What is in August?

Dear parishioners,

As we begin the month of August, we are starting back Religious Education on Sundays. Please mark your calendars for the first day of Religious education which is August 22, 2021. Classes will be as usual conducted in the Seton Catholic High School. We are grateful to the many volunteer teachers who are committed to transmitting our faith to the young students. More information is found in the bulletin and the parish website.

Seton Catholic schools will reopen for the new academic year on August 9, 2021. Our school and parish staff will be doing a retreat at the Benedictine Inn, Indianapolis on August 6 for one full day. Please keep us in your prayers. Our new principal, Mrs. Jane Brack and those who are newly hired to teach at our school are eagerly looking forward to this new year.

On August 15, we will celebrate the consecration day for St. Joseph after the 10:00am Mass at St. Andrew Church. If you are not able to make it, please remember to do the consecration prayer at home.

The young adults of our parish are embarking on many gatherings—join us for the kayaking experience on July 31! All college students and those between the age group of 20 and 40+ are welcome to join!

And, we will be restarting RCIA—Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults beginning September 7, 2021 at Holy Family Church campus. If you or your friends would like to learn more about Christian faith and become a Catholic—please direct them to me or Evelyn Miller at 765-914-4465.

Fr. Sengole Gnanaraj

What is expected of the spiritual direction?

*“Your way of acting should be different from the world’s way; the love of Christ must come before all else”
Rule of St. Benedict, Chapter 4:20-21*

While the primary responsibility of the direction experience is on the directee, there are certain expectations and ethical behaviors that are appropriate to expect of a spiritual director, which include, but may not be limited to:

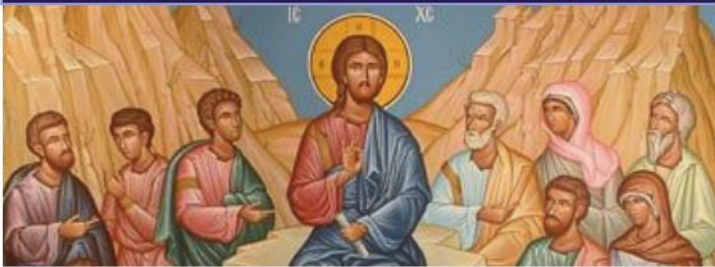

- Is engaged in the sacramental life of the Church
- Participates in his/her own spiritual direction
- Has appropriate theological and spiritual training
- Is engaged in ongoing formation for spiritual directors
- Is part of an ongoing supervision group which meets regularly
- Is balanced and mature; has a sense of joy
- Has sufficient life experience and the capacity to reflect on their life experience
- Is aware of one’s own vulnerability, strengths and weaknesses
- Is able to respect other’s struggles with Catholic teachings and practices, yet is comfortable and knowledgeable in offering the truths of the Catholic faith with freedom and clarity
- Respects the dignity of all persons, Communicates to directees the expectations of the directee/director relationship including evaluation practices and the process for terminating the relationship
- Asks directees who are in counseling to inform their therapist that they are receiving spiritual direction
- Respects the directee’s privacy and maintains confidentiality as required by law and ethical codes
- Is competent and professional about meeting times and meeting space

Choosing a spiritual director

“Where two or more are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them” (Mt. 18:20)

The process of choosing a spiritual director is important and should involve careful consideration and prayerful reflection. Interviewing potential directors can offer you confidence in selecting someone you are comfortable with both in who they are as an individual and as someone acting as a minister of the Catholic faith. The thought of asking questions of a spiritual director may be intimidating but a good director will welcome your questions. (To be continued)

Are you Interested in joining the Catholic Church?

This is an opportunity for those who have been thinking about joining our Catholic Faith, or Catholics who just want to learn more or refresh their knowledge of the faith.
