Do you want to be a Catholic?

We will be starting RCIA classes beginning September 7, 2021 at Holy Family Campus. Classes will start at 7pm. For questions please call EVELYN MILLER at 765-914-4465 or Laurie Miller at 765-962-3902 at the parish office.

Be Doers of the Word.

“But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves” (James 1:22). This verse from the second reading for today will challenge us! Hearers of the word! I think the first thing we do as infants is to hear various sounds when it comes to using our faculties for communication. We hear first, then speak, then write - in all these three distinct actions, we want to be perfect. Hearing becomes listening. Speech becomes meaningful and writing precise.

In reading the Bible, it is often said that we actually engage in listening to the Holy Spirit. The Spirit is living and active and it becomes so true when we read and pray the words of the Bible. That is why James says, be not hearers only but doers of what we hear from the Spirit of Christ. We hear in order to do what we hear. Hearing matures into doing. Hearing becomes complete only when we attempt to do what we hear. James compares the one who does not do what he hears to a man who looks at his own face in a mirror. What is wrong in looking at our own face in the mirror? Well, living the Gospel means to confirm ourselves to Christ and being able to see Christ in our own selves. As one author says, the Gospel is a mirror of the soul, which shows one's conformity or lack of it to the requirements of Christian conduct. Looking into it calls for a spiritual change; and if this does not follow, no benefit has been received. It is easy to be so excited in hearing something, but before the excitement disappears, which often is the case, we must endeavor to put into action what we hear.

Someone told Jesus one time that what Jesus spoke was a hard saying. That person left Jesus, but those who stayed with Jesus were asked to do what they heard from Jesus.

Choose a particular saying of Christ from Matthew chapters 5 to 7 - and see what saying of his is the most challenging. What saying of his have I already done?

Peace,

Fr. Sengole Gnanaraj

Vocations & Priesthood

Do I have to know for sure that I want to be a priest to enter the seminary?

No. There are two levels of seminary formation, college and theology. In both cases, seminary is not only a place of education and formation, it is also a place for continued prayer and discernment.

What is the process for entering the seminary?

There is first an application process for the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. Once the student is accepted by the Archdiocese, then there is another application process for the seminary.

Where would I attend the seminary?

Currently, the Archdiocese of Indianapolis uses Bishop Simon Brute College Seminary in Indianapolis for college and Saint Meinrad School of Theology in St. Meinrad, IN, and the Pontifical North American College in Rome for theology. Once a man is accepted as a seminarian for the Archdiocese, he is assigned a seminary by the Archbishop.

What are the academic requirements to enter the seminary?

To enter seminary college, a student must have completed high school with a GPA of 2.0 or better. For the final four years of theology, a student needs a four-year college degree with a GPA of 2.5 or better and some basic philosophy requirements. Generally, the education process requires eight years after high school. (to be continued)

Are you interested in learning more about our new mission and helping serve others in need? We plan to use email newsletters and social media to keep you informed. If you would like to join our email newsletter list you can send your request to: svdp.tricountygoodsamaritans@gmail.com.

We are currently concentrating on getting our building ready at 1000 South E Street, Richmond. Our vision is to have classroom space for our Changing Lives Forever Program, a smaller space to showcase some furniture and household goods with an online inventory of available items stored off-site, and eventually having a commercial kitchen to help fund operations. If you have skills or desires to help in our mission, feel free to include them in your email.

Birthright Journey of the Heart - Walk 2021

Birthright of Richmond's annual "Journey of the Heart" fundraiser walk will return to Glen Miller Park on Saturday, September 25th. Registration will run from 8-10 am Saturday at Community Christian Church, 500 Elks Road. Participants will make their way - rain or shine - through Glen Miller Park before returning to the school. The object of the annual event is to foster greater awareness of life issues and support local efforts to provide alternatives to abortion. It is a kickoff to October as Respect Life Month. Sponsor sheets for walkers to use in collecting sponsors and donations are available at birthright. Birthright is an all-volunteer organization that offers women a variety of services at no charge, such as a pregnancy test, emotional support, a medical visit as well as maternity and baby clothes.

IN LOVING MEMORY!

Add the names of a deceased loved one to the back of our bulletin. Cost is $1.25 per week, or $60 per year and runs from October through September. It's a great way to honor a memory and help defray the cost of bulletin printing.
