2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Parish

Richmond, IN

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, “They have no wine.” His mother said to the servers, “Do whatever he tells you.” Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, “Fill the jars with water.” So they filled them to the brim. headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine. Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

Evangelize 3:16

Preaching the Kerygma today

You saw in last week's bulletin a little information regarding our upcoming project for 2022. Evangelization is the grace and vocation of the Church, said Pope Paul VI. He also emphasized that the Church exists in order to evangelize!

What is evangelization? Evangelizing people means bringing the Good News of Jesus into every human situation and seeking to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel itself. In other words, it is bringing people to Christ by talking about what God did for all humanity in Jesus.

Every parish must intentionally engage in evangelizing people. Now, evangelization in a broader sense means everything we do – worship, service, education, celebration of sacraments, accompanying people in grief and sorrow, charity, stewardship, catechesis, youth ministry etc. Evangelization in the strict sense simply is talking about Jesus in a direct and intentional way. In the words of Pope Paul VI, "There is no true evangelization if the name, the teaching, the life, the promises, the Kingdom and the mystery of Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of God are not proclaimed.

What is the goal of evangelization? The goal of evangelizing activity is conversion. Conversion must be genuine and must also be accompanied by signs of new life as a result of being touched by the preaching about Jesus. Conversion is always in the first-place rejection of sin and growing closer to Christ. These are not possible without the aid of the Holy Spirit. But how could the Spirit lead us, if we do not cooperate with the Spirit?

Can you describe your conversion in terms of before and after a certain period/incident in your life? When the apostles went out to preach, those who converted left their pagan world and embraced the life in Christ. Our world has increasingly become a pagan world again! The new word for that is secularism. As a result, we no longer have a culture that supports what we believe. Consequently, we have forgotten how to explain what we believe in to our children.

Do you want to know the heart of the Gospel? Do you want to encounter the Apostles today in their

Please contact the Parish Catholic Office at 765-962-3902 and enroll for the month of year in 2022 that you are able to attend this 3 session Evangelization Workshop!

preaching? Do you want to know how sin can permanently separate us from God? As one author puts it, "It is indispensable that every Christian be confronted, in the greatest seriousness, with the possibility of being lost!"

We will be starting a parish wide evangelization workshop titled, "Evangelize 3:16" at Holy Family Campus. Participants for each month is limited to 16, meaning each cohort (every month) will have 16 participants. Each session will last an hour (5-6pm on Fridays). Please call the parish office and put your name down for any cohort mentioning the name of the month in 2022. Someone from the evangelization team will contact you.

Looking forward to seeing you!

Church in Latin America - Archbishop Charles Thompson

For more than 50 years Catholics in the United States have supported the Church in Latin America: from Mexico through Central America to the southern tip of Argentina. This year the Archdiocese of Indianapolis will take up the annual Collection for the Church in Latin America on January 22-23, 2022.

Funds from this collection are used to underwrite and enliven the faith formation and spirituality of seminarians, religious, lay persons and youth across the region. Your contributions strengthen these and many more efforts to provide pastoral care by parishes, dioceses and religious communities.

I encourage you to be as generous as you can to this opportunity to share in the mission of the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean. With prayers and gratitude for your generosity.
