FEAST OF THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS SEPTEMBER 14, 2025

MAGNIFICAT'S MEDITATION OF THE DAY "WHY WE EXALT THE HOLY CROSS"

To our limited human reason, Jesus on the cross may appear vanquished. On the contrary he is the all-powerful conqueror over sin and Satan. He is the Lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world, as his resurrection was to demonstrate in a visible and striking manner: victory over death, which is the consequence of sin, is the sign of victory over sin. This admirable contrast of power in immolation is to be found in all souls in whom the image of the Crucified is profoundly imprinted: in Mary, Mother of Sorrows, in the persecuted apostles, who were considered the refuse of this world (1 Cor 4:13). This should teach us the marvelous fruitfulness of suffering when supernaturally endured in union with the Savior...

It is clear that our Savior's passion was a true sacrifice, the greatest of all sacrifices.... On the cross, Jesus was at once priest and victim, for he was offering himself up voluntarily. From the time he prayed at Gethsemane until he expired, all his words and acts were expressions of this voluntary oblation which is, as it were, the soul of this sacrifice of adoration, supplication, reparation, and thanksgiving.... Each day as we assist at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass let us learn to live by the sacrifice of the cross which is perpetuated in substance on the altar. Let us especially ask for an understanding of the cross and for a love of those crosses which Providence has reserved for us from all eternity until we enter heaven. Let us remember this law of Christian life: Unless the grain of wheat falling into the ground die, itself remaineth alone. But if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit (Jn 12:24).

Let us often repeat the seven last words of Christ, which are, so to speak, his testament, and let us ask Mary to enable us to understand them: "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.—This day thou shalt be with Me in paradise.—Woman, behold thy son. Behold thy mother.—My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me?—I thirst.—It is consummated.—Father, into Thy hands I commend My spirit."

PARISH SURVEY RESULTS

ATTENTION: 2025 VOICES OF TOMORROW!

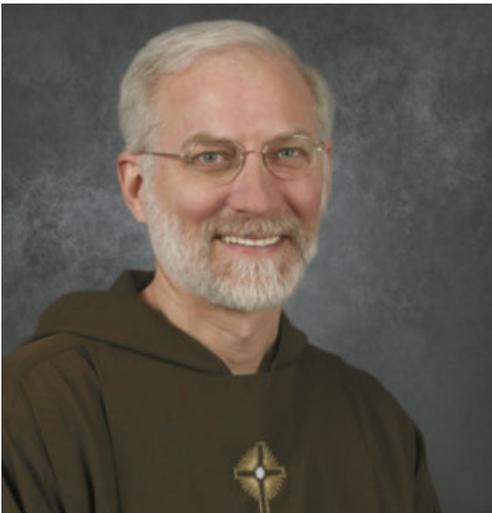

The Town Hall meetings took place on September 4th & 6th.

Details of the Parish Survey were provided and volunteers for the 8 committees exploring the best responses to the areas of opportunity were also received.

PARISH MISSION

October 3-5 we will welcome Fr. Joseph Mary Wolfe, MVFA and Mother Mary Agnes, SACJ to St. Rose of Lima for a parish mission. It will kick off Friday evening with contemplative music and prayer and they will also join us for our weekend Masses. Keep an eye out for some more details in the upcoming bulletins and learn a little bit about them below!

← FR. JOSEPH MARY WOLFE, MVFA
Fr. Joseph Mary Wolfe is the Chaplain of the Eternal Word Television Network (EWTN) where he initially came to work in 1985 as an engineer. Two years later he became a founding member of the men's community founded by Mother Angelica in 1987: the Franciscan Missionaries of the Eternal Word. The motto of the friars is: The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back – something they strive to do by utilizing the media. Fr. Joseph obtained a Masters in Theology from St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia. On September 8, 2023, Pope Francis appointed him a member of the Pontifical Marian Academy. He often celebrates the televised Mass and has produced a number of series featured on EWTN, including on-location series in Fatima, Guadalupe, Lourdes, and the Holy Land.

MOTHER MARY AGNES, SACJ

→ Mother Mary Agnes is the foundress of the Seraphic Adorers of the Child Jesus, a contemplative community of Sisters in the Diocese of La Crosse, Wisconsin. She is originally from South Louisiana, and is the second of eleven children. She joined a community of Poor Clares in 1986, working very closely with, and learning from, Mother Angelica. In 2018, with the encouragement and support of her spiritual director and the support of Bishop William Callahan, she began a new community of Sisters dedicated to Eucharistic adoration and promoting devotion to the Divine Child Jesus and His Little Way of love and confidence.

YOUTH MINISTRY (7th-12th Grade)

Steubenville of the Rockies in Denver on July 25-27 – teen quotes:

Post confession and talking with the priests at the marketplace.

I enjoyed being with everyone and not having anything to stress about the whole trip. It felt very tranquil and reflective.

The homily Saturday and Sunday by Father Fernando.

My favorite memory was the song on the last night when the room was shaking.

Thank you all for your generous donations and prayers which made this amazing conference possible. This year we took 40 people – our largest group ever. Lives were changed and faith was strengthened. Our youth celebrated their faith with 3,000 other teens and chaperones who shared their faith and enthusiasm. We could not do this without your support.

MISSION STATEMENT

Saint Rose of Lima Church is a Catholic family of believers guided by the Holy Spirit in the saving work of Jesus Christ. We are pilgrim people of God, companions on the journey to eternal salvation.
