Questions of the Week

1st Reading Question

We hear from Isaiah that the Lord expects us to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and avoid false accusations and hateful speech.

Which of these virtues could you practice this week?

2nd Reading Question

Paul encourages the Corinthians to ground their faith in the power of God and not in human wisdom.

How can you make this a regular habit?

Gospel Question

Jesus challenges his disciples to have a positive influence in the world.

Who do you know that makes the world a better place?

AROUND THE DIOCESE

Campaign has 3 key components: prayer & fasting, peaceful vigil, and non-confrontational community outreach.

This year's campaign begins Ash Wednesday and ends on Palm Sunday.

"God often used the period of 40 days in Sacred Scripture to indicate a time of prayer and penance when we turn closer to God. It is a time of conversion and change of heart." Most Reverend Daniel Mueggenborg

Issues of Peace & Justice

Today's first reading reminds us of ways to live lives of justice. What does it take? This is one of many Old Testament passages that demonstrate the ancient roots of Catholic Social Teaching, a large body of Church teaching that calls us to work for justice and peace in our world.

"In her social doctrine the Church offers above all an integral vision of man and a complete understanding of his personal and social dimensions. Christian anthropology reveals the inviolable dignity of every person and places the realities of work, economics and politics into an original perspective that sheds light on authentic human values while at the same time inspiring and sustaining the task of Christian witness in the varied areas of personal, cultural and social life. ... Through [the] Spirit, who is 'the pledge of our inheritance,' the whole man is renewed from within ... In this sense the Church's social doctrine shows how the moral basis of all social action consists in the human development of the person and identifies the norm for social action corresponding to humanity's true good and as efforts aimed at creating the conditions that will allow every person to satisfy his integral vocation.

This Christian anthropology gives life to and supports the pastoral task of inculturation of the faith, which aims at an interior renewal, through the power of the Gospel, of modern man's criteria of judgment, the values underlying his decisions, the way he thinks and the models after which his life is patterned. 'Through inculturation the Church, for her part, becomes a more intelligible sign of what she is and a more effective instrument of mission.' The contemporary world is marked by a rift between the Gospel and culture, by a secularized vision of salvation that tends to reduce even Christianity to 'merely human wisdom, a pseudo-science of well-being.' ... The Church's social doctrine is situated within this pastoral vision: 'The 'new evangelization', which the modern world urgently needs, ... must include among its essential elements a proclamation of the Church's social doctrine'" (The Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church by the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace, #522 & #523).

Your questions and comments are welcome: rwrksloan@hotmail.com

Have you ever felt like you should spend more time with God, or in prayer, but there just doesn't seem to be a good time to do that?

A retreat might be just what you need.

We'd like to invite you to attend a weekend retreat at Christ the King Passionist Retreat Center in Citrus Heights, CA – about a 2-hour drive from Reno.

The Center's retreat theme this year is "Listen, Jesus is Calling! – A Pilgrimage of Our Hearts".

A retreat weekend is from registration at 4:30pm Friday until Sunday at noon. The weekends for parishes in our area are:

Women on April 24-26 & Men on May 1-3, 2026.

Those do not work? There are other weekends to choose from. The cost is less than a weekend at a good motel, but financial assistance is also available.

Any questions contact either:
Mary Hughes (Little Flower) at (775) 530-2307 or
