A Christian Prayer in Union with Creation by Pope Francis

Father, we praise you with all your creatures.
They came forth from your all-powerful hand;
they are yours, filled with your presence and your tender love.
Praise be to you!
Son of God, Jesus,
through you all things were made.
You were formed in the womb of Mary our Mother,
you became part of this earth,
and you gazed upon this world with human eyes.
Today you are alive in every creature
in your risen glory.
Praise be to you!
Holy Spirit, by your light
you guide this world towards the Father's love and accompany creation as it groans in travail.
You also dwell in our hearts and you inspire us to do what is good.
Praise be to you!
Triune Lord, wondrous community of infinite love, teach us to contemplate you
in the beauty of the universe,
for all things speak of you.
Awaken our praise and thankfulness for every being that you have made.
Give us the grace to feel profoundly joined to everything that is.
God of love, show us our place in this world
as channels of your love
for all the creatures of this earth,
for not one of them is forgotten in your sight.
Enlighten those who possess power and money
that they may avoid the sin of indifference, that they may love the common good, advance the weak,
and care for this world in which we live.
The poor and the earth are crying out.
O Lord, seize us with your power and light,
help us to protect all life,
to prepare for a better future,
for the coming of your Kingdom
of justice, peace, love and beauty.
Praise be to you! Amen.

Stewardship Reflection: In the Gospel today, Jesus warns us not to give in hopes of repayment, but to give open-handedly to the poor and needy. That sort of giving mirrors the bountiful giving of God, and Jesus assures us it is blessed indeed!

Our Mission Statement

As committed Christians of the Roman Catholic Church in Richmond, Indiana, we are a community, centered in Christ, rooted in the Eucharistic communion, journeying together in our call to be holy, constantly discerning the charisms of the Spirit, making disciples of one another and seeking God's kingdom in service, stewardship and charity.

Why does God value humility?

Pope Francis: "If God prefers humility it is not to debase us: humility is the necessary precondition for being lifted up again by Him, so as to experience the mercy that comes to fill our emptiness. The prayer of the arrogant does not reach God's heart, but the humility of the wretched opens it up. God has a predilection for the humble and, encountering a humble heart, He opens His own fully." -- General audience, June 1, 2016

A note from Fr. Sengole

"As committed Christians of the Roman Catholic Church in Richmond, Indiana, we are a community centered in Christ and rooted in the Eucharistic communion, journeying together in our call to be holy, constantly discerning the charisms of the Spirit, making disciples of one another, seeking God's kingdom in service, stewardship and charity."

You just read our new Mission Statement! Two months of being here in our parish, I have been praying and working on this new Mission Statement for our parish. This doesn't mean that the existing statement is obsolete or wanting more. The purpose of a new vision and mission statement is two-fold: to update ourselves with new and emerging models of evangelization and to ignite a new fervor for the urgency of evangelization for our times that each one of us need to take up. Generally a vision statement captures "who we are or who we want to be" and a mission statement tells us and others "what we should be doing in order to realize who we are." In our Christian calling, the vision and mission are one and the same. We all have one mission - that of what our Lord entrusted to the Apostles. The Lord told the Apostles: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you" (Mt 28:19-20). If you notice, there are four verbs in the great commissioning: Go, make disciples, baptize and teach. The original Greek sentence has one of these four verbs as a hinge verb without which the other three verbs has no context. That hinge verb is "make disciples." If we fail in making disciples, all that we do - going far and wide, baptizing and teaching in many and varied ways as Catholics - will lose the original context. Our primary mission is to make disciples. You and I as parents, teachers, co-workers, colleagues, friends, ministers... are called to make one another disciples of Christ. Making one another a disciple necessarily means that we invite others to experience the joyful life that we have in the Lord. The first one to go evangelizing in the Bible is Mary. She immediately rushed and set out to see Elizabeth (Lk 1:39), primarily driven by her exuberant joy of salvation for the entire humanity, after being visited by Gabriel. Evangelization is a mission of joy. It is all about telling others what God has done to us in His only Son and in His Spirit. This joy is about our holiness. God has made us holy in our baptism. We are set on a mission of telling everyone that God in Jesus loves us unconditionally and beyond imagination. To such a love, our only response is to constantly see ourselves holy and thus bear witness to God's presence. Jesus is living! He is real! That is why we go to Mass. We must encounter Him everyday and begin having the most wonderful friendship that we can ever imagine! The cost of discipleship is our life, nothing less and nothing more!

May we entrust ourselves and our parish to the intercession of the Blessed Mother!

Faith Formation

“When Jesus says ‘Come, follow me,’ he is inviting us to become his disciples. When we respond to this call, we leave behind our own plans and enter into an adventure not of our own making... this adventure of discipleship is costly—it requires the cost of our lives.” -Dr. Daniel Keating

Faith Formation Opportunities

- Monday Night Bible Study— Come and experience a dynamic study through the Gospel of Matthew. Open to all! Holy Family Campus, 7pm, September 9th.
- Women’s Ministry— Come & hear Fr. Sengole give a talk at Catholic Women United. Bring your favorite ethnic dish that honors your heritage. This month’s theme is Color My World. St. Andrew Campus, Father Hillman Hall, 6pm, Thursday, September 5th.
- RCIA—Interested in learning more about the Catholic faith and joining the Church? RCIA might be for you! RCIA stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, and it is great way to begin forming your faith or returning to the faith after a long break. St Andrew Campus, Father Hillman Hall, 7pm, Tuesday, September 3rd.

Parish Picnic

Thanks to all who volunteered to help make the parish picnic possible!

MEN’S MINISTRY

Catholic Men of Action Event - Come & hear Fr. Sengole give a talk about our faith and enjoy great fellowship and food with other men! Men of all ages are welcome. The Firehouse (BBQ), 6:30pm, Thursday, September 19th, 400 N. 8th St, Richmond, IN 47374

NEWS FROM SETON SCHOOLS...

Quotes from our Seton Catholic 11th Graders after their Campus Ministry retreat at Bergamo Spiritual Center in Dayton, Ohio (August 18th-19th)

- “This retreat is exactly what I needed for my internal struggles... I’ve been working on creating and strengthening my relationship with God for awhile now, and this retreat opened my mind and heart to what God has to offer to me and what he has planned for me. I can’t wait to see where it goes.”

- “I was touched by God more on this retreat than I have been in a while. The leaders made me feel like God was everywhere, and He has a plan.”

“The times we spent in the chapel really brought me closer to my classmates and God. There was a guided meditation where we had visited our own funeral. It really opened me up to realizing that we don’t have forever with the people around us.”

- “Lately, I have been in a dark place with God and this retreat helped me grow in faith by allowing me to truly see God in others.”

Attention Youth (& Parents)! Training will be provided for youth in grades 5 - 12 in order to serve at Sunday Masses. The only prerequisite is a willingness to serve God and our community. If you are willing, please contact Deacon Jim at deacon\_jim@setoncatholics.org and provide your name, grade, school, and the Mass time you prefer to attend. May God abundantly bless you!

FORMED PICK

Lectio: Prayer

Session 1: Prayer

Prayer as a Conversation

Prayer is one of the most basic elements of a life of faith, but sometimes it feels like a one-way “conversation.” Dr. Gray shows how the solution to this problem can be found in the Scriptures.

“Dr. Tim Gray explains the practice of Lectio in a way that makes you thirst for more!”
