WEEKLY READINGS

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT
DECEMBER 3, 2023

ENCOURAGING DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE BY FATHER JOHN MUIR

Lately I've been listening to a science-based podcast on healthy daily living. The host frequently discusses the wide range of health benefits of sleep. So, each night I'm trying to get more, and better, slumber, and it's helping me feel energized. So, why in the world should we follow Christ's advice this week? "Watch therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house will come ... lest he find you asleep." Isn't sleep, especially at midnight and cockcrow, a good thing?

Of course, it is. But the wakefulness the Lord calls us to is a deep, personal orientation to Him. A nightly vigil is therefore a metaphor for this, but it's not just that. We should give up real sleep in order to pray, too. This difficult practice is a time-tested way to foster wakefulness of heart. When we give up sleep to pray, it focuses us. We learn that life is not an endless series of days. You and I belong to the Lord — awake or asleep, in life and in death. Sooner or later, even our need for our physical sleep will pass away. And our attentiveness to God — that is, whether we are awaiting Him to meet us — will be all that matters.

May I challenge us this week and this Advent to intentionally give up at least one hour of sleep each week for prayer? Stay up later, wake up in the middle of the night, or an hour earlier, and pray. Will we be a bit more tired the next day? Yes. But we'll be amazed at the spiritual wakefulness that results, too.

ONE CHURCH ANNUAL SPECIAL CHRISTMAS COLLECTION

"Funding the Greatest Ministry Need in Northern Nevada"

ST. PETER CANISIUS CHURCH EXPANSION

We are one Catholic family in the Diocese of Reno. Together we care for the needs of all as though they were our own. By working together and supporting each other, we bear witness to the selfless love which marked the early Church in their care for communities in need.

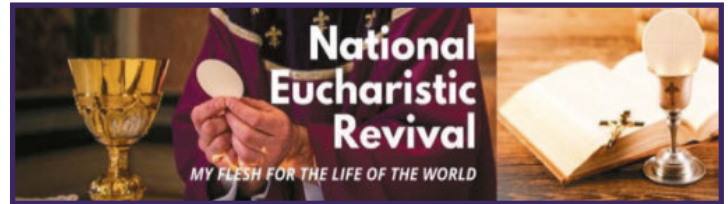

The Diocese of Reno will be conducting an Annual Christmas Collection called "One Church" every December 24th and 25th to help a parish in our diocese that has great needs and limited resources.

St. Peter Canisius Parish in Sun Valley will be the beneficiary of the 2023 Annual Special Christmas Collection. Here's why this Catholic community deserves our support:

- St. Peter's has the largest congregation in the Diocese of Reno with a 98% Hispanic population
- The current seating capacity of St. Peter's Church is 227 people
- More than 600 parishioners attend each Mass
- Many Parishioners must now worship in the dirt parking lot outside the church
- St. Peter's is a young parish and has 875 students between the ages 7 to 17 enrolled in Religious Education and Sacramental Preparation classes
- The church's existing building only has two small classrooms and two bathrooms
- A capital campaign is underway to increase the seating capacity of the church to 800
- The newly expanded facility is now being constructed and will be rededicated in the Fall of 2024.

Please pray for this project and consider donating to the "One Church" collection at Christmas Masses this year.

To learn more about the story of this thriving faith community and their outstanding need for your support, please scan the QR code or visit us at www.highdesertcatholic.org/2023-second-annual-collection.

ABOUT THE MASS

Liturgy of the Word - The Creed

"But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one that we preached to you, let that one be accursed."

Galatians 1:8

Through the ages, the Creed has been known as the "symbolon fidei", or the "symbol of faith." The reason it was called this was because in war a "symbolon" was a small token which a general would give to a messenger so that the recipient of the message would know that it was truly from the general. In the same way, the Creed acts as a "symbolon" that would show that a person was truly a Christian; it 'authenticated' a person's Christian faith. In a way, our identity as a Christian is tied to the Creed itself. And so, every Sunday, we as a Church reaffirm what we believe, joining the ages long profession of the Catholic faith.

Is there any part of the faith you struggle with?
