Stewardship Reflection: Stewardship involves more than just the gifts we bring to the altar. Today's readings say clearly that it is fidelity to God's law that makes our offering acceptable.

Our Mission Statement

As committed Christians of the Roman Catholic Church in Richmond, Indiana, we are a community, centered in Christ, rooted in the Eucharistic communion, journeying together in our call to be holy, constantly discerning the charisms of the Spirit, making one another disciples of Christ and seeking God's kingdom in service, stewardship and charity.

"It will do us good to take the Gospel of Matthew and read the beatitudes -- perhaps a few more times during the week -- to understand this road so beautiful, so sure of the happiness that the Lord offers us. The beatitudes are 'a Christian's identity card' which reveal the "the face of Jesus himself."

A note from Fr. Sengole

Last Friday, we met for the first time as Evangelization commission. I am very pleased with this new group of our parishioners who show a huge interest in advancing our mission of evangelization in our parish. As a group we are reading a book written by Fr. James Mallon: Divine Renovation: Bringing your parish from maintenance to mission. I read this book a couple of years ago. Fr. Mallon talks about what happened to his parish when he sphere headed initiatives for intentional evangelization.

He begins with an important question: What is our mission? Our mission begins with Christ's great commission. The great commission as recorded in Mt. 29:19 has four verbs: to go, to make, to baptize or to teach. He explains then that the hinge verbs of all these four verbs is "make" - that is make disciples (matheteusate). Over the last 50 years, we have witnessed the most accelerated social change. Culture greatly supported our faith and what we believed. Everything was normal. Very rarely people opposed the Catholic faith, if they did they either joined another church or they were not Catholics. Making disciples was not really part of the efforts. Fr. Mallon says, "As long as we baptized and taught in our schools, we pumped out good "practicing Catholics. In a sense, we got away with not making disciples, because the culture propped it all up." He also points out that a large number of believing Catholics carry a huge burden of children/grandchildren who have abandoned "the faith." We live in a time our culture does not support our faith.

Whether we like it or not, we have an important rediscovery - "make disciples." The heart of evangelization is a person whose name is Jesus! Being a disciple simply means that we know more about Jesus, believe in each and every word he spoke, love him and to be in love with him. Knowing and loving Jesus brings joy into our hearts. Making visible that joy is evangelization. That joy made Mary rush to the hill country to see Elizabeth, her joy was truly the joy of our salvation - not her salvation! We exist to evangelize!

On Monday, February 24th, I will be presenting on Evangelization at Holy Family during the Bible study. On May 1st and 2nd, we will have with us one of our nation's greatest pioneers of the new evangelization, Dr. Ralph Martin. Please do not miss this opportunity to deepen your faith. Please keep in your prayers all the members of the Evangelization commission of our parish.

In love of Christ and his holy Church,

Fr. Sengole T. Gnanaraj

PRO POPULO MASS

CHOCOLATE FEST

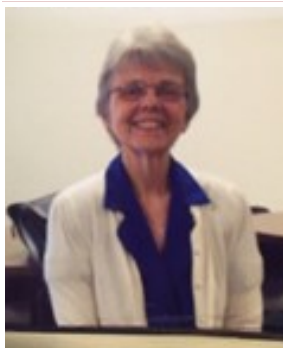

Chocolate Fest committee members are in the back of church selling tickets to the event. Your ticket entitles you to a buffet meal and special chocolate desserts. In addition you may play some pull tabs and bid on items in the silent auction, including an exciting, one - week stay at one of three different locations: Gulf Shores, Alabama; Hilton Head, South Carolina and St. Augustine, Florida. Additional raffle tickets if you want to purchase more are available. You do NOT need to be present to win the raffle. You may mail your envelopes back to the Catholic Office at 240 S. 6th St, Richmond, IN 47374, or drop them in the collection basket at Mass. All funds will be used for the parish needs— new sound system for St. Mary, and updates to the sound systems at St. Andrew and Holy Family.

This is a FUNDRAISER; please support this event.

CHECK REMINDER:

When writing out your check for the New Year, please make sure you make the check payable to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton; the dollar amount in the box and written dollar amount must be the same amount. For your security, please do not abbreviate the year 2020 as ('20). Don't forget to sign your check. Thank you.

MEET THE MUSICIAN: LYNN LINEBACK

I was born in Connersville, Indiana where I attended St. Gabriel School, grades 1-8. It is at St. Gabriel that I started singing when I was still in grade school. I graduated from Marian College with a B.A. in Music Education, going on to teach Junior and Senior High Choir around the Frankfort, Indiana area. I sang in the Indianapolis Symphony Choir and also played bass violin with the Indianapolis Philharmonic Orchestra. I returned to Connersville in 1976 and sang as a cantor and played string bass in the Folk Group for many years. I was music director at St. Gabriel for a number of years. I have participated in Parish Councils, Deanery Councils and Archdiocesan Councils in the past. I have recently retired and am looking forward to helping in any way that I can to bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ wherever the Spirit leads.

A NOTE ON MASS INTENTIONS

We understand your concerns regarding Mass intentions to be said on a particular day to honor your loved one, but we do encounter problems to accommodate everybody. As you know, one Mass for the people of the parish is celebrated each weekend. Please know that Masses are said through the week whether or not you attend the Mass. Each Mass is just as important as a weekend Mass.

¿Recuerdas esta foto? Estos líderes de Sudán del Sur firmaron la paz. El Gobierno de Sudán del Sur y los movimientos de oposición firmaron la Declaración de Roma, un documento en el que expresan su compromiso por el cese a las hostilidades a partir de este 15 de enero de 2020.

El pasado 11 de abril de 2019, el Papa Francisco se arrodilló ante los líderes sudaneses, les besó los pies y les pidió que pusieran fin a los combates que datan del año 2013. El gesto del Papa Francisco conmovió al mundo y, de acuerdo con Pa'gan Amum Okiech, portavoz de Alianza de Movimientos de Oposición del Sudán Meridional (SSOMA), fue un estímulo para llegar a este acuerdo de paz.

El documento fue firmado este 13 de enero y presentado el martes 14 de enero en Roma, en la Comunidad de Sant'Egidio, un movimiento internacional de laicos, cuyo carisma es la oración, solidaridad, ecumenismo y diálogo.

Con este acto, el Gobierno y SSOMA —que reúne a todos los movimientos de oposición que no se han adherido al Acuerdo de Paz de Addis Abeba— expresaron su compromiso con el cese de las hostilidades.

No importa si le vas a los Kansas Chiefs o a San Francisco, este domingo cuando se disputa el Super Bowl 2020, el evento deportivo de fútbol americano más esperado del año, deberías conocer a Harrison Butker, el jugador que ha hablado abiertamente sobre su fe católica y lo importante que es para él asistir a Misa. Criado católico, alejado de la fe. El pateador dio una entrevista a EWTN en 2019, en pleno ascenso de su carrera habló sobre cómo fue criado católico, sin embargo, con el paso de su adolescencia comenzó a alejarse de la iglesia.

Aseguró que mientras creció sintió un profundo vacío en ocasiones. “A veces interpretas una diferente persona para diferentes públicos, había un Harrison para el equipo de fútbol, un Harrison para las cámaras, uno para tus padres, otro para los fines de semana, era una persona fragmentada. Me gustaba el fútbol, pero no había nada más que me apasionara”, comentó en la entrevista.

Butker tiene 24 años. Nació en Decatur, Georgia, está casado con Isabelle Butker y tiene un hijo de apenas un año llamado James Augustine. Es uno de los cinco pateadores mejor pagados en la NFL, los Chiefs lo firmaron en septiembre de 2017 y por sus habilidades se convirtió en su pateador titular.

Cuando ingresó a la universidad Georgia Tech, donde destacó como jugador de fútbol americano, dos personas fueron básicas en su regreso a la religión, un compañero, también jugador, de nombre Grant y el padre Joshua Allen, capellán del campus.

Conocerlos lo llevó a tener interés en confesarse y después de ello quiso acercarse más a la Iglesia. “Mi mayor salto de fe fue acudir al sacramento de la Confesión, eso realmente me cambió, cuando salí ese día del confesionario realmente me sentí diferente, me sentí como yo, como auténticamente Harrison en todas las áreas de mi vida”.

Su ayuda en la Misa en latín

Tras haber firmado con los Chiefs y ya en Kansas, Harrison Butker buscó una parroquia a la que pudiera asistir a Misa cotidianamente y la interesó, principalmente, la Misa en latín. Así, comenzó a participar en la parroquia de Santa María y en San Miguel en Leawood, Kansas. “Me di cuenta de que es muy difícil para los sacerdotes tener tiempo para enseñar y coordinar servidores del altar. Era necesario tener niños y jóvenes para servir, así que me ofrecí voluntario. Ahora trabajo para coordinarlos, los muchachos se están enterando de la Misa y la tradición y realmente les está gustando”, declaró en una entrevista publicada en el sitio Adoremus.

"There are a lot of fake ideas about Jesus in our culture. These series of talks will help you return to the original images Jesus presented of Himself so that we can best understand His identity, claims, and the movement he began over 2,000 years ago. I hope you will join us and invite friends from any background who might be interested in better knowing the person of Jesus."
-Kyle King

What does Jesus say about the Commandments?

In today's Gospel reading Jesus was talking about the laws of God. Some people thought that He would take away the old law that God had given the Jews. But Jesus said that He didn't come to take away the law. He came to fulfill the law.

The old laws tell us the things that we shouldn't do, like worship false gods or kill people or steal. Jesus is telling us that just obeying the commandments isn't enough. He wants us to do everything out of love. If you really love a person then of course you won't kill them! But He says you shouldn't get angry at them either. You wouldn't steal from someone you love- but wouldn't you want to be generous to them too?

Jesus says that the Ten Commandments are very important, but we have to do more than just obey them. We need to love!

Answer to Word-Find: "you will be blessed."
