September 3, 2023

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Parish

Richmond, IN

Holy Land Pilgrimage

October 14-23, 2024

With great pleasure we invite you to join Fr. Sengole, Fr. Daniel Mahan & Fr. Ben Syberg, in making a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. Walking in the footsteps of Jesus and experiencing His homeland is a tremendous blessing. Many have considered the Holy Land to be the "Fifth Gospel" because of the insight it provides into the life of our Lord. If you are interested, please contact the Catholic Office for more information and the registration form. Space is limited.

Our Mission Statement

As committed Christians of the Roman Catholic Church in Richmond, Indiana, we are a community, centered in Christ, rooted in the Eucharistic communion, journeying together in our call to be holy, constantly discerning the charisms of the Spirit, making one another disciples of Christ and seeking God's kingdom in service, stewardship and charity.

Even a No from God is an Answer!

Man proposes and God disposes! So goes an old saying! Yes, God can disagree... He can say, "no!" Jesus disagrees with Peter in today's Gospel and rebukes him. Not too long ago, Peter was praised as a rock upon which Jesus would build his church. The same Peter is rebuked with a harsh word – Satan! Peter is seen to be an obstacle to God's plan. The word Satan in Hebrew simply means "opponent."

Oftentimes, we do the same. When God doesn't answer our prayers, we get upset and angry with God. Rarely do we realize that even a "no" from God is an answer! How come His "no" should not be considered an answer?

What was God's plan for Jesus? Was it not natural for Peter to not want him to suffer and be humiliated? It is not so much about what Peter instinctively felt as what Jesus deliberately said – that he should go to Jerusalem, suffer from the elders, the scribes and chief priests and be killed! Who would not disagree with this kind of shocking news? Anyway, God's ways are different from that of ours. We can only surrender to God's ways. God's ways cannot even be optional. When John the Baptist hesitated to baptize Jesus, He would let him know his ways gently. When Peter refused to get his feet washed by Jesus, He would sternly tell him that he would not have a part in Jesus! When Mary and Joseph were upset about Jesus disappearing, He would tell them that His first duty was to do the will of His Father! When people felt uneasy to remove the stone of the tomb of Lazarus, Jesus would insist that the stone be moved. Even with Jesus, He did ask for the cup of suffering to pass away, not to say no but to instruct us that it is nothing wrong in articulating our ways over God's – eventually, we should choose God's will.

The point is, although God revealed to Peter who Jesus was, He didn't reveal the full picture. Peter only received a little bit of revelation but not the mystery of the cross and resurrection. If faith is something that was given to us or revealed to us, the same faith teaches that Jesus and His cross can never be separated. There is no glory without the cross. Our commitment to Jesus necessarily involves imitating the suffering Christ. "The way of perfection passes by way of the Cross. There is no holiness without renunciation and spiritual battle. Spiritual progress entails the asceticism and mortification that gradually lead to living in the peace and joy of the Beatitudes" (CCC 2015).

May we follow Christ, carrying our own crosses, knowing that there is always a redemptive value to our sufferings that come our way. Christ voluntarily and freely accepted the way of the cross, otherwise our own sufferings in this life would not have any meaning.

Peace and blessings,

Fr. Sengole Gnanaraj

Mother Teresa: No Greater Love

Mother Teresa: No Greater Love is a soaring tribute to a spiritual icon, a powerful witness of authentic Christian charity, and a guidepost for all who seek hope in our turbulent times: Mother Teresa of Calcutta. This film reveals not just who Mother Teresa was, but how her singular vision to serve Christ in the poor continues to be realized through the Missionaries of Charity today.

2nd Collections

9/3/2023 - Birth to Five
9/10/2023 - Catholic University of America

2nd Collection - Catholic University of America

Next weekend, the archdiocese will be taking up the National Collection for The Catholic University of America. Catholic University is a national research university with over 5,700 undergraduate and graduate students in more than 250 academic programs in the heart of Washington, D.C. By giving to the collection, you are supporting future Catholic leaders, both religious and lay, who are being formed by an exceptional, faith-rooted education. You also are supporting the University's research and training initiatives that help diocese and parishes respond to the most pressing needs of their faithful. The Catholic Project - an initiative that aims to heal the breach of trust many have experienced as a result of the crisis in the Church, a master's program in Ecclesial Administration and Management, and a credentialing program that prepares recent graduates to serve as campus ministers are a few examples of how the University is serving our Church and our nation. Visit—collection. Catholic.edu to learn more and give easily online.

Friendly parishioners are needed to welcome fellow parishioners and visitors to our weekend Masses. Ideally we will have more volunteers so the same individuals are not scheduled every week. If you would like to serve on a regular- or limited-basis, we would love to hear from you. Please contact one of the sacristans.

SVdP

Four years ago Tri-County Good Samaritans became an official conference of St Vincent de Paul. During these years we have planned a path for our organization to be a unique advocate for the impoverished; not enabling them, but empowering them towards a new path. We have followed the guidance of the Holy Spirit and you have supported us beyond our wildest dreams. Thank you. We have reached the first leg of our journey in our vision to be a diverse organization serving God and community, focusing on transforming families-in-need to paths of stronger spiritual, emotional and financial lives through acts of love, compassion and mentoring. Our building is now complete and we invite you to our Open House on Sunday, September 10th, from 1-3pm. We are located at 1000 S E St. Light snacks will be served. All are welcome. Please come visit us. See how we plan to change our community and society in the years to come by loving one another.

Maui Wildfires

Today our thoughts and prayers are with all those affected by the devastating wildfires that have ravaged the island of Maui. As a community of faith, we are called to come together and provide unwavering support to those who are suffering. It is in times like these that our collective love, faith, and compassion can make a tremendous difference. You are encouraged to make online financial contributions to Catholic Charities-USA: <http://www.catholiccharitiesusa.org/?form=hawaii23>.

Blessings,

Reverend Monsignor William Stumpf
Vicar General

Up coming United Catholic Appeal

Vocations

Fr. Michael Clawson and Fr. Matthew Perronie were ordained by Archbishop Charles Thompson in June 2022. Both started their formation journey at Bishop Simon Bruté College Seminary.

Fr. Clawson's time at Bruté helped open him up to receive the love and mercy God wanted to give. The most important gift he received from his time at Bruté was learning how to pray.

Fr. Perronie came to Bruté very shy and introverted. The gift of community and fraternity helped him break out of his comfort zone. He realized that his time belongs to God, and that the priesthood is more than just celebrating the sacraments; it is about being with people, being present, and entering people's lives in a way that is unique to the life of a priest.

Thank you for your witness as you serve Christ through our seminarians and priests with your donation to the United Catholic Appeal!
