TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME AUGUST 17, 2025

MEDITATION OF THE DAY FROM MAGNIFICAT - "The Fire Christ Desires to See"

Until God has absorbed my whole life and I am completely transformed in him, everything that I do is insignificant. My works will always be imperfect. In spite of this, he is content, he urges me, not letting me rest, repeating at every instant:

"Follow the name that I have given you; be an apostle of my love..."

He seems to support me and assure the good results of everything that I do, so that nothing will be ineffective but everything will contribute to the increase of his love in souls. But I ask ever more, namely, that whatever I do should always continue to do good, to produce love, until the end of the world. And I seem to hear the words: "Love is a fire that spreads; it burns whatever it encounters, and nothing can put it out..." Love is the divine power, the eternity of God beginning in us.... It is a participation in his divine being. God and the one that loves him become one thing....

Who will help me to make all souls understand the power and excellence of love and how rich is the soul simply by being able to love? If all would appreciate this treasure, there would not be poverty or pain on this earth, because love would change everything into heaven. As a proof of how love is our all and does all, notice this detail. Holy Mass was just beginning and I said to myself: "I want to hear it well, because by one Mass well attended, I am certain that my faults will be pardoned." With this intention I united myself to Jesus through Mary and I practiced other acts to this effect, remaining recollected until the Gospel. But then, until Communion I was distracted without realizing that I was at Mass. On realizing it, I was confounded and exclaimed, "My Jesus, my fervor of wanting to hear Mass well has stopped here." And I perceived in my interior the voice of the Lord saying to me: "You can desire something to be well done, but you cannot effect it. I have to do it in you and you must recognize your nothingness and impotency. This is what has happened here. You had the good will, but I have fulfilled it for you." And with this I was consoled.

PARISH SURVEY RESULTS

PARISH SURVEY UPDATE

The Parish Council is pleased to announce that the results from the 2025 Parish Survey have been analyzed and are being prepared for a detailed presentation at Town Hall Meetings that will be taking place in September. The dates and times of the Town Hall Meetings will be announced very shortly. The survey has identified a number of areas that require further discussion. These topics are being assigned to Committees for discussion and identification of possible solutions. Members of these teams are also being identified based on those who volunteered for these committees when submitting their survey responses.

If you have questions about this process, please plan to attend one of the Town Hall Meetings in September. Thank you again for the excellent feedback provided in our Parish Survey.

Thank you,
Jody Gunderman
Parish Council President

AROUND THE DIOCESE

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

Worldwide Marriage Encounter is offering a great experience for couples and religious. The experience is presented by three couples and a priest. This is a time to Restore, Rekindle and Renew your relationship with your spouse. As we say “not everyone needs a weekend, they DESERVE a weekend”. To register, go to sacramentowwme.org or wwme.org if you would like more information. If you have any questions, please contact Janet and Terry Doane at 916-489-3464 or Jim and Mary Carr at 775-742-1123.

ISSUES OF JUSTICE & PEACE

Again this week, our readings address the topic of Faith and Faithfulness. We see the hardships endured by Jeremiah for speaking the truth. The letter to the Hebrews encourages us to “keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith.” And in the Gospel, Jesus foretells of difficulties the faithful might encounter.

“The salvation offered by God to his children requires their free response and acceptance. It is in this that faith consists, and it is through this that ‘man freely commits his entire self to God,’ responding to God’s prior and superabundant love with concrete love for his brothers and sisters, and with steadfast hope because ‘he who promised is faithful.’ In fact, the divine plan of salvation does not consign human creatures to a state of mere passivity or of lesser status in relation to their Creator, because their relationship to God, whom Jesus Christ reveals to us and in whom he freely makes us sharers by the working of the Holy Spirit, is that of a child to its parent: the very relationship that Jesus lives with the Father,” (The Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church by the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace, #39).
