It may be hard to find the star in the east, but God will always show you how to find him. Bow before the altar of God and give the baby Jesus three presents of your own. For gold, share your goodness with others. For frankincense, send your prayers up to God for yourself, your family, and your friends. For myrrh, follow God's words like a sweet perfume.

PRAYER

Lord, I offer you my words, my actions, and my thoughts.

PEACE & JUSTICE

Issues of Peace & Justice

As we begin the new calendar year, still celebrating the birth of the Prince of Peace, it is good to reflect on the Pope's annual Day of Peace Message. Our own country and the world are in desperate need of peace, and we who have enjoyed a pleasant holiday season should recognize our connection to the greater nonpeaceful world. "The Good Shepherd, who gives his life for the flock and has other sheep not of this fold, is Christ, our peace, who has conquered death and broken down the walls of division that separate humanity, His presence, his gift and his victory continue to shine through the perseverance of many witnesses through whom God's work carries on in the world, becoming even more visible and radiant in the darkness of our times."

"The contrast between darkness and light is not only a biblical image describing the labor pains of a new world being born; it is also an experience that unsettles us and affects us amid the trials we face in our historical circumstances. In order to overcome the darkness, it is necessary to see the light and believe in it. This is a call that Jesus' disciples are invited to live in a unique and privileged way; yet it also finds its way into every human heart. Peace exists; it wants to dwell within us. It has the gentle power to enlighten and expand our understanding; it resists and overcomes violence. Peace is a breath of the eternal: while to evil we cry out 'Enough,' to peace we whisper 'Forever.' Into this horizon the Risen One has led us. Sustained by this conviction, even amid what Pope Francis called 'a third world war fought piecemeal,' peacemakers continue to resist the spread of darkness, standing as sentinels in the night"
(MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE LEO XIV FOR THE LIX WORLD DAY OF PEACE).
