OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE
NOVEMBER 26, 2023

ENCOURAGING DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE BY FATHER JOHN MUIR

In May 2023, for the first time in almost three quarters of a century, a monarch was crowned in England. A few days later a friend of mine scoffed, "What a waste of time and energy! What is the point of a king?"

I'm a proud American who wants neither theocracy nor monarchical restoration. I like our democratic republic. But the coronation of King Charles reminded me of something needed in every person and community: confidence in the future. The king's most basic role is to symbolize the unity of the nation. In England, the parliament members handle many of the practical duties of governance. But the king or queen can do what they cannot: embody in a single person the reality and future of a whole nation. To say, "this is our king" is to say, "we exist as a community, and we have a future." Kingship isn't primarily about the power of one person or family. It's about the enduring identity and unity of the whole. To say Christ is our King is to say we exist as a people. We are one in him. We are, and we will be as long as he is. And since he will be our risen king forever, together we have a future filled with hope. Even the best countries will finally fall. But Christ and his Church will endure forever. What good news! It's not a waste of time to crown a king. We do it all the time. Let's be sure to crown the right one — the one whose kingdom never ends.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats. (Ez 34:17)

Psalms: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)

Gospel: "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him.

ABOUT THE MASS

Liturgy of the Word - The Creed

"Receive the Gospel of Christ whose herald you have become. Believe what you read, teach what you believe, and practice what you teach."

- Excerpt from the Rite of Ordination for a Deacon

The Catholic faith is a Creedal religion. What that means is the Church as declared that there are certain things we must believe to be Catholic. The first and the most important Creed the church has is the Nicene-Constantinopolitan Creed. It was written in the year 325, and has been the Creed which the church has proclaimed throughout the ages - it is the thing that summarizes the Catholic Faith. Because of this, every Sunday we profess this faith in the context of the Mass, claiming once again that this is our faith and we are proud to profess it, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Do you know the Creed off the top of your head?
Is there a part of the Creed that speaks most to you personally?
