobering but exhilarating. The positive side of the negative in Jesus' scary parables is the thrill and joy that he is inviting us, therefore our lives matter a great deal. There is a reason to get up in the morning. God's generous love is relentlessly calling us. True, obstinately saying no through our indifference is a catastrophe for us and those around us. But how wonderful must the consequences of our 'yes' be?

Gracious God, You gave us Your Son, Jesus, to be our Shepherd. May we listen attentively to His voice, as He guides us on our journey toward a life of service. Bless our parish and our families with men and women who will generously respond to Your call of service as priests or deacons, sisters or brothers. Help us to recognize the signs of Your Spirit and encourage our young people whatever their vocation may be. We ask this in the name of Jesus and the power of the Spirit. Amen

If you would like to take the Vocations Prayer Cross home for a week, please sign up in the Parish Office.

ABOUT THE MASS - WEEK FOURTEEN
Liturgy of the Word - The First Reading

“The New Testament lies hidden in the Old and the Old Testament is unveiled in the New.”
Catechism of the Catholic Church 129

On Sundays, outside of Easter, the First Reading is taken from the Old Testament and is used specifically because it has a connection to the Gospel. This is important for two reasons.

First, because it shows the consistency of God’s plan of salvation throughout the millennia. God isn’t going to change His mind tomorrow and unveil a new savior or a new Bible. Rather, throughout all time He has been preparing us for Jesus, and with Christ’s arrival, we have encountered the fullness of divine revelation.

Second, the Old Testament gives us a context from which we can understand what Jesus is saying to us. Oftentimes, Christ said things that were difficult to interpret, and at times even the Apostles didn’t understand what Jesus was saying, But by looking back into the Old Testament, we have a tool to help guide us into a knowledge of Christ’s words and deeds.
