ENCOURAGING DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE BY FATHER JOHN MUIR

Lately I've been enjoying the deep meaning of Eastern icons. I love how they express a tapestry of meaning in a way that can surpass the written or spoken word. Today's parable of the ten virgins from Jesus is a good example. Try googling "wise and foolish virgins icon" and you'll see an image of how our Christ meets our heart's deepest needs if we attend to him with the proper attitude.

I'm serious. Take a moment to google and look at it. See how it depicts the risen Jesus behind a closed door with the five wise virgins with lighted lamps. He gazes with them toward the five foolish and lamp-less virgins, symbolizing the outward looking of divine love for the lost. Moreover, the wedding feast is no ordinary one. It takes place in a walled city and garden, indicating it's a new Jerusalem and a return to Eden. The table isn't typical, either. It's a Eucharistic feast. Now we see that the door in Jesus' parable is the way into the church, where Christ is the new light burning amidst the dark midnight of this world.

The richness continues. We notice, too, that the foolish virgins look exactly the same as the wise ones in their clothes, hair, and expressions. The only difference is they departed to buy oil and now they are sadly excluded. We often act like consumers in the marketplace to fulfill our need for love and mercy. We'll always end up disappointed if we shop around. Jesus sums up the moral of the story this way: "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Watch, remain, don't spiritually shop. It is always better to quietly remain close to the Eucharistic community of the Church, even if we feel like our oil has run out. This week let's consider placing the icon of the wise and foolish virgins on our phone lock screen or computer desktop to help us remember to stay close to him, especially when life feels dark.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: Resplendent and unfading is wisdom, and she is readily perceived by those who love her, and found by those who seek her. (Wis 6:12)

Psalms: My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God. (Ps 63)

Second Reading: For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep. (1 Thes 4:14)

Gospel: "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." (Mt 25:13)

MISSION STATEMENT

Saint Rose of Lima Church is a Catholic family of believers guided by the Holy Spirit in the saving work of Jesus Christ. We are pilgrim people of God, companions on the journey to eternal salvation. Called by God, we are priestly people dedicated to proclaiming the Good News and ministering God's love to each other, and to a spiritually hungry world. As a community of Christian believers, we are committed to bringing about the reign of God. We believe in the importance of a personal relationship with Jesus Christ through the Word, the breaking of the bread, prayer, and fellowship. We dedicate our lives to His service.

PRAYERS & MILESTONES

Thank you!!

We are pleased to report that we collected enough coats, hats, and gloves to fill 18 full-sized shopping carts to overflow. Every one of those donations will make someone's life a little easier as the weather turns colder. We will continue to collect and distribute any more that arrive at the church. We are blessed to have so many generous parishioners!

MILITARY PRAYERS

Please pray for our brave military men and women who are currently serving.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

Gracious God, You gave us Your Son, Jesus, to be our Shepherd. May we listen attentively to His voice, as He guides us on our journey toward a life of service. Bless our parish and our families with men and women who will generously respond to Your call of service as priests or deacons, sisters or brothers. Help us to recognize the signs of Your Spirit and encourage our young people whatever their vocation may be. We ask this in the name of Jesus and the power of the Spirit. Amen

If you would like to take the Vocations Prayer Cross home for a week, please sign up in the Parish Office.

Let us come before our God with our prayers and petitions, for God will surely hear and answer us.

LET US PRAY TO THE LORD.

For Pope Francis, we pray for the Holy Father; as he fulfills his mission, may he continue to accompany the flock entrusted to him, with the help of the Holy Spirit.

LET US PRAY TO THE LORD.

That the lives of unborn children may be spared and that we be inspired to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life.

LET US PRAY TO THE LORD.

For all those who are sick and for all who have died.

LET US PRAY TO THE LORD.

Please pray for our current seminarians.

ABOUT THE MASS

Liturgy of the Word - The Gospel

“The angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. ” - Luke 2:10

The Gospel has always held a place of honor and prominence in the life of the Church because it conveys to us the words and deeds of Christ. As such, we stand to show our respect for the words of Jesus proclaimed to us who are gathered in His name.

But it extends beyond this. Jesus is the definitive revelation of God and God’s plan for humanity. And this is because Jesus is both fully God and fully human, possessing two natures united in one person. As God, He is the revelation of God, and as human, He reveals humanity to itself (c.f. Gaudium et Spes 22). And so we listen to the Gospel with particular attention as we discover again who God is and who we are.

Who is Jesus in your life? When did you fall in love with Jesus?

November 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

By assisting low-income people in making decisions that influence their lives, families, and communities, CCHD aims to end the cycle of poverty. CCHD provides a hand up rather than a handout.

The additional goal of CCHD is to inform people about poverty and its causes. The mission of the Scriptures and the tenets of Catholic social teaching are reflected in this technique of educating for justice and assisting those who are poor in speaking and acting for themselves.

The Catholic Community for Human Development (CCHD) offers Catholic believers practical opportunity to demonstrate their love for God and neighbor in ways that reflect our baptismal mission and ongoing Eucharistic change. Catholics in the United States generously fund CCHD, particularly through an annual parish collection.

CCHD is a crucial component of the social mission of the Church in the United States and a distinctive facet of the Catholic community's extensive commitment to helping low-income individuals, families, and communities. This collection will be taken November 18-19, 2023.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,

Yours in Christ,

+ Daniel H. Muegggenborg
