Stewardship Reflection: The Gospel today reminds us that our lives and our deeds must serve as examples to others, pointing the way to the Father. Not for our own benefit do we labor, but so that others may see our good works and give glory to our Father in heaven.

Our Mission Statement

As committed Christians of the Roman Catholic Church in Richmond, Indiana, we are a community, centered in Christ, rooted in the Eucharistic communion, journeying together in our call to be holy, constantly discerning the charisms of the Spirit, making one another disciples of Christ and seeking God's kingdom in service, stewardship and charity.

Saints Cyril and Methodius, Byzantines by culture, were "daring enough to translate the Bible into a language accessible to the Slavic peoples (Russia, Ukraine, Bulgaria, etc), so that the divine Word could precede human words". They remain "a model of evangelization and a challenge to proclaim the Gospel to the next generation."

A note from Fr. Sengole

I just finished reading “Rediscover the Saints: Twenty-five questions that will change your life.” I love to read Matthew Kelly’s books. This book is another good read. Parents should encourage their young children to read or read it with them. I want to thank Dr. Sam Krutz for purchasing many free copies for our parish community. I hope that many of our parishioners read this book.

What got my attention was the twenty-five questions. I wrote them down separately, so I can look at them and ask myself these questions. Here are his twenty-five questions that are very meaningful and challenging:

1. What do you believe about your past that is keeping you from your future?
2. Have you ever allowed yourself to rest in God’s love?
3. When was the last time you felt full alive?
4. Do your daily routines reinvigorate you?
5. Have you ever been taught how to pray?
6. Are you an emotionally intelligent person?
7. What are you dissatisfied with at this time in your life?
8. When was the last time you paused to listen to your conscience before making a decision?
9. Do you allow people to really get to know you?
10. Are you part of a vibrant community?
11. Are your friends helping you become the-best-version-of-yourself?
12. When was the last time you did something with your whole heart?
13. Are you open to the possibilities that only God can see for you?
14. Do your doubts unsettle you, or do you see them as an invitation to grow?
15. Are you committed to the pursuit of excellence?
16. What list of attributes describes your best self?
17. For whom are you willing to lay down your life?
18. How do you celebrate truth, beauty, and goodness?
19. How coachable are you?
20. Is the culture helping you or hurting you?
21. What can you learn from the real Santa?
22. What prevents you from surrendering yourself completely to God?
23. What stimulates your curiosity and desire to learn?
24. How often do you forget that we are just passing through this place?
25. How can you recapture the wonder of childhood?

I like to ask questions. I like questions, particularly open questions. I believe each saint had a big question in their heart. Jesus as presented in the Gospels gave them greatly fulfilled their longing for a better-version-of-themselves by his very life. The saints are the best interpreters of the Bible by the way they lived the Gospel. Living the Gospel is the most central aspect of Christian life. Let us follow the saints in the path they traced for us. Who is your favorite saint?

In love of Christ and his holy Church,

Fr. Sengole T. Gnanaraj

Cartoon of the Week!

Mensaje por el Padre Sengole Gnanaraj

Incluso más que el nacimiento de Jesús, su muerte me hace preguntarme cada vez más y más. Realmente no puedo ver la cuna de la Navidad, excepto en las sombras de la Cruz. Vivir en Dios es el significado supremo de la gente en Navidad, y la gente tiene dificultad de aceptar que Jesús es Dios. Esto pasa porque no ven el significado de su muerte. Su muerte fue una muerte de amor, un amor que murió para mostrarle al mundo lo que el amor podría hacer. Cuando el mundo ya no pudo ver y comprender el verdadero amor, Dios vino a mostrarnos qué era el amor.

Sin Jesús, el mundo no habría entendido cómo es el verdadero amor. Jesús y el Amor están tan entrelazados que no podemos imaginar el amor sin la más mínima referencia a Jesús. Jesús es amor. El amor y la verdad van de la mano. Además, somos personas destinadas a la eternidad...Y Jesús nos muestra que el amor es el camino a la eternidad. Su amor no fue consumido por la muerte, porque el amor es eterno.

En nuestro exámen final ante Dios, creo que la única pregunta que tendremos, será: "¿Me amas?" San Pedro no estaba listo para esta pregunta, pero nosotros debemos estarlo, ya que Jesús nos hará la misma pregunta. También seremos juzgados por lo bien que hemos amado al prójimo. Debido a ésto, debemos preguntarnos: "¿Cómo podemos amar a las personas sin conocerlas? ¿Cómo podemos conocer a las personas sin prestar atención a lo que hacen y dicen?"

La Madre Teresa me mostró que incluso para ser caritativo, debe venir de Dios. Porque Dios es Caridad. En el momento en que empiezo a amar a alguien, empiezo a recorrer un camino que es de Dios. Sé amar, pero mi amor siempre será imperfecto, porque Dios es amor. ¡Podría alcanzar el 99% de amor pero nunca el 100%! Si lo hiciera, ¡Me habría convertido en Dios! La única persona que puede mostrar el amor perfecto es Jesús.

Queremos amar a las personas como Dios las amaría. Sin embargo, nuestro amor es a menudo finito. Comenzamos a amar a las personas y dejamos de amar a las personas, pero Dios nunca deja de amar. ¡Incluso antes de que comenzáramos a amar a nuestros seres queridos, Dios los amó y murió en la Cruz por ellos para mostrarnos la profundidad de su amor por ellos! Nosotros como humanos somos tan bendecidos de que Dios se convirtiera en uno de nosotros. Jesús es la razón verdadera por la cual podemos ser buenos y servir a los demás.

Deseándoles la alegría de nuestra salvación, ¡La única razón por la cual Jesús nació! ¡Nada más y nada menos! ¡Les deseo un Año Nuevo abundante en bendiciones de Dios!

Fr. Sengole Gnanaraj

You are the Salt and Light!

Jesus says we are the salt of the earth. Have you ever tasted food that wasn't salty enough? It can taste pretty bland. But do you notice when food has the right amount of salt? Usually we don't think about it. It's kind of hiding in the food and making it taste good. Jesus wants us to be like the "salt" in the world, with the goodness and truth that He gives us.

Jesus also says that we are the light of the world. Can you imagine a completely dark world: no sun or lights or anything? It would be pretty scary. You'd never know what was happening or where you were going. That's what the world can be like for people who don't have the light of God's truth. It's our job to bring the truth to the world so that everyone can see that God loves them.

We have to bring God's light everywhere we go. But we must be gentle with people who don't understand the truth. Otherwise it would be like shining a light in someone's eyes, and they wouldn't be able to see anything. We need to start out like little candles, lighting the way so that people can follow us toward God.

SAINTS CYRIL & METHODIUS MODELS OF MISSIONARY DISCIPLESHIP & EVANGELIZATION

"Cyril and Methodius were blood brothers, born in Thessalonica, Greece early in the ninth century. Their birth names weren't actually Cyril and Methodius. Cyril was baptized Constantine and Methodius was Michael. (A monk's monastic name had to begin with the same letter as his baptismal name.) Both brothers were very bright and well educated...

Emperor Michael III received a request from Prince Ratislav of Moravia. Ratislav told Michael III that his Slavic people had rejected paganism and that they had embraced the Christian law, but they had no teacher to evangelize them in their own language. Other missionaries had attempted to evangelize the Slavs, but none were successful, because they all had tried to do so in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin. The Slavs needed missionaries who could literally speak their language. Cyril learned the Slavonic language as a child, and Methodius was a quick study, so Michael III sent the brothers on mission to evangelize the Slavic peoples, in their own language.

Benedict XVI said the following about these Apostles to the Slavs: "Cyril and Methodius are in fact a classic example of what today is meant by the term 'inculturation': every people must integrate the message revealed into its own culture and express its saving truth in its own language." The pastoral brilliance of Cyril and Methodius, in the language of Pope Francis, is that they first encountered the Slavic people – then, and only then, were they able to evangelize them. The brothers didn't impose a foreign language or unfamiliar customs on the Slavs, rather, they lived with them and learned their culture and their traditions, and soon became masters of the Slavic language. Over time, the brothers earned the trust of the Slavic peoples. The Slavs didn't see them as threatening or condescending – they knew that Cyril and Methodius respected them and loved them, which made them ripe for evangelization.

Soon the brothers were preaching and teaching the Slavs in their native tongue. And although the Slavs had a language, they didn't yet have an alphabet. So, one of the most important things that Cyril and Methodius did for the Slavs was to give them one. (Today this alphabet is known as "Cyrillic," named after St. Cyril who developed it.)

Cyril and Methodius translated the liturgy and prayers into the Slavic language and they also wrote books in Slavonic on Christian dogmas. And the Slavs devoured it. Eventually, the scriptures too would be translated, and the Slavs would soon be able to encounter God in his Word. Benedict XVI observes, "Cyril and Methodius were convinced that the individual peoples could not claim to have received the Revelation fully unless they had heard it in their own language and read it in the characters proper to their own alphabet."

by Fr Damien Ference

Reflection Question:

How can we be more like these two brothers in bringing the good news of Jesus Christ to those who do not fully understand him?

Seton Cardinal Spectacular

Thank You

On behalf of Seton Catholic Schools, we would like to thank everyone who made the 24th Annual Seton Cardinal Spectacular a success! Thank you to the many generous families, parishioners, faculty, staff members, and friends of Seton that came out to kick-off Catholic Schools Week with us! What a blessing Catholic schools are! It was a wonderful opportunity to share in our faith and belief in Catholic schools; and recognize the 2003 Seton Catholic High School Steering Committee with the Friend of Seton Award.

This year we raised $9,436 in ticket sales and donations. We also raised $3,845 at our Student Art Auction, and $4,200 was pledged towards our Grant-a-Wish Program for our Seton Catholic teachers and staff. This money will greatly help Seton Catholic Schools. Stay tuned to the school's website, setonschools.org, in the next couple of weeks to see what was wished for and granted, and what you can still do to help fulfill wishes made by our wonderful teachers and staff.
