Dear parish family,

I want to take a moment to thank the various people who helped celebrate a wonderful Christmas. As always, I love to listen to our musicians play the Christmas music for Mass. We do have some young talents emerging in our community. I am grateful to all the musicians who do a phenomenal job through the year. Many were involved in cleaning and decorating the Church for Christmas. Our teachers at the school helped our children to celebrate this Christmas both in classrooms as well as in the Church. The primary kids came over to the rectory and decorated the Christmas tree - that was a fun day!

Let us not forget that Christmas reminds us of the historical intervention of God in human history. Christ, the only begotten Son of God came and dwelt among us. Christmas points to both the incarnation (the birth of God among us) as well as the redemption (the effect of God's dwelling among us). Christmas is all about Christ, but at the same time, it is all about us. It is because of us and the love that God has for us that He eternally desired to live among us. Immanuel - God with us! Because God dwells among us, we cannot live a life that is irrelevant to this fact presence in the world in and through Jesus Christ. We tell the world that God dwells among us. We also show the world by our life what it means to live with God.

We are the people that have seen the light. We no longer walk in darkness. May Christ, the light of the world, enlighten our lives.

The true meaning of Christmas is that we are saved.

The true joy of Christmas is that we have a home!

A home from where Jesus descended!

The true hope of Christmas is that,
whatever darkness we may find ourselves in,
there is always light!

A light that enlightens our souls

To find our home!

Merry Christmas!

Fr. Sengole Gnanaraj

Merry Christmas to All of our Sunday morning Religious Education Students & Catechists!

JOY to the World!

“...for God loves a cheerful giver.”

~ 2 Corinthians 9:7

Thanks to everyone who contributed to our special Advent Project!

During the season of Advent, we teach our students the importance of giving. Every December, our Seton Catholic prekindergarten and preschool classes work together to collect items such as toys, coats, winter hats, gloves, clothing, etc.. We partner with the Salvation Army to pass these items onto families that truly need them.

This year, we took it a step further and asked our local Church community to participate. We were so excited to drop off all these items to the Salvation Army on Friday, December 17th!
