ENCOURAGING DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE BY FATHER JOHN MUIR

Last Easter season a new convert to Catholicism at my parish asked me with a grave tone in her voice: "Why do we call priests 'father' if Jesus says, 'Call no man on earth your father, for you have one Father, who is in heaven'?"

Thinking myself clever, I asked, "Do you think it's okay to call someone your 'teacher' or 'mister' or 'dad'?" She said, "Yes, I do." I responded, "Well, Jesus seems to forbid that, too. So, it's obviously hyperbole that he's using." She thought for a moment and declared, "Then I will stop using those words, too!" And she walked away. Not the outcome I was seeking.

We shouldn't be too hasty in dismissing this complaint voiced by many non-Catholics. The expression "father" for ordained priests is not honorary for the individual man. The priest's fatherhood doesn't begin or end in him at all. Rather, the title "father" indicates that he is a sacramental sign of God's Fatherhood revealed in Jesus. I can tell you, as a very unworthy bearer of that title, we should give and receive that title with some trepidation (because of God's awesomeness) and with a little sense of humor (because of the lowliness of the men with the title).

The longer I'm a priest, the more I'm comfortable with people not using the title "father" and just calling me "John." After all, only God is Father in the truest sense. At the same time, Jesus has brought the Father close to us, very close. We honor this closeness in some men with the title "father." Who are the priests in your life whom Christ has sent to you? How wonderful that Christ has surrounded us with humble signs of his Father's love. It's good to celebrate that love with gratitude for the priests in our lives.

ABOUT THE MASS

Liturgy of the Word - Alleluia

"We are an Easter People and Alleluia is our song!"
-St. John Paul II

The "Alleluia" is one of the three parts of the Mass that we leave in the original Hebrew (the others being "Amen" and "Hosanna"), and as such it is easy to overlook. Alleluia is a command which roughly translates "all of you, praise God!" As such, in the Mass, the Alleluia is a moment in which the Church exults with the chorus of God's people throughout the ages in ecstatic praise. It praises God for all that He has done throughout the history of the world. It praises God for what he is doing now in the Mass. It praises God for all that He will do in our lives. But most importantly, it praises God for Jesus Himself as we turn to the Gospel to hear again the words and deeds of Christ.

Rev. Joseph Abraham, J.V., J.C.L.
St. Rose of Lima Parish
100 Bishop Manogue Drive
Reno, NV 89511

Dear Father Abraham,

I want to send you a personal and immediate thank you letter for the incredibly generous support of our seminarians provided under your leadership by St. Rose of Lima Parish! Your gift of $40,000 is a huge help for the Church in northern Nevada. Thank you, thank you, thank you.

I am happy to announce that we just received a new application this past from a young man currently completing his service in the military and who is from St. Peter Canisius Parish in Sun Valley. He is a solid candidate. I am also hopeful we will have one other applicant this year which will increase our total number of seminarians to six (as Dcn. Rene Rodriguez is ordained a priest next summer). We certainly need more than this number to replenish our number of priests, but this is a solid start.

Please extend my gratitude to your parish Finance Council and the whole parish community for their consideration of seminarian needs and their generosity in recommending this gift for your consideration. Ultimately, thank you for making this donation possible through your leadership as Pastor.

May God bless you and St. Rose Parish with abundant graces.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayer, I remain,

Yours in Christ,

+
Most Rev. Daniel H. Mueggenborg
