Our Mission Statement

As committed Christians of the Roman Catholic Church in Richmond, Indiana, we are a community, centered in Christ, rooted in the Eucharistic communion, journeying together in our call to be holy, constantly discerning the charisms of the Spirit, making one another disciples of Christ and seeking God's kingdom in service, stewardship and charity.

The grace of Confirmation

Today Archbishop Thompson will be here with us to celebrate confirmation Mass for the teens of Connersville deanery. I thought, I would share with you some insights about the mission of the Spirit in the Holy Church. Baptism, confirmation and Eucharist are the known as sacraments of initiation. Baptism marks the beginning of our relationship with Christ, we grow in that relationship in a living community that is the Church. Our souls change permanently and we are immersed in grace from God. Through Confirmation, the Holy Spirit strengthens us in the baptismal graces, more of the Spirit is given to us, and the Spirit seals them in our souls. Why do we receive these sacraments? We receive them for a sole purpose of being able to grow like Jesus. Jesus received the Holy Spirit, even though he was conceived by the Holy Spirit. He did not need the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, since Jesus is the second Person in the Trinity. Cyril of Alexandria, an ancient Church Father explains that at his baptism, Jesus receives the Spirit even though he already possesses the Spirit fully as the eternal Son. But he received the Spirit as man that we might be found with the Spirit through him. The Word became flesh "so that the grace of the Spirit might be rooted and preserved firmly in our whole nature." He leant us his immutable divine nature so that the Spirit might be fully anchored in the human nature that this divine person assumed. What we celebrate in the sacraments is so true that grace is given to us for real.

Precisely for this reason, Jesus was born to be like us in everything except sin. Symeon the New Theologian, another Church Father observes this when he says that the Holy Spirit is the principle of all spiritual life... the end and goal of the incarnation is the communication of the Holy Spirit. What does the Spirit do in us? The Spirit shapes our character by grace through his fruit, and also acts upon us from without through the gifts, helping us to act in a way more fully according to the divine will.

The gifts of the Spirit are given in addition to faith, hope and love; they dispose us to be open to the Spirit's promptings or motions, which we also need as we go through life. The Spirit also apportions charisms according to His will. The charisms are given specifically for the upbuilding of the body of Christ which is the Church. In all this, the Spirit conforms our nature to that of Christ. We are transformed in righteousness and holiness. We receive the Spirit to be led by the Spirit. How the Spirit leads is what we see in Jesus who was entirely animated and led by the Spirit. Christian life is life in the Spirit. Christian life is a life like Christ. All Christian life is geared towards the same mission that Christ accomplished and left with us. The Spirit not only inspires those who speak the gospel but also prepares the hearts of those who hear. Let us be docile to the Spirit and encourage one another to conform to the way of the Spirit.

La Basílica de Guadalupe tendrá festejos virtuales a la Virgen

Hace ya 489 años de la aparición de la Virgen La de Guadalupe. La veneración a la Virgen Morena tiene origen después que esta se apareciera hasta en cuatro ocasiones al indígena chichimeca Juan Diego Cuauhtlatatzin en 1531 (5 siglos atrás) en el Cerro del Tepeyac, cerca de la Ciudad de México.

La Basílica de Guadalupe dio a conocer que las Misas de los días 11 y 12 de diciembre por la celebración a la Virgen de Guadalupe serán pregrabadas y se transmitirán a través de internet, pues no habrá actividades presenciales esos días en el santuario para evitar las aglomeraciones ante la pandemia de COVID-19. Asimismo, presentó una serie de actividades con las que los peregrinos pueden celebrar desde su casa.

“Este año la epidemia de COVID-19 ha hecho que las cosas cambien, esta enfermedad está causando muertes y las autoridades sanitarias de nuestro país, y del mundo entero, han intentado frenar el peligro de que los sistemas sanitarios colapsen”, señaló el rector de la Basílica de Guadalupe, monseñor Salvador Martínez, en un video dirigido a los peregrinos.

Ahí, les recuerda que entre los días 5 y 15 de diciembre normalmente visitan el santuario 15 millones de personas, pero este año no podrá ser así, y lo que deberá imperar es la creatividad y la prudencia.

Misas por internet:

Habrán dos Misas los días 11 y 12 de diciembre, ambas pregrabadas:

La Misa de medianoche se transmitirá el 11 de diciembre a las 11:00 de la noche.

La Misa de las Rosas que se transmitirá el 12 de diciembre al mediodía.

Podrán verse a través de las redes sociales de la Basílica de Guadalupe, de la Arquidiócesis de México y en las de Desde la fe.

Actividades virtuales.

En la página de internet www.virgendeguadalupe.org.mx se encuentran las convocatorias para que todos los interesados participen de ellas. Ahí los peregrinos podrán:

-Enviar una fotografía de la persona o familia por la que piden una intención, la cual será parte de una “formación virtual de la figura de la Virgen de Guadalupe”.

Enviar su intención, la cual será colocada en el altar de la Basílica de Guadalupe.

-Envía una fotografía del lugar donde celebrarán a la Virgen, “puede ser del altar en tu casa, parroquia, negocio, barrio, colonia, etc” al correo basilica.guadalupe@gmail.com

-En la página web de la Basílica se podrá encender una veladora virtual a la Virgen.

-En el mismo sitio se podrá encender una antorcha virtual “para todos aquellos grupos que año con año peregrinan”.
