SAINTS PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES SUNDAY, JUNE 29, 2025

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE BY FR. JOHN MUIR

What do you call brothers who are born on the same day? Twins, of course. That is what we celebrate today in the inestimable saints, Peter and Paul. Wait: twins? Yes. The early Church believed that Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome on the same day. Since the day of martyrdom is celebrated as a saints' birth into eternal life, the result is striking: Peter and Paul are twins in God's family, the Church.

Who should care about this? Well, anyone who longs to live in a world marked by love and peace. Remember, the Romans believed that twins, Romulus and Remus, founded their city through an act of fratricide, the former murdering the latter. Sadly, the structures of this fallen world emerge through violence between those who should love each other. But in the Church, a new city has been founded upon this new set of twins, embodying the non-violent power of Jesus' cross and resurrection.

That's why traditional icons represent Peter and Paul in a fraternal and warm embrace. Contrasted with the violence of Rome's founders, it challenges us with a bold claim: do we believe that structures of merciful love are more powerful and lasting than those based on power, violence, and domination? Am I willing to see others in my life as my "twin," with whom I am called to give my life for Christ, or as my rival? Am I committed to living what is embodied in Romulus and Remus, or in Peter and Paul?

PETER’S PENCE - SECOND COLLECTION
JUNE 28 & 29, 2025

“The Peter’s Pence collection is a gesture of solidarity through which every member of the faithful can participate in the activity of the Pope as Pastor of the universal Church.

The faithful’s offerings to the Holy Father through the Peter’s Pence Collection are destined to Church needs, to humanitarian initiatives and social promotion projects, as well as to the support of the Holy See.” (USCCB)

ISSUES OF JUSTICE & PEACE

Today we celebrate Saint Peter and Saint Paul, two who strove tirelessly to spread the Good News of “the Christ, the Son of the living God.” Are we not also called to work as steadfastly toward bringing about the kingdom? Pope Francis suggests that, in general, the human response to the great peril our planet is in has been weak. “Never have we so hurt and mistreated our common home as we have in the last two hundred years. Yet we are called to be instruments of God our Father, so that our planet might be what he desired when he created it and correspond with his plan for peace, beauty and fullness” (#53). “It is remarkable how weak international political responses have been. ... There are too many special interests, and economic interests easily end up trumping the common good and manipulating information so that their own plans will not be affected” (#54). “Economic powers continue to justify the current global system where priority tends to be given to speculation and the pursuit of financial gain, which fail to take the context into account, let alone the effects on human dignity and the natural environment. Here we see how environmental deterioration and human and ethical degradation are closely linked. Many people will deny doing anything wrong because distractions constantly dull our consciousness of just how limited and finite our world really is. As a result, ‘whatever is fragile, like the environment, is defenseless before the interests of a deified market, which become the only rule’” (#56).

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (1st - 5th Grades)

FAMILIES INTERESTED IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION ARE ENCOURAGED TO TAKE THIS SHORT SURVEY.

PARENT FEEDBACK WILL HELP WITH STUDENT ENROLLMENT.

HOLY COMMUNION

- Children typically begin sacramental preparation for First Holy Communion around the age of seven. This preparation, including Reconciliation, spans a two-year period. Students meet weekly with a trained Catechist during the school year and participate in Family Formation.

CONFIRMATION

- Just like the Holy Spirit empowered the disciples at Pentecost, Confirmation brings a special outpouring of the Holy Spirit to strengthen Catholics on their journey of faith. Students typically begin preparation for Confirmation in sixth grade and spans a two-year period. Students in year one meet weekly with a trained Catechist during the school year. Students in year two meet monthly. All groups participate in Family Formation.

OCIA/OCIC

Order of Christian Initiation for Adults/Children

- The Church recognizes that the way to becoming a Christian is not one size fits all. The OCIA offers a basic description of how an unbaptized adult comes to faith and is initiated by the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. It then describes what to do in particular circumstances, including the initiation of children who have reached catechetical age (seven years or older). There is only one rite for everyone who has reached catechetical age; which is then adapted to meet the needs and circumstances for children and families.
