Dear parishioners,

“The one who sings prays twice”. ... He that sings praise, not only sings, but also loves him of whom he sings. In praise, there is the speaking forth of one confessing; in singing, the affection of one loving” (St. Augustine). We are so blessed to have committed and talented musicians and cantors in our parish. This past Saturday, our music ministry team met and went over some of the essential Church teachings on music in the divine liturgy. I am really happy to see young musicians working hard on their talents despite their other academic responsibilities. I am grateful to their parents and their teachers for mentoring good budding musicians in our community. Much appreciations also to our senior musicians who help them!

In 2007, the US bishops issued important guidelines in the form a book entitled, “Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship.” This book has all that we want to know about music in divine worship. Through this book our Bishops encourage and affirm the use of traditional sacred music—old music, new music, and music of various styles and cultures. Catholic tradition has preserved some age old practices of divine worship especially in the field of music. Although, the Gregorian Chant is considered a distinctive of the Roman liturgy and is given the pride of place in liturgical services, other kinds of sacred music, especially polyphony are not excluded from liturgical celebrations. I enjoy listening to the folk group and the chants during Lent. All our cantors are truly blessed with God given talents. So are our musicians.

Although many think that all music is the same and there is not much to differentiate, in general, there is a classical distinction between the “sacred” music and “profane” music. By sacred what we mean is that which is excluded from ordinary reality, related in some way to the proximity or density of the divine presence. By profane we do not mean “unholy” but that which is not suited for a divine worship. We do have a good definition of sacred music from the a document called Sacrasanctum Concilium of the Second Vatican Council: “Sacred music will be the more holy the more closely it is joined to the liturgical rite, whether by adding delight to prayer, fostering oneness of spirit, or investing the rites with greater solemnity.” We should see this definition in the light of what Thomas Aquinas said about sacredness. “A thing is sacred (sacrum) by virtue of its relation to divine worship (ad cultum dininum).

At the Holy Mass, music is set to parts that are strictly part of Mass (parts of Mass) and other hymns that can stand alone by its very nature. All music during the Holy Mass must be done with utmost seriousness, preparation and commitment because they help everyone to participate well and at the same time enhance the meaning of the mysteries of our faith. John Paul II said, “The effectiveness of [Christ’s] action [in the Eucharist] is a fruit of the work of the Holy Spirit but also requires a human response.” All hymns and music must be geared towards enhancing this response in a meaningful and fruitful way. Here lies the place of music in divine worship! Join me in congratulating and appreciating our music team!

In Christ,

Fr. Sengole Gnanarj

We are grateful to our Music Ministry team for their dedication and leadership.

CLASS OF 2022 CONGRATULATIONS!

OTHER SETON CATHOLIC NEWS...

DONATE NOW

Have you given to the Cardinal Fund to help us further the mission of Seton Catholic Schools? To date we have collected 62% of our goal, and need everyone's help to continue providing the gift of Catholic education in Wayne County. Donate now at <https://setonschools.org/annual-fund>.

AROUND THE CORNER:

It's that time of year! The Boys Basketball Sectional is fast approaching! Our Cardinals will play on Tuesday, March 1 @ Blue River. Time TBD. Check setonschools.org for more information.

HELP THE CLASS OF 2022

The Class of 2022 is hosting a Culver's Share Night on Monday, Feb 28 from 5-8 PM. 20% of sales come back to help the seniors fund their remaining expenses this year!

Safe Parish: Safe Environment to Children

If you volunteer or work for the parish/school, you must get trained and certified by enrolling in Safe Parish program offered by the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. Please contact the parish office for more information.

Homebound, Nursing home or Hospital visit

If you would like to have Fr. Sengole visit your loved ones, please call the parish office to arrange for a time. This could be for hearing confessions, anointing of the sick or a simple visit.

Ministry Scheduler Pro

We are using a program called Ministry Scheduler Pro which is available on our parish website to coordinate different ministries. This really helps reduce the work for our ministry scheduling team. Please make use of this program to swap/request/add volunteers if you are not able to serve at the last hour. Please contact Beth VanDerBurgt for more information.

Deacon Joseph Kraemer will be ordained a priest on June 11, 2022. And Jack Wright will be ordained a transitional deacon in April 2022. Please keep them in your prayers. We are so grateful to God for their vocation and commitment to serve Christ and His holy Church. Encourage vocations to Priesthood and pray for vocations!
