WEEKLY READINGS

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME OCTOBER 29, 2023

ENCOURAGING DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE BY FATHER JOHN MUIR

In our secularized culture, we all struggle with belief in God, at least to some degree. An atheist man named Robert Bridges once wrote to his friend, the Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins, asking how he could possibly learn to believe in God. Hopkins pithily responded:

"Give alms." Would that help someone tempted by atheism today, like you and me?

I think so, and here's why. This week Jesus speaks of love for God and neighbor. These dual commands were nothing new when Jesus used them to sum up the Jewish law. What is new is the way he links them together in mutual dependency. In Jesus, God and man have become one. Human love and God-love are now inseparably married forever.

The newness of the God-man means that there is now a permanently counter-intuitive way into the knowledge and love of God: love of our neighbor. To experience charity is to know God. That's what Hopkins was getting at for his friend. How we treat our fellow human beings is inseparable from faith in God. Do you want to have a stronger sense of God's loving presence and goodness? Commit to serving someone today and this week. Love him or her. Don't wait for love for God to appear in your heart before loving others. Jesus has united divine and human love. If you want to believe more in God, give alms.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: "You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans." (Ex 22:21-23)

Psalms: I love you, Lord, my strength. (Ps 18)

Second Reading: For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven. (1 Thes 1:9-10)

Gospel: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." (Mt 22:37)

ABOUT THE MASS - WEEK SIXTEEN

Liturgy of the Word - Second Reading

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you."

John 14:26

The Second Reading is always taken from the New Testament, and is read in what is known as a "semi-continuous" manner. This is to say, over the course of a few Sundays, the Church will read through a single book of the New Testament, and when we get to the end of that book, we switch to another book of the New Testament. Because of this, the Second Reading usually does not have the same theme as the other readings at that particular Mass. Instead, it will focus on some of the important theological points. The Second Reading is, in a sense, a theological lesson on what living a life of faith entails.

What is your favorite New Testament passage? In what ways do you see yourself resembling St. Paul?

A Study of the Mass

A Series of Five One-Hour Reflections on the Mass

"A Study of the Mass" is St. Rose of Lima's response to our bishop's request for a "series of reflections on the meaning of the Mass... [to] enter more deeply and intentionally into the experience of God that we celebrate."

Bishop Mueggenborg writes, "It's easy to presume that we know what it means to be Catholic and Christian. That presumption can lead us down the wrong path to a misunderstanding of the Mass - which can cause us to be frustrated, disengaged, bored, and miss out on the life-transforming experience God offers us."
[Bishop Daniel Mueggenborg, Meaning of Mass; Study Guide, page 3]

A Study of the Mass will be offered at different date/time periods throughout 2023

The Next Series Is:

November 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I write to you today to ask that you consider a generous gift to the upcoming second collection in support of The Catholic University of America located in the heart of our nation's capital. Founded by a pontifical charter in 1887 as the research university of the Church in the United States, the university has long served the church and nation.

Under the guidance of President Peter K. Kilpatrick, Ph.D., through its 12 schools, 32 research facilities, and more than 250 academic programs, the University community works tirelessly on behalf of its more than 5,000 undergraduate and graduate students to help educate them to serve the Church and nation as the Catholic leaders of tomorrow.

Your gift to the second collection, the only national collection taken for higher education in our country, will not only go to support students in this critical time but also helps the University better serve dioceses and parishes through innovative research initiatives and training programs, such as The Catholic Project - an initiative that brings together clergy and laity to address the challenges that the Catholic Church faces in the U.S. contributing education, formation, research, events, and media, a Master's program in Ecclesial Administration and Management, and a credentialing program that prepares recent graduates to serve as campus ministers.

Our contributions are critical to both a successful academic year and to all the important work the University does on behalf of the church and its Faithful in our country. I urge you to please contribute to the mission of the Catholic University directly at your parish. If you are able to do so, please be generous in supporting this important collection. This collection will be taken November 4-5, 2023.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,

Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Daniel H. Mueggenborg
