Our Mission Statement

As committed Christians of the Roman Catholic Church in Richmond, Indiana, we are a community, centered in Christ, rooted in the Eucharistic communion, journeying together in our call to be holy, constantly discerning the charisms of the Spirit, making one another disciples of Christ and seeking God's kingdom in service, stewardship and charity.

National Eucharistic Revival

WASHINGTON (OSV News)—Registration for the National Eucharistic Congress on July 17-21, 2024, has opened. The congress will take place in Indianapolis with the Church in central and southern Indiana serving as the host archdiocese for the historic event.

The Year of the National Eucharistic Congress and Missionary Sending 2024-25 is the third and final year of the U.S. Bishops' National Eucharistic Revival.

The congress is expected to draw more than 80,000 people, and organizers have compared the event to World Youth Day, with prayer and liturgies, catechesis for individuals and families, and a festival-like atmosphere.

Those who want to attend can sign up at the National Eucharistic Congress's website — www.eucharisticcongress.org.

Launched last year, the National Eucharistic Revival is a three-year campaign by the U.S. bishops to increase the Catholic understanding of and devotion to Christ's real presence in the Eucharist. Part of the impetus for the campaign was a Pew Research Center study in the fall of 2019 that showed just 30% to 40% of Catholics understand and believe in the real presence.

A more recent study conducted by the Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate at Georgetown University found that 50% of Catholics know the teaching on the real presence in the Eucharist and only 40% believe this teaching.

The revival opened on June 19, 2022, on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, traditionally known as Corpus Christi. Many dioceses, including the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, marked the day last year with eucharistic processions.

Speaking to the media in November about the revival, Bishop Andrew H. Cozzens of Crookston, MN, said the beauty and diversity expressed in those processions "capture what is at the heart of this movement, which is a movement in which we seek to invite people to a transformative encounter with Christ in the Eucharist so that they might be healed, unified and sent on mission."

The diocesan year has included the launch of Heart of the Revival weekly e-newsletter (available in English and Spanish), expanded content on the National Eucharistic Revival's website (eucharisticrevival.org) and the training of more than 50 priests from around the U.S. to be eucharistic preachers. Father Jonathan Meyer and Dominican Father Patrick Hyde are among the priests from across the United States selected to minister in this initiative.

Father Meyer is pastor in solidum with Father Daniel Mahan of the parishes of All Saints in Dearborn County, St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception in Aurora, St. Lawrence in Lawrenceburg and St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross in Bright. Father Patrick is pastor of St. Paul Catholic Center in Bloomington.

The Washington-based National Eucharistic Congress nonprofit was formed in 2022 to plan the national event. Bishop Cozzens serves as chairman of its board of directors.

In an April 2022 interview with Catholic News Service, Tim Glemkowski, executive director of the National Eucharistic Congress, noted that "the original vision" for the revival began to be discussed when then-Auxiliary Bishop Robert E. Barron of Los Angeles was chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Evangelization and Catechesis shortly after the Pew study results on Catholics' understanding of the Real Presence.

Bishop Barron, now shepherd of the Diocese of Winona-Rochester, Minn., was succeeded as evangelization chairman in November 2020 by Bishop Cozzens, who continued to move ahead with plans for the revival, and in 2021, the bishops voted to approve the initiative.

In November 2022, the bishops elected Archbishop Charles C. Thompson of Indianapolis to succeed Bishop Cozzens as chairman of the evangelization and catechesis committee.

5/21/2023 - Catholic Communication Campaign
Thank you for your support!

Catholic Communication Campaign

Our Archdiocese will take up the annual collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign. On the weekend of May 20-21, I ask that you prayerfully consider supporting this annual collection again this year. Half of the collected funds stay right here in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, and the other half supports communication projects in the United States and around the world. Locally you are supporting the operations of our archdiocesan Communications Office, and helping defray the production cost of award-winning newspaper, The Criterion. Did you know that The Criterion is Indiana's largest weekly newspaper delivered to 60,000 households in central and southern Indiana? That's a remarkable feat for a staff of half a dozen communications professionals! The 50% that is forwarded to the National Collections Office supports the modernization of Catholic communications here in the United States as well as worldwide. Your financial offering not only helps spread the faith, but also helps form young disciples and gives them practical skills they need to navigate today's digital media environment. I am grateful for your continued generosity to this special collection.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Charles C. Thompson
Archbishop of Indianapolis

children so they may recite it with confidence and receive this Sacrament of healing with joy and love. There will be a brief First Holy Communion practice immediately following the Reconciliation service.

First Holy Communion: Sunday, May 21, 2023 at 2:00 pm, St. Mary Campus. Please keep our 17 precious First Communicants in your prayers. May God Bless them and protect them in the coming weeks as they prepare their hearts to receive your Son in First Holy Eucharist.

First Reconciliation: Thursday, May 18, 2023 at 6:30 pm at St. Mary Campus. Parents, please practice the Act of Contrition prayer with your children

Month of Mary

Pray for our children and our role as mothers in a beautiful way to start each day. An easy way to remember to pray these quick prayers is to copy and laminate them, then stick them on your bathroom mirror or wall where you will see them each morning when you shower or brush your teeth.

Religious Education

Religious Education for the 2022-2023 year is winding down with only 2 classes left, May 14th and May 21st. Parents, please prayerfully make these classes a priority as our catechists still have lots of energy, love and catechesis to share with your child. Mrs. Camela Schmitz's 2nd grade class WILL NOT MEET on May 21st because they will be celebrating their First Holy Communion at St. Mary Campus at 2:00 p.m.

Greeters Needed

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish needs additional Mass Greeters as summer approaches and families take vacations. Greeters arrive 30 minutes before Mass, count parishioners, pass the collection baskets and hand out bulletins after Mass.

Birthright

Birthright is looking for a couple of people to work in the clothing room. At the most, it would only require 1-2 hours of your time per week. After the training you will have your own key and be able to set your own schedule. If interested, call Debbie Coleman, 977-4266.

TOTUS TUUS Registration open TODAY! Please consider this beautiful Christ-centered week of Mass, Fellowship, Sacraments and Fun for your child. Parents check those bookbags for Registration forms that came home with your Seton / Religious Ed. Child this weekend. You may also register online on our parish website. Registrations are open until and during the week of Totus Tuus, July 24th – 28th, 2023. Early registration is strongly encouraged and appreciated so that we may have a count of the "Precious Souls" we will be serving. Please prayerfully consider registering your child for TOTUS TUUS (Latin Meaning).
