Happy Feast of Holy Trinity

Happy feast of the Most Holy Trinity! If you noticed, we do not have a feast of the Holy Spirit; neither is Pentecost considered a feast of the Holy Spirit. Pentecost naturally leads us to Trinity because at Pentecost we celebrate the effects of Jesus' ministry which is, the Church being immersed into the inner life of the Trinity. As St. Augustine teaches, "the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father as the first principle and, by the eternal gift of this to the Son, from the communion of both the Father and the Son" (CCC 264). Trinity reminds us of our Baptism. "By the grace of Baptism 'in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,' we are called to share in the life of the Blessed Trinity, here on earth in the obscurity of faith and after death in eternal light" (CCC 265). The Greek translation of Mt 28:19 has the word "EIS" which means "into" – meaning we are Baptized "into" the life of God!

We are familiar with the fruit (not fruits!) of the Spirit as taught by St. Paul to the Galatians 5:22 – love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-knowledge. We also know what the gifts of the Holy Spirit, which are Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord (Isaiah 11:2-3). Now, please read and reflect on 1 Corinthians 12: 7-11 and Ephesians 4: 11-13. (Refer to Romans 12: 6-8) These three texts have some insights that pertain to the work of the Spirit in the Church. They are called charisms (Charismata) or demonstration of the Spirit. Charisms are not given to all; "the Spirit apportions to each one individually as he wills" (1 Cor 12:11).

Charisms are not things of the past. They are given even now to individuals because the Spirit is alive in the Church. Paul points out in 1 Corinthians charisms which we should discern now – utterance of wisdom, utterance of knowledge, faith, gifts of healing, working of miracles, ability to prophesy, ability to distinguish between spirits, various kinds of tongues and interpretation of tongues. Tongues are generally understood to be the special ability to a unique way of praying. Paul writes to the Ephesians about some charisms that point to the structure of the Church – gifts of the Spirit for some to be Apostles, some to be prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers. In Romans 12 he talks about service, ability to exhort, ability to give aid and acts of mercy. These are charisms that are given for the purpose of building up the body of Christ (Eph 4:12).

We must discern for the charisms of the Spirit in our parish. If you are gifted with the ability for Spiritual direction, praying, working of miracles, special ability to give your time in service, or vocation to become pastors in the Church – you must heed to the voice of the Spirit. For, this is how we grow as the Church. Of course, we need our special talents but talents without charisms do not work! The Church's mission belongs entirely and perennially to the work of the Spirit. The Spirit works in us but in the same pattern as he worked in the life of Jesus who excelled in all gifts and charisms of the Spirit. The same gifts are given to us, to the Church! Let us pray each day that we may become docile to the Spirit.

Congratulations Dear Fr. Jack Wright as you have welcomed the Charisms of the Spirit and given them to the Church.

Seton Catholic Schools Open Enrollment

Seton Catholic Schools are currently accepting applications for the upcoming 2023-2024 school year. Did you know that 96.5% of all Indiana students now qualify for a Choice Scholarship? Indiana legislation has passed new voucher guidelines eliminating the need for an additional "path" to qualify for a tuition voucher. Now, only income is a determining factor! A family a four can earn $222,000.00 per year and still qualify for a tuition voucher. For grades K-8, 100% of the tuition would be covered by the voucher and nearly all is covered at the high school level.

If you thought a quality, Catholic education was not affordable for your family, please reach out to our admissions department for further information! We would love the opportunity to serve your child in God's school! If you are interested in exploring an open spot for your child, please send an email to admissions@setoncatholics.org. Come join our Seton family where God is always first in every daily activity!

Holy Hour of Commitment for our Priests

It is a privilege to pray for our priests! Seven Sisters Apostolate has a mission to pray for individual priests in small groups of only seven. Each woman choose a different day of the week and offers one Holy Hour with a commitment of 1 year. Thus, the priest receives a Holy Hour every day. It is a blessing for the priest and the intercessor! Our small group started praying for Father Sengole on July 1, 2022. If you are interesting in being a part of this ministry, please email treichley@aol.com.
