MAGNIFICAT'S MEDITATION OF THE DAY

"DIVINE MANNERS"

In the parable about choosing places at table, Jesus taught at the deepest possible level. [It is] a parable of the history of the world, in which a ruthless struggle for power has always taken place with little thought for the fate of others. God, who entered human history in Jesus Christ himself, does not participate in this struggle. All his life, from Bethlehem and Nazareth to Golgotha, Jesus took the lowest place. What he says in this parable is verified in the whole of his life and suffering. He was always on the side of the lowest and the last; and through him those who are the lowest and the last become the highest and the first. Indeed, he became so completely identified in his life and teaching with the lowest place that he has made himself present with us, not only in the Eucharist, but also in the least of men: I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me.... As you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.

These words of the Lord take us further and further into the heart of Christian life. The story begins with ordinary manners, which form the point of departure. The next step is that we have to learn not to reduce manners to an empty and dishonest structure [and then to find] unity with the lowest and the last who is really the highest and the first, the Redeemer.

The one who invites us to his table to share in the Eucharist wants to lead us to a more and more completely Eucharistic life. In this way, we shall find him more and more easily on the way of everyday life and thus be also on the way toward his eternal wedding feast, where those who are lowest and last will be forever the highest and the first.

ISSUES OF JUSTICE & PEACE

More than once in the gospels Jesus reminds us that the last shall be first and the first shall be last. In today's Gospel, he says it this way, "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled." Is he not just warning us, but also stating that all are important?

"At the beginning of the New Millennium, the poverty of billions of men and women is "the one issue that most challenges our human and Christian consciences." Poverty poses a dramatic problem of justice; in its various forms and with its various effects, it is characterized by an unequal growth that does not recognize the 'equal right of all people to take their seat 'at the table of the common banquet.' Such poverty makes it impossible to bring about that full humanism which the Church hopes for and pursues so that persons and peoples may 'be more' and live in conditions that are more human. The fight against poverty finds a strong motivation in the option or preferential love of the Church for the poor. In the whole of her social teaching the Church never tires of emphasizing certain fundamental principles of this teaching, first and foremost, the universal destination of goods. Constantly reaffirming the principle of solidarity, the Church's social doctrine demands action to promote 'the good of all and of each individual, because we are all really responsible for all.' The principle of solidarity, even in the fight against poverty, must always be appropriately accompanied by that of subsidiarity, thanks to which it is possible to foster the spirit of initiative, the fundamental basis of all social and economic development in poor countries. The poor should be seen 'not as a problem, but as people who can become the principal builders of a new and more human future for everyone'" (The Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church by the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace, #449).

WEEKLY PRAYER MEETING

At St. Rose of Lima, the mission of our weekly prayer group is to provide prayerful opportunities for each of us to develop a loving, personal relationship with Jesus Christ by inspiring devotion to the Blessed Mother, the Saints, participation in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and reception of the Sacraments.

We believe that to fully understand and incorporate these special gifts into our lives, “education is fundamental!” We accomplish this through the use of programs such as:

- The Message of Divine Mercy (Fr. Michael Gaitley)
- 33 Days to Morning Glory (Fr. Michael Gaitley)
- Jesus Revealed (Fr. Michael Gaitley)
- NEW THIS YEAR: A Biblical Walk Through the Mass

All are invited to join us Tuesday mornings 10:00-11:30am
Beginning Tuesday, September 9, 2025
Moderators: Gail Raimondi & Shelly Quinn
Contact the parish office for further info or prayer requests.

BULLETIN SUBMISSIONS

All bulletin advertisement requests are due at least TWO WEEKS prior to your scheduled event/desired insert weekend to allow time for review and printing.

✦ YOUTH MINISTRY (7th-12th Grade)

Steubenville of the Rockies in Denver on July 25-27 – teen quotes:

Saturday night adoration definitely has to be my favorite Steubenville memory. It was so powerful, raw and transformative. That may just have been the greatest night of my life!

Adoration on the second night changed my life. Seeing the Holy Spirit transform the whole room and watching everyone shout and cry in praise was one of the most beautiful things in my life. Everyone was emotional and I could feel the Lord entering my heart that night.

I really enjoyed Adoration Saturday night. I felt really in the moment and that Jesus was truly present. Usually when I go to Adoration, it doesn't seem as powerful, and I'm always wondering how much longer it will be. After this experience, I want it to keep going.
