Divine Mercy

This Sunday, we celebrate the Divine Mercy Sunday. This feast was instituted by St. Pope John Paul II, based on the writings and teachings of St. Faustina. St. Faustina was so fond of God's mercy in Jesus to the entire humanity. She pleaded with everyone to take advantage of Christ's mercy. She looked at everything from the perspective of Christ's mercy. Her fundamental question was whether or not we align our lives in response to what God did for us in Christ. She was so passionate about meditating on the mysteries of mercy that her entire life became a message of mercy.

This was St. Faustina's famous prayer:

O Jesus, eternal Truth, our Life,
I call upon you and I beg your mercy for poor sinners.
O sweetest heart of my Lord, full of pity and unfathomable mercy,
I plead with you for poor sinners.
O Most Sacred Heart, fount of mercy from which gush forth rays of inconceivable graces upon the entire human race,
I beg of you light for poor sinners.
O Jesus, be mindful of your own bitter Passion and do not permit the loss of souls redeemed at so dear a price of your most precious blood.
O Jesus, when I consider the great price of your blood, I rejoice at its immensity, for one drop alone would have been enough for the salvation of all sinners.
Although sin is an abyss of wickedness and ingratitude, the price paid for us can never be equaled.

This is what Christ spoke to St. Faustina:

"I am love and mercy itself. ... Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. ... My mercy is greater than your sins, and those of the entire world. ... I let My Sacred Heart be pierced with a lance, thus opening wide the source of mercy for you. Come then with trust to draw graces from this fountain. ... The graces of My mercy are drawn by the means of one vessel only, and that is trust. The more a soul trusts, the more it will receive."

As Jesus says, trust is the key! Isn't it strange that people don't really trust in Jesus and in his invitation to go to him? To show His mercy, he pierced his heart! Misericordia (Latin) means "the misery of the heart" due to an excessive love (agape). What more can God do to tell us of his love! Let us not be afraid of going to Christ! God's mercy is more powerful than our sins. Nevertheless, without mercy, sin can ruin our lives!

Fr. Sengole Gnanaraj

Catholic Home Missions Appeal

Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered mission territories because they are unable to find essential pastoral activities needed in their communities. Your support funds religious education, seminary formation, lay ministry training, and other programs that build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/homemissions.

Parish Directory

The Parish Directory is being updated, and we don't want any of our families to be left out. Photo sessions will be available from 10 AM - 8 PM July 15 - 17 and again July 29 - 31. The session will last 10 - 15 minutes, then you will return within two weeks to view and make optional purchases. You will receive a complimentary 8x10 and directory for your participation.
