Prayer for the new SCHS Principal

All merciful and ever-loving God,
You are our hope and source of all good things.
As we search for a new principal for our school,
enable us to do your will in this process.
Give us a principal who with faith and grace
may accompany our students to truth in love;
educate them in virtue and character.
May we delight in your providence seeking your kingdom in all that we do.
May we listen to your Spirit who helps us to conform ourselves to the image of your Son, who lives and reigns,
Lord for ever and ever. Amen.

Is your Faith Asleep or Awake?

Dear friends,

The public ministry of Jesus is usually comprised of two streams. One, Jesus preached. Second, He performed miracles. The miracles of Jesus are visible signs of the content of Jesus' preaching which is primarily the announcement of God's kingdom and his invitation to enter into the kingdom. God's kingdom and subsequently, all values and virtues corresponding to a life in the kingdom are not mere ideals. They are moral absolutes. Why we do what we do is qualified by the values of God's kingdom.

The first requirement is faith. Without faith nothing is meaningful. Christian life is a life lived in Christ and with Christ. Christ is with us. The words that Jesus uses here (v. 40; cf. 5:36) teach us a perennial truth: faith conquers fear; if we have faith in Jesus, nothing can disturb our peace: "Christian, Christ is asleep in your boat. Wake him up, and he will calm the storm and your fears. [...] You are afraid because you are asleep; you are tossed about on the stormy desires raised by the breath of those who tempt you to do evil because your faith is asleep. 'Your faith is asleep' means you have forgotten your faith. To wake Christ means to awaken your faith, to recall what you believe. Remember your faith; wake Christ within you. Your faith will immediately still the frightening winds and waves of those who tempt you to do evil" (St Augustine, Sermons, 361, 7).

May we pray for the increase of our faith, faith that reminds us of Christ's presence!

Peace,

Fr. Sengole Gnanaraj

Sisters of St. Theresa of Bukoba

The Congregation of the Sisters of Theresa of the Child Jesus of Bukoba, Tanzania was founded by the White Fathers (The Missionaries of Africa) in response to the Tremendous socio-economic and spiritual needs of the local people and beyond. It has about 480 professed nuns who serve humanity under the leadership of the Catholic Church. Our programs provide service to the individuals in need include: The Orphan project, Carpentry, Tailoring for girls and boys, Home based care for the elderly, Three elementary schools and Two high schools, Two health centers and Two clinics. The Communities Vision: A congregation that worship God, imitated Jesus Christ and proclaims the kingdom of God so that faith and love are manifested in our Apostolic. The Community Mission: To evangelize people providing spiritual and physical ministries particularly to women, children and the youths through health care, education and community development.

Communion to Nursing Homes: If you are interested to take communion to nursing homes, please contact the parish office. We are restarting this important ministry and are in need of people to help. Fr. Sengole will commission you to be a communion minister (if you are not one) for this ministry. Thank you in advance!

Our Newly Baptized

Dear Parishioners,

We are in need of many donations for up and coming Totus Tuus Vacation Bible School experience! In a few weeks, 4 missionaries trained by the Archdiocese of Indianapolis will arrive to our parish to run a dynamic, Christ-centered program for the kids of our parish and community! They will be in need of meals both for lunch and dinner. We will also need donations of snacks and drinks for the children who are attending the program on a daily basis. Thank you for being such a generous parish! If you are able to help, please contact me! -Kyle King
