COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS' DAY) NOVEMBER 2, 2025

What St. Faustina Teaches Us About Praying for Souls

A new month – November – has begun. A month in which we especially remember the dead and contemplate the mystery of the the Communion of Saints. Praying for the dead is one of the simpler works of mercy (also listed in the 7 spiritual works of mercy).

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that there are three states of the Church: those who are pilgrims on Earth – that is us, living: The dead, who are in purgatory until their purification; and those who are already in heaven (cf. CCC 954, 962). All of us together form one Church.

St. Faustina wrote “How great the love everyone should have for the Church. As a good child that loves its mother prays for her, so every Christian soul should pray for the Church, which is its Mother” (Diary, 551).

In our Christian liturgy on the first day of November, we remember especially about the Church that is already in heaven (that is, all the saints, including those who have been canonized); while on the second day of November, we pray for the souls of the faithful departed, including the souls in purgatory.

Prayer for the dead is very important, as these souls cannot help themselves, although they can support us (living ones) with their prayers. St. Faustina, in her Diary, described her encounter with a soul in Purgatory: “One night one of our sisters who had died two months before came to me... I saw her in a terrible condition: all in flames, her face contorted with pain. It lasted a moment, and then she disappeared... But I did not stop in my prayers. After a time she again came to me during the night, but she was in quite a different state, no longer in flames, and her face was bright, her eyes sparkling with joy. She told me I really had love for my neighbor, that many souls had benefitted from my prayers, and she encouraged me to continue praying for the souls in Purgatory..” (Diary, 58). And let us, in our hearts hear this request of souls for prayer and support them.

❖ PARISH SURVEY RESULTS

ATTENTION: 2025 VOICES OF TOMORROW!

It was announced at Masses a few weeks ago that our St. Rose of Lima Capital Campaign Committee has been formed to ensure we have adequate funding to implement the approved suggestions from our “Voices Shaping the Future Survey”. Father Dariusz provided a letter that has been sent to each Parishioner and was included in last week’s bulletins. This letter highlights the hope that each family and every individual in our Parish will elect to donate to our Capital Campaign. No donation is too small and every donation helps us meet the needs of our rapidly growing Parish.

PARISH NEWS & EVENTS ❖

FIRST FRIDAY

Friday, October 27 is our First Friday Mass at 8:30am. Anointing of the Sick will be offered immediately after Mass, followed by Adoration and Confession until 10am.

KNIGHTS FLAG EXCHANGE

The Knights of Columbus will be hosting their third annual flag exchange. Bring your worn and tattered flags, and the Knights will exchange it for a new 3’x5’ American flag. This new flag will be provided to you at no cost (donations will be accepted).

All donations above cost will be used to help local veterans.

If you don’t have an old flag to exchange, we will gladly give you a new one. This is our way of showing respect and honor for our nation.

The event will be held in the Narthex at St. Rose on November 8-9 after each weekend Mass.

We appreciate your support!

FIRE EVAC. PRACTICE WITH THE SAFETY MINISTRY

The Safety Ministry will be holding two upcoming fire evacuation practices for our church members. These practices are not mandatory; parishioners are encouraged to attend one of them, but participation is completely voluntary. The first practice is after the 10:30am Sunday Mass on November 9th, and the second practice is after the 5:00pm Saturday Mass on November 22nd. Please plan to spend an extra half hour after one of these Masses for this important event.

FREE CPR CLASS

There will be a free CPR class Saturday, November 29, from 9am to 2pm at St. Rose of Lima and a delicious lunch will be provided. If you would like to attend or have any questions, email Jeff Donahue at: knj16@sbcglobal.net or call his cell number: 714-773-2361.

WANT TO BECOME CATHOLIC?

St. Rose of Lima is excited to offer the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA)/Becoming Catholic for Adults program as a year-round opportunity, allowing anyone feeling called by God to start their journey to the Catholic faith at any time, rather than having to wait for what had been a September start date. You are welcome to submit any questions about these changes to the Director (Ken) at: kdonajkowski@mac.com or you may text/call 775-298-9242.

SITUATIONAL AWARENESS & MINDSET PRESENTATION — HOSTED BY ST. ROSE OF LIMA SAFETY MINISTRY

In light of recent events affecting churches and communities across the country, the St. Rose of Lima Safety Ministry is offering a special presentation focused on Situational Awareness and Mindset. Our goal is to help individuals and families be proactive rather than reactive when it comes to personal and community safety.

We are honored to welcome Wayne Kauffmann, retired FBI Special Agent with over 30 years of experience in law enforcement. Wayne is the founder and CEO of SAFE Security Consulting and brings a wealth of knowledge and practical insight to this important topic.

His presentation will cover:

- How to develop personal awareness in everyday environments
- Strategies for staying safe in a variety of situations
- Tools for managing stress and making informed decisions under pressure.

This training is relevant to everyone — we all encounter moments of uncertainty or stress where these skills can make a meaningful difference.

 Date: Monday, November 10

 Time: 6:00pm

 Location: Caramella Hall, St. Rose of Lima

 Open to all parishioners — please note that class size is limited

We encourage you to attend and take part in this important effort to help keep our parish community safe and prepared.

Please RSVP to Ken Retterath: kcrcet32@startmail.com

AROUND THE DIOCESE

ISSUES OF JUSTICE & PEACE

“It consoles us to know that those who die do not completely pass away, and faith assures us that the risen Lord will never abandon us. Thus we can ‘prevent death from poisoning life, from rendering vain our love, from pushing us into the darkest chasm.’ The Bible tells us that God created us out of love and made us in such a way that our life does not end with death (Wis 3:2-3). Saint Paul speaks to us of an encounter with Christ immediately after death: ‘My desire is to depart and be with Christ’ (Phil 1:23). With Christ, after death, there awaits us ‘what God has prepared for those who love him’ (1 Cor 2:9). The Preface of the Liturgy of the Dead puts it nicely: ‘Although the certainty of death saddens us, we are consoled by the promise of future immortality. For the life of those who believe in you, Lord, is not ended but changed’ Indeed, ‘our loved ones are not lost in the shades of nothingness; hope assures us that they are in the good strong hands of God’” “If we accept death, we can prepare ourselves for it. The way is to grow in our love for those who walk at our side, until that day when ‘death will be no more, mourning and crying and pain will be no more’ (Rev 21:4). We will thus prepare ourselves to meet once more our loved ones who have died. Just as Jesus “gave back to his mother (Lk 7:15) her son who had died, so it will be with us. Let us not waste energy by dwelling on the distant past. The better we live on this earth, the greater the happiness we will be able to share with our loved ones in heaven. The more we are able to mature and develop in this world, the more gifts will we be able to bring to the heavenly banquet,” (Amores Laetitia, The Joy of Love #256 & #258).

ALL SOULS' DAY NOVENA

O most sweet Jesus, through the bloody sweat which Thou didst suffer in the Garden of Gethsemane, have mercy on these Blessed Souls. Have mercy on them.

R. Have mercy on them, O Lord.

O most sweet Jesus, through the pains which Thou didst suffer during Thy most cruel scourging, have mercy on them.

R. Have mercy on them, O Lord.

O most sweet Jesus, through the pains which Thou didst suffer in Thy most painful crowning with thorns, have mercy on them.

R. Have mercy on them, O Lord.

O most sweet Jesus, through the pains which Thou didst suffer in carrying Thy cross to Calvary, have mercy on them.

R. Have mercy on them, O Lord.

O most sweet Jesus, through the pains which Thou didst suffer during Thy most cruel Crucifixion, have mercy on them.

R. Have mercy on them, O Lord.

O most sweet Jesus, through the pains which Thou didst suffer in Thy most bitter agony on the Cross, have mercy on them.

R. Have mercy on them, O Lord.

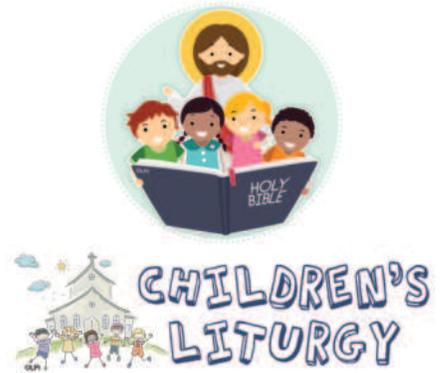

O most sweet Jesus, through the immense pain which Thou didst suffer in breathing forth Thy Blessed Soul, have mercy on them.

R. Have mercy on them, O Lord.

Blessed Souls, we have prayed for thee; we entreat thee, who are so dear to God, and who are secure of never losing Him, to pray for us miserable sinners, who are in danger of being damned, and of losing God forever.

Let us pray:

O God, the author of mercy, the lover of the salvation of mankind; we address thy clemency, in behalf of our brethren, relations, and benefactors, who are departed this life, that by the intercession of blessed Mary, ever virgin, and of all the saints, thou wouldst receive them into the enjoyment of eternal happiness; through Christ our Lord. Amen.
