Lent - The Journey Begins

Let me be honest with myself as I look into my heart and soul, noticing the times I turn away from you. Guide me as I humbly seek to repent and return to your love. May humility guide my efforts to be reconciled with you and live forever in your abundant grace. Transform me this Lent, heavenly Father.

Archdiocese Survey Participation

Archbishop Thompson and The Archdiocese of Indianapolis are asking for our participation in an online survey. The aim is to gain a deeper understanding of the communications needs, aspirations and preferences of members of The Church. The survey contains questions on a variety of topics, only takes about 15 minutes to complete and is anonymous. Scan the QR code or visit the link to participate in the survey: inact.questionpro.com/archindysurvey.

Dear All,

This week we celebrate the first Sunday of Lent. It is a day that we can skip out/exempt ourselves on our Lenten penances for the day—and only after a few days of ‘giving up something’, we are already prepared to give ourselves a break. The Church is gracious and allow us the chance to ease up for the Sundays of Lent.

However, if you consider it, it is even more difficult to exercise the disciplines of prayer, fasting and almsgiving for six days, and then take a break. It is harder to pick up the disciplines again on Monday. In a sense, by relaxing the rules on Sundays, the church is challenging us to re-new weekly our decision, to recommit ourselves to our salvation.

The church offers these disciplines of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving to us all the time. Through these disciplines we learn/experience how to grow in holiness, in the ways of God. The question to consider is why does the church recommend that we intensify the disciplines during Lent.

The discipline of prayer reminds us that our primary relationship is with God. The discipline of fasting assists us to keep control of our passions, and the discipline of almsgiving teaches us about our relationship with others: a living out of the two great commandments: to love God (prayer) and to love others (almsgiving) as ourselves (fasting).

“Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, love for the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world is,

- the lust of the flesh, and
- lust of the eyes, and
- the pride of life, is not of the Father but is of the world. And the world passes away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever.” (1 Jn 2:15-17)

These ways of the world are not of God. They entered into the world through the sin of Adam and Eve, by their giving into the temptation of the snake in the Garden.

“But the serpent said to the woman, ‘You will not die [if you eat of the fruit of the tree in the midst of the garden]. For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.’ So, when the woman saw that

- the tree was good for food, and
- that It was a delight to the eyes, and
- that the tree was to be desired to make one wise,

she took the fruit and ate it and she also gave some to her husband, and he ate.” (Gen. 3: 4-6)

These three ways of the world are uprooted through the spiritual disciplines of prayer (vs. the pride of life), fasting (vs. the lust of the flesh) and almsgiving (vs. the lust of the eyes).

By practicing these disciplines throughout our lives, we are attacking the root of sin. As I said, these are not just “Lenten” practices; they are concomitant with living a Catholic Christian way of life, as a way to live a virtuous life. And it is more difficult today, since our society today is a neo-pagan society.

If we want to live the ways of God, we need to live in a counter-culture society. Today’s society makes gods/idols of the ways of the world:

- the lust of the flesh is celebrated today as free love and pornography;
- the lust of the eyes is encouraged through consumerism and credit cards; and
- the pride of life makes us arbiters of good and evil—not only for ourselves but for everyone.

Living counter-culturally doesn’t mean we need to adopt the ways of those Christian groups which totally reject modern ways. However, it does mean we need to live by placing God in first place: through participating in Mass and other devotional activities. We need to demonstrate by our almsgiving that we are called to help those in need around us. And finally, we demonstrate control of the abuse of our bodies and minds through overindulgences, such as through food, entertainment and internet usage.

We are called to live by the three “T’s” of Christianity: To use our time to pray, our talent to assist in our parish activities, and our treasure to support the ways of the Church.

Prayer and Penance,

Fr. Nick

United Catholic Appeal

We are... United
in the Eucharist

As a Church, we are stronger together. The impact of your gift is essential to the people of our archdiocese and the mission given to us by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

We have all heard the parable of the widow's mite. What made her gift so beautiful was her faith, as it was fully centered on God. She gave all she had that day to the cause she loved so dear, believing that her heavenly Father would not overlook her great need.

In this second donor spotlight with Ginny and Pat Maher, Pat talks about how the coins shown here hung on the wall in his office for many years. As he passed by those each day, it reminded him to ask himself, "Am I giving all that I can give? Am I giving out of my wants, or am I giving out of my need?"

Take a moment and scan the QR code on the left below to watch part 2 of their story. And as you watch, may it remind you of the widow's act of perfect love and sacrifice. If you are moved to give, you can do so by scanning the QR code below on the right to make your gift online, or visit www.unitedcatholicappeal.org/donate.
